

Macrame program at library is a big success

By MILLIE STEWART

The afternoon program of macramé instruction being held at the Charles Connor Library is a huge success.

Twenty-five children over eight years of age are enjoying the free lessons.

The credit for the organization goes to librarians, Josie Fleming and Sherry Robinson.

The ladies who have volunteered their time and talent to teach the course are Shirley Weiss of Lake Wilcox and Doreen Mitchell of Oak Ridges.

LIBRARY NOTES
Rossini the Magician will be at the Charles Connor Library this Saturday at 3 p.m.

The program is free, but all tickets must be reserved in advance.

To reserve your tickets, please call 773-5533.

On Tuesday, Nov. 1 there will be a family night film program. The films to be shown will be 'The Yellow Submarine' starring The Beatles. There will be a short feature as well.

There is no charge for this program. Everyone is welcome.

WHEELHOUSE CLUB
Birthday greetings to Joe Landle, Ann Hutchinson, Grace McNeill.

The first social afternoon at the Wheelhouse club was a success.

Diane Styromo, a well-known artist, was the guest. She showed the members slides of Oslo, Norway.

The next meeting at the club will be a business meeting to be held on Nov. 8 at 2 p.m.

The ladies of the Wheelhouse will be holding their Christmas bazaar and craft sale on Dec. 3. They wanted everyone to know, so that other organizations will be aware of their date.

This might be a good opportunity to pick up something different for Christmas gifts.

GIRL GUIDES
The new Girl Guide company in Oak Ridges still has some room for girls.

If you are between 10 and 14 years of age, and are interested, please call the Guide Captain, Fran Velduis at 773-4245.

LIONS
The Lions are holding their annual turkey shoot later this month. The shoot is done by cards. Each card has 12 squares and each square costs $1.50.

When the card is shot at, the square with the most buck shot is the winner.

There will be a winner on each card of a turkey weighing around 12 pounds.

For more information, please call Keith Doran at 727-2382.

NEW YEARS
Just the thought of New Year's Eve, is enough to scare anyone, especially if you haven't even thought of Christmas yet.

The Lions think far ahead. They are already selling tickets for their New Year's Dance. The tickets are selling very quickly.

The dance will be held in the Lions' Den at Bond Lake Arena from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m.

There will be music to dance in the new year, a delicious buffet, perfect for the occasion, favors, noise makers, prizes, and fun for all.

A special feature will be a glass of the bubbly at midnight.

Tickets for this evening are $35, per couple and this is all inclusive. For your ticket, call Joe Tanzos at 773-4285.

ST. JOHN'S
The congregation of St. John's joined with the area Anglican Churches last evening for an All Saint's festival.

Holy Trinity Church in Thornhill was the host parish.

The guest speaker for the service was Bishop Ogwal of Uganda.

The Rev. Ron E. Armstrong of Emmanuel, Richvale was installed as Regional Dean.
