Tournaments sharp as beat Thornhill 5-3

The Richmond Hill Minor Bantam Tournaments Inc. team came up with a fine effort to decision Thornhill 5-3 as they played their best hockey of the season. Richmond Hill started the scoring as Carl Boyle set up Mark Stevens. Thornhill came back and tied it but then it was Duane Aubie scoring from Boyle; and Ken Jensen from Stevens and Al Evelyn to put Richmond Hill in front by two goals. The Thornhillers bounced back again to tie it only to have Richmond Hill take the lead at 7:34 of the third period when Gary Sutherland slid one in from Barry Munro and Jim Flett. Then at 8:43 it was Stevens being set up beautifully by Joslin and Jensen to give Richmond Hill a 5-3 lead. Richmond Hill kept the puck out of its own end for the remainder of the game. The whole team performed well but especially goalie Ron Laird who made some big saves on Thornhill in the final period. Other games saw Tournaments taking on Royal York Rangers of the Metro Toronto Hockey League in an exhibition and winning 4-1. Gary Sutherland led the scoring for Richmond Hill with two goals while singles came from Mike Briggs and Dave Leuchener. Aubie played a good game coming up with three assists while singles went to Jensen, Leuchener, Flett, two, Brian Dunnett and Munro, one apiece. On November 23 the Tournaments team took on another MTHL team beating Don Mills Flyers 4-0 in a game which saw Mark Joslin scoring two goals, one on a penalty shot. Both Richmond Hill goalies — Don Fawcett and reliever Ron Laird — came up with good saves. Also coming up with two goals was Sutherland while Munro had two assists and Carl Boyle, one assist. Jensen had an assist. Next Sunday pits Richmond Hill against Malton Jets; on Monday they go against North York.

Epic boys win by 4-3

The Richmond Hill Epic Real Estate Juveniles kept right on rolling Sunday as they came from behind to edge Thornhill 4-3. Handling the scoring were Randy Martin, Ed Gundert, Steve Bowers with Steve Bishop getting the winners. Assists to Greg Walton, two, Steve Madden, two, Mark Gossman, and Randy Martin, two. Other results: Richmond Hill 3, Aurora 0. Goal scorers were Tom Paden, Steve Madden, Dale Strang. Assists to Strang, Steve Bowers, and Dave Foster. Richmond Hill 4, Oak Ridges 2 (exhibition). Dale Strang scored two goals for Richmond Hill with singles to Gossman, Gundert, and Doug Lewis. Assists to Doug Lewis, two, Ron Abernathy, two, Steve Bowers and Dale Strang.

winning with Dale Strang getting three goals, Tom Teden two, Doug Lewis, Gundert and Steve Madden. Assists to Steve Bowers, four, Roy Russell, three, Doug Lewis and Reiner Pleschberger, two, Steve Madden and Dale Strang, one apiece. Once again remember the Richmond Hill Juveniles' New Year's dance being held at Wrixon Hall on the corner of Yonge and Major Mackenzie Drive. Tickets are available from team members or 884-3672 and 884-3926.

Bayview Secondary wrestling champs

The Bayview Secondary School wrestling team under Larry Johnson has come up with a personal first. They've won their first big invitational match. It happened Saturday against 20 other top-rated schools as Johnson's competitors compiled a total of 36 points to best Georgetown with 26 and Guelph Centennial High School with 24.

Both were previous winners. Coming up with firsts for Bayview were: Brad McKenzie in the 84 pounds class; Steve Penyige, 156 pounds; David Kinzett, 149 pounds. "This bodes well for us in the Ontario championships this year," said Johnson. "We should do all right."

Minor midgets super as beat Orillia 7-3

The Richmond Hill Minor Midget A's put on a superb show as they handily defeated Orillia 7-3 Saturday night. Richmond Hill went into a quick lead on a goal by Doug Eldridge with assists to Jeff Briggs and Randy DiPiero. Glen Dunford got the second from Danny Henderson and Gary Boyle.

from Ross Cramer unassisted; and Dunford from Jeff Briggs. Richmond Hill shut out the opposition in the third period and added two more to their own total. Scoring was Gord Fournier on a breakaway; and Danny Henderson from Dunford.

The third home team goal came from Jeff Briggs from DiPiero.

Second period action saw Orillia score two goals but Richmond Hill replied with two more

Stephenson gals win over York
