

Good grab

Richmond Hill Legion Midget goalie Ted Inch makes a grab of the puck here in Sunday's game against Barrie but he wasn't so lucky on nine other shots as the locals lost 9-2. Oh well, the season's young yet, fellas. Maybe next time.

Legion midgets split games

The Richmond Hill Legion Midgets experienced the "good and bad of it" on the weekend as they got their 1977-78 regular hockey schedule underway.

Friday saw them come up with an impressive 7-4 opening game win over Newmarket only to come up short Sunday via a 9-2 demerit at the hands of Barrie.

The win against Newmarket saw the Legion team coming from behind a 3-1 second period deficit to win in the final period.

The big shooter in this one was Joel Reeves with three goals and an assist.

He was followed by Jack Vantol with two assists; Richard Hughes, one goal and an assist; Danny O'Sullivan, one and two; Jeff Josling, a goal, Craig Halliday a goal.

Other assists went to Scott Barlett, three, Len McVeigh, two.

Barrie proved to be "ye olde" nemesis and had game well in hand all the way.

Goals and assists for the Legion: Jim Majury from Craig Halliday and Jeff Halliday; and Scott Bartlett from Reeves and McVeigh.

Richmond Hill was keyed up for this one but just couldn't get untracked.

The Hillers get an opportunity to avenge the Barrie game when they travel to Barrie tomorrow night (Thursday).

They are at home Sunday against Aurora at 1:15 p.m.

Hill atoms blow big lead

The Richmond Hill Atoms are four games into the exhibition season and have chalked up a win, loss and two ties.

One of the ties was against Aurora in a game which saw Richmond Hill build up a 7-0 lead only to have to settle for an 8-8 tie.

Five of those Aurora goals came in the last four and a half minutes.

Nelson heads ball

George Nelson was elected president for 1978 of the Richmond Hill Minor Ball Association at its annual general meeting last Thursday night.

He replaces Stan Shadoff.

Other members of the executive are: Ernie Ferrando, vice-president; Mary Ross, secretary; Anne Thorpe, treasurer; Gale Ferrando, publicity director; Betty Cook, head convener; Ken Guyton, equipment manager; Paul Patenaude, umpire-in-chief; Lois Smith, diamond controller.

The meeting was held in "The Blue Flame Room" at the Consumers' Gas building.

Brockton midgets win 3 of 4 games

The Oak Ridges Alex Brockton Midgets are off to a fine start in exhibition hockey play with three wins in four outings.

The Brockton boys lost their opener 8-4 to Aurora Minor Midgets but came back to blank Newmarket Minor Midgets 2-0, then beat Aurora Minor Midgets 7-5, and then Newmarket again 3-2.

The results:

Aurora 8, Oak Ridges 4. Goals by Steve Nolan from John Cummins; Ken Clague from Charles Trask; Rick Greenslade from Mark Smith and Dan DeGeer; and Ihor Chornobaj unassisted.

Oak Ridges 2, Newmarket 0. Goals by Rick Greenslade and Mark Smith, both unassisted.

Oak Ridges 7, Aurora 5. Rick Greenslade from Ken Clague; Greenslade from Smith and Clague; Mike Wright from Ken Blyth; John Cummins unassisted; Charles Trask from Steve Nolan; James Cummins from Nolan; Greenslade from Clague.

Oak Ridges 3, Newmarket 2. Mark Smith from Shor Chornobaj; Greenslade unassisted; Greenslade from Cummins and Smith.

The goaltending chores were handled by Mark Spensley and Glenn Wood.

'Ridges Kings lose to Aurora by 3-2

The Oak Ridges Pee-wee Kings lost a close 3-2 game to Aurora in exhibition hockey but bounced back to edge Sutton 2-1.

The Aurora game saw goals by Jeff Harris and John Lalonde with an assist to Mike Millard.

Goaltenders were Glen McKenzie and Billy MacArthur.

David Blyth and Lalonde scored in the Sutton game. MacArthur was in goal.

The Oak Ridges Kings are sponsored by Quality Woodworking.

Bernie Wintzes led the Richmond Hill scorers with two goals and an assist. Chris Depiero followed close behind with two and singles went to Angelo DeAngelis, Chris Pescador, Grant Padley and Timmy Lawlor.

In the return match both Aurora and Richmond Hill played a much more defensive game with Richmond Hill winning 3-2.

Aurora started very quickly in this one but Richmond Hill goalie Scott Strain kept them at bay.

Richmond Hill opened the scoring at 4:53 of the first via Michael Rae from Wintzes and Patrick Mulcahy. Aurora came back to tie it in the same period and then go ahead in the second.

Richmond Hill stormed back to tie the game on a goal by Tod Dungey from DeAngelis and Padley. Then it was Wintzes getting the go-ahead goal in the third period.

The third exhibition game saw Richmond Hill playing in a game which saw the first two periods scoreless as both teams played a strong defensive game.

Thornhill scored first in the third period and things looked bleak for Richmond Hill.

Finally it was Dungey storming the Thornhill end and scoring with 1:13 left in the game for a 1-1 tie. Assists went to Jeffrey Field and Martin Devlin.

The final game of the exhibition series saw Thornhill and Richmond Hill back at it again with Thornhill winning this one 3-2.

Richmond Hill opened the scoring in the first via Wintzes who pulled the trigger on a fine pass from Mulcahy.

Thornhill replied with two goals in the second. Then it was Richmond Hill tie the game in the third.

Richmond Hill got its goal on a blast by DeAngelis.

Thirty seconds later Thornhill took the lead to stay.

The same Richmond Hill Atom team opened the regular schedule with a 4-4 tie against Orillia.

Joel Gentle got the first of his three goals in the first period on a perfect pass from DePiero and Wintzes.

Orillia tied it in the second at 5:25 but Gentle got his second goal from DePiero. Orillia closed out the second period by again tying the game.

The final period saw Gentle get his hat-trick and Mike Rae scoring his first goal of the year to put Richmond Hill two up.

A determined Orillia team came back to tie the game in the final three minutes.

Minor atoms lose by 5-0

The Richmond Hill Minor Atoms suffered a 5-0 loss in their opening game at Newmarket Saturday.

Richmond Hill played a hard game with extra efforts contributed by Danny Jensen and Derek Baptiste but couldn't break through Newmarket's strong defence.

Robbie Bell, in the net for the last half of the game, played well for Richmond Hill allowing only one goal.
