Sinner's have fun at annual curling spiel

By BERT NAYLOR The Sinners and Business Girls' sections were prominent in their activities at the Richmond Hill club this past Sunday.

Two Hill rinks in big bonspiel

Two entries from the Richmond Hill Curling Club will be among the 128 ladies' rinks in the Toronto area competing for the 49-year-old North American Life Curling Trophy this year.

They are the Faye Weiss-skipped rink Marg Mellon, vice; Joanne Bloxam, second and Fran Anderson, lead. Terri Powell is skipping her rink with Helen Awde as vice, Irma Ferris, second, and Bert Vernon, lead.

The competitions begin next Monday at the Richmond Hill club and will then be scattered among a series of clubs until the finals will be held at Tam Heather Curling Club in West Hill December 1. Twelve rinks will be curling at Richmond Hill.

The games will be played mornings and afternoons in various local curling rinks. Six events will be featured: Main or First, First Consolation, Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth events. Four games, including byes, are guaranteed.

Legion midgets tie Aurora, Orillia

They didn't win but they didn't lose either.

That was the story for the Richmond Hill Legion Major Midgets on the weekend as they tied Aurora 2-2 and Orillia 6-6.

The Aurora game saw Richmond Hill overcoming a 2-0 deficit as early as the halfway mark of the first period.

Hill Carpenters suffer frustration

Richmond Hill Carpenter's Union Peewee II's had a rather frustrating weekend losing two league games to Thornhill by identical 2-0 scores and then tying Lefroy 2-2.

The Lefroy game proved to be a hard checking affair with Tony Veitch and Andy Field scoring the goals and Paul Grice gaining both assists.

The two games against Thornhill were again tight checking affairs with goalies Rob Johnson and Tony Buidos playing well along with their defence. The forwards had difficulties against hot goaltending and goalposts.

PRIZES
Four sets of prizes will be presented for each event along with prizes for main event, semi-finalist, and sterling silver pins for the main event victors.

Dinner and presentation of major prizes follow semi-final events at the host club, Tam Heather on 740 Military Trail Road, Westhill.

IN 1928
North American Life's bonspiel sponsorship began in 1928 with the men's Toronto Bonspiel. From that year's Barrie winners, the trophy travelled throughout Ontario — going as far afield as Milwaukee in 1962.

When men's interest flagged in the mid-60's, the bonspiels were discontinued. Women's growing enthusiasm for this sport renewed Nalaco's sponsorship.

Last year it became the first organization to sponsor the bonspiel for Toronto and District Clubs affiliated with the Southern Ontario Ladies' Curling Association.

trophy was put up for the first time. Our thanks go to Sinner Dennis Miller for providing the trophy.

The team split the games this year and the trophy went to Richmond Hill on the basis of ends won. It will be up for grabs again when the teams clash at Avonlea later this year.

Later in the day the Business Girls held their "Swiss Surprise" consisting of a six-end mixed game and a swiss steak dinner for all in attendance.

The Business girls did a great job (as usual) on this event and those partaking reported a good time was had by everyone.

Out-of-club bonspiel time is upon us and we have a report that a rink composed of skip Barry Wilson, Glenn Charge, Stew Paul and Wayne Luckock, curled in a Penetang Men's Spiel this past weekend.

An indication of the level of competition was shown by the fact that the world championship rink of Sweden's Ragnar Kamp was in this event. Our boys did not get the chance to play Ragnar but they did win two of four games before bowing out in the third event.

The Ladies In-Club "Stephenson" Trophy event was held last Wednesday with Peggy Welsh's rink winning top honors. Her rink comprised Sue Bailley, Marie Rice, and Pat Jurczak minute remaining when Richard Hughes tied the game from Jeff Joslin.

The game was a cliff-hanger all the way with both teams missing scoring opportunities. Shots on goal in the third period saw the Legion registering 19 to Aurora's five.

Richmond Hill 6, Orillia 6. A real comeback effort by Richmond Hill who were down three goals to nil at the 14-minute mark of the second period.

They came back to tie the score after 10 minutes of the second period only to have Orillia pull ahead 4-3 before that session ended.

The beginning of the third period saw Richmond Hill pulling even again only to have Orillia go ahead 6-5 with a minute remaining.

Then it was Scott Bartlett scoring his second goal to tie the game. Bartlett also picked up an assist. Team captain Jack Vantol played an excellent game and scored the first goal for Richmond Hill.

Other goals and assists went to Rod Graham, a goal, Jeff Joslin, a goal and Ron MacKinlay, a goal. Assists to Morris Delfabro, Dave Plaxton, two.
