

Booty galore

Nothing like being loaded down with treasures, eh? One of the players of the Invicta Major Squirt League champs — Peter McNamara — holds just some of the booty at the annual Richmond Hill awards night.

Moreland selected most valuable player

The Richmond Hill Men's Major Fastball League officially rang down its 1977 season with an awards night last week at Richvale Recreation Centre.

Receiving the most valuable player award was pitcher Glen Moreland of Joe's Garage Juniors who led the league in wins with 18 in 22 games started. He was involved in two ties and two defeats. Other awards saw: The most sportsmalike trophy to Kenny Roberts of Richmond Hill Auto Body for the third time; umpire-in-chief award to Tom Price for his efficiency and contribution to the league.

The league champion Video Real Estate team won the big trophy with the consolation one going to Jenkin's Garden Supply.

Finally, Bob Ross Jr. was presented with a trophy for being the "most critical fan". Bill "Skip" DeGeer presented it.

Minor midgets start fast, falter

The Richmond Hill Minor Midget A's came up with a very disappointing show losing 1-0 to Aurora.

One report has it that it was such a bad show that coach Rainer Weidenfelder was speechless at the final whistle.

He couldn't believe he had watched the same team do battle against the current Ontario champion Thornhill team last week and play so well.

With eight minutes to go in the first period Aurora put the puck in the net and that was it.

Richmond Hill goalie Jim Roberts played steady throughout but his teammates couldn't do anything right in front of him.

They appeared to have underestimated a solid Aurora team.

Legion midgets split with Barrie, Aurora

The Richmond Hill Legion Midgets bounced back from a 4-1 loss to Barrie to tie Aurora 3-3 in a minor hockey game Sunday.

It was Richmond Hill's first game at home against Aurora and it nearly turned out to be a nightmare.

Richmond Hill opened the scoring on an unassisted goal by Richard Hughes only to have Aurora come back to lead 2-1.

Hughes then got his second goal to tie the game on an assist by Scott Bartlett.

The second period was scoreless.

Aurora went ahead 3-2 in the third period and appeared to be shoo-ins with only six seconds left to play.

That's when Jeff Joslin blasted the tying goal from Bartlett and Joel Reeves.

Richmond Hill's return game against Barrie might have seen the Legion fare better except for a comedy of errors.

Richmond Hill got the first goal with Hughes scoring from Danny O'Sullivan and Rod Graham.

Legion coach Bruce Richter made a few line changes in the Aurora game and with a little practice with the new lines it should pay off.

Ridges pee-wees win two games in a row

The Oak Ridges Pee-wee Kings downed King City 7-1 and Richmond Hill 3-1 in exhibition hockey league play last week.

The 7-1 win saw two-goal efforts from the sticks of Robert Sanderson and Michel Vanderploeg (also an assist) and John Lalonde

(one assist also). Craig Bumstead got the other goal with three assists to Frank Rossi and one to Mark Millard.

Against Richmond Hill it was Vanderploeg getting two goals; Steven Arnold, one and one; and assists each to Garner Collister and Neal Wilson.
