Concern for a "Prodigal"

If all prodigals received the same sort of rapt attention and concern as is being shown here by these members of York Philharmonic Choir, the word would probably soon cease to exist. Seen in rehearsal for The Prodigal Son, are, left to right, Coreen Fenton, Doreen Short and Carole Tovell.

Soloists out for opener

There will be plenty of soloists when York Philharmonic Choir opens its season Nov. 6 at Richmond Hill United Church.

At that time the choir will present Sir John A. Sullivan's Oratorio, "The Prodigal Son," directed by its regular conductor, Edward F. Luka.

Also at that time, five soloists - four from the choir - will be heard in solo passages from this great religious work.

Appearing from Toronto will be Mervyn Pickering, who is studying music there, while choir soloists will be sopranos Brenda Luka and Christine Wilson; contralto Monica Vermeulen; and basses, Norman Baldwin and Alexander Buchnea.

Organist will be Joseph Calverley of Richmond Hill United Church.

The choir will perform the same work November 12 at Emmanuel Baptist Church, Willowdale, and Nov. 13 at British Methodist Episcopal Church, Toronto.

Derrick Lewis will be the organist at both concerts. He is the choir's regular accompanist.

Other wrks to be performed by the choir, which has about 20 new members this year, are The Holy City by A. Gaul, February; At the Foot of the Cross, Rossini, Lenten season; The Creation by Haydn, April.

You have to walk before you can run.

BRENDA LUKA...soloist

Gordon Sinclair & friends

But even friends disagree. That's their prerogative as newscommentators. Each one different; each one with his own approach to the news. Four newscommentators extraordinaire!

Gordon Sinclair for 'News and Comments' 11:50 AM, weekdays.

He's the dean of 'News and Comments'. The original lovable, irascible what he had to say, on others you won't, but one thing everyone agrees upon is that he'll get you to think.

Torben Wittруп for 'News and Comments' 8 AM and 6:30 PM, Mon.-Fri.

His consistently 'accurate' news will keep you on top of what's happening here and around the world. He's your man for 'Authoritative News'.

Bob Hesketh for 'News and Comments' 1 PM and 5:50 PM, weekdays.

A free-thinker, outspoken reporter, feature writer and newscaster. His blend of sarcasm, wit and humour makes for dramatic listening.

Charles Doering for 'News and Comments' at 7 AM and 10 AM Monday through Friday.

His straightforward, no-nonsense approach to 'News and Comments' is refreshing. He pulls no punches and his comments usually hit home.

It's this kind of 'people' combination that makes CFRB's News Commentary Team the most listened-to group in town.
