Will the real Richvale Majorettes please stand up? Last week in The Liberal, we identified a group of Richmond Hill majorettes as the Richvale contingent in the Santa Claus parade. It didn't take long for us to hear about it. That's why we've gathered as many of the Richvale girls as we could, to show you at least some of the award-winning majorette team. With their mascot, Ritchie Richvale, the Twirling Tomcat, the girls are, front to back, Jennifer Gentley, 9; Jodi Gohn, 6; Cindy Nyman, 5; Shawna Rideout, 5; Marianne Wandersleben, 5; Mary Lou DiTaccchio, 6; Tara Thompson, 6; and Tara Glover, 7.

Bayview

Seniors win tournament

By DARRELL GLEASON and TOM CUBITT
Bayview's Senior Boys' basketball team put forth a brilliant team effort as they won the King City Tip Off Tournament played recently at the King City Secondary School.

To capture the title, the Bayview squad defeated Huron Heights 63-49; Woodbridge 55-42; and, in the championship game, Dr. G. W. Williams Secondary of Aurora, 48-36.

Honorable mention goes to Glen Belcher and Aidan Killean who were selected for the tournament's all-star team.

DOUBLEHEADER
At their own school recently, the Bayview boys' junior basketball team whipped A. Y. Jackson of Toronto 47-32, and the midjets demolished Langstaff 61-8.

In the junior game, the Bayview team gave a strong two-way effort as Kevin Service led the Bengals with 14 points and Graham Giffin chipped in with 12.

Due to lack of experience on the Langstaff side, the midjets dominated the entire game.

Top scorers for Bayview were Jim

Hutchinson with 22 points and John Bruillard with 16.

The girls' senior basketball season came to an end recently as they played the staff in an exhibition tilt.

The staff actually won the game 30-24, however the scoreboard read 99-27 in the girls' favor.

LIVERPOOL
The rock group 'Liverpool' will be at Bayview Saturday, December 3.

This group is famous for its impersonations of the Beatles. Tickets will be $4.50 at the door.
