A HOUSE or YOUR HOME?

When you are selling your property ask yourself what the purchaser is buying. Is he buying a house,

Your attitude toward the sale of your property can be a distinct advantage to you. Once you put your home on the market try to think of it as a purchaser

This should keep you in an objective frame of mind, allowing you to deal with the marketing and

On the other hand, if you feel you are selling your home, you might place yourself in the position where you can be offended. If upset by the offered price, or some special item requested in the offer, it's possible to loose not only your objectivity, but

A buyer is not likely to place any value on your memories, sentiment or labour of love you have in a house. He may not even use it in the same way you

Your reasons for selling can be varied and usually easily apparent to you. Your feelings about the house at the time a sale is possible, might sneak up on you and distract your practical approach to reviewing an 'offer to purchase'. Difficult though it may sometime be — when you are selling a house; keep and treasure your memories for yourself - and offer for sale - A HOUSE!
