

Remembrance Day in Richmond Hill

Parade

Taking part in the Remembrance Day Parade, which followed a Yonge Street route from the Richmond Heights Plaza to the cenotaph were such notables as Alf Stong, M.L.A., York Centre; Frank Barrott, commanding officer Squadron 778 Air Cadets; Lois Hancey, Richmond Hill Regional Councillor; and Dave Schiller, Richmond Hill Mayor. Special guest was Barney Danson, Minister of Defense.

Big Crowd

Hundreds of Richmond Hill and district residents turned out Sunday afternoon to watch the Remembrance Day ceremonies held at the cenotaph on Yonge Street. Crowds lined the sidewalks and in some areas spilled out onto the streets. York Regional and Ontario Provincial Police kept Yonge Street closed most of the afternoon.

Special guest

Special guest for the afternoon was Canada's Minister of Defense Barney Danson, and this area's Member of Parliament. Mr. Danson also attended a dinner for World War I vets held Saturday night at the Legion.
