

Oak Ridges Atoms down King

The Oak Ridges Atoms came up with their finest showing of the season as

Epic boys move fast

The Richmond Hill Epic Realtor Junies are doing it all over again.

Riding high in first place in another fast start to equal last season.

The Epic boys have won five games and tied one to date having beaten Barrie 6-2, tied them 5-5; beaten Thornhill 4-2 and 9-2; Orillia 4-2 and 3-2.

Comprising the team's lineup this season are:

States coach Campbell:

"With Warren and Casey we have sound goalkeeping. Martin, Bishop, Gundert, Clark and Pleshberger on defence give us a lot of strength in these spots.

"Our three forward lines are playing well as a team and if they continue to skate and jell as they have so far they should do well.

"As normal, funds are always low and we will have tickets available shortly for our New Year's Dance again this year.

"To Epic Realtors, thanks for your support. We appreciate your sponsorship and we hope we do not disappoint you. I am sure we will not. I think we have a fine hockey club."

Atom A's lose 4-3

Richmond Hill Minor Atom A's were defeated in Barrie Friday night 4-3.

Barrie started the game off by scoring two goals. The Bondstealers tied it up with two goals, both by Derek D'Battista and assisted by Pat Dickinson on the pair.

They went ahead 3-2 when Todd Savoye scored, assisted by Dave Repath. Barrie made a strong come-back in the last two minutes of the game and put two goals in the net for the win.

Sunday night was disappointing as well when Newmarket won 4-0 over the Minor Atoms despite good second efforts by Danny Jensen and David Nicol.

they downed King City 3-1 behind the two-goal scoring of Ron Rawding with Paul Torlone getting the other goal. Assists went to Craig Irvine and Kris Walsh. It was the team's first game in which they showed some of their potential playing a strong positional style.

Their mistakes were few and all the players showed improvement in the checking department.

Rawding and Torlone played strongly offensively and the defensemans thwarted many King City chances. Strong defensively were Andrew Aldworth, Chris Mohl, John Bertelson and Don Rawding.

Other house league action saw: Doane Hall Pharmacy Peepees blanked King City IGA 3-0 with Keith McQuarrie scoring twice and Craig Bumstead once. Assist to Gary McGowan. A good team effort.

The Oak Ridges Chariot Collision and Premium Gas Bar Novices edged King City 3-2 behind the two-goal scoring efforts of Shayne Stevenson. Mark Potts got the other goal unassisted. Potts also assisted on one of Stevenson's goals along with Craig Spears.

It was Oak Ridges' first win this season. The Oak Ridges Hollingworth & Sons Midget-Juveniles tied King City 1-1 on a goal by Ihor Chornobaj from Paul Smith.

The game was a clean one with only four penalties called. King City goalie A. Burbidge robbed the Oak Ridges teams who had many scoring opportunities. The same team downed King City 5-1 as goalie Chris Wood picked up his first shutout of the season.

Scoring the goals were Rob Cummins, Dave Matanovic, Ihor Chornobaj, Frank Bentley and Ross McDonald. Assists went to Rob Cummins, Dave Matanovic, Doug Comfort and Dave Forrester.

The Oak Ridges Terraphane Mfg. Co., Bantams downed Oak Ridges Bank of Nova Scotia 11-2 behind the four-goal scoring of Paul Beck.

Right behind was Mark Ryman with three goals; Evan Boyle with two, and singles to Alex Brockton and Lance Ryman. Tim Stevenson and Cliff Weston scored for Scotia. OMHA — BANTAM Penalties was the downfall of the Oak Ridges Allan's Shell Bantams as they dropped a 4-1 game to Tottenham.

Peewee Kings decided Sutton 5-1 with goals going to: Craig Bumstead, a goal and an assist; Frank Rossi, a goal; Robert Sanders, one goal; John Lalonde, a goal; Steven Arnold, a goal. Assists went to Michel Vanderploeg, Scott Richardson, and Neal Wilson. Billy MacArthur was in goal. Sponsor of the team is Quality Woodworking.

The same team was blanked 1-0 by Nibleton. Glen McKenzie was in goal for this one.

They also lost a narrow 2-1 game to Oro with Rheeder getting the only goal from Don Ferris. Peewees The Oak Ridges with two goals with Sean McKenna getting the other one unassisted. Assists went to Dino Delfabro, two, and Danny Alexander, two.

Rodney Gilchrist got the lone Oak Ridges goal from Randy Gilchrist.

The Oak Ridges

They didn't have much better luck against Sutton losing 7-4 with Narduzzi getting all four of their goals. Assists went to Kelly Rheeder and Robt. Munroe.

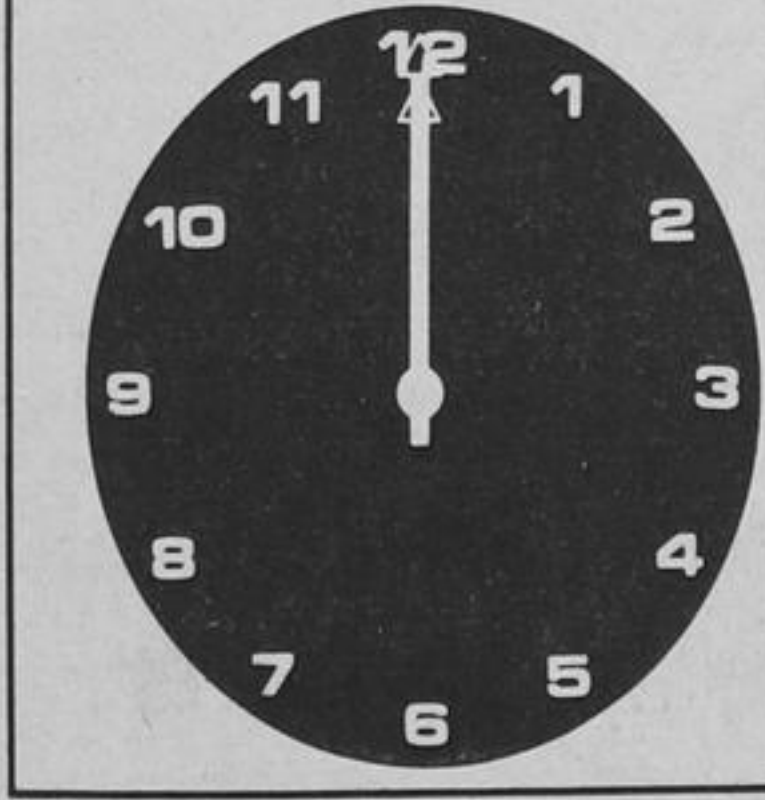

They also lost a narrow 2-1 game to Oro with Rheeder getting the only goal from Don Ferris.

Peewees The Oak Ridges

Peewee Kings decided Sutton 5-1 with goals going to: Craig Bumstead, a goal and an assist; Frank Rossi, a goal; Robert Sanders, one goal; John Lalonde, a goal; Steven Arnold, a goal. Assists went to Michel Vanderploeg, Scott Richardson, and Neal Wilson. Billy MacArthur was in goal. Sponsor of the team is Quality Woodworking.

The same team was blanked 1-0 by Nibleton. Glen McKenzie was in goal for this one.
