Library movies move to next Wednesday

By MILLIE STEWART
773-4424

Best wishes to all of you for a Joyous Christmas season. Thanks also to everyone who works so hard to get the news to me on time.

Without your hard work, there would be no Oak Ridges column.

LIBRARY

The movies for all ages will be changed to Wednesday, December

28, instead of Saturday. The movies to be shown will be: 'Love Business' and 'Pack Up Your Troubles'.

As usual admission is free, but due to the holidays, please reserve your tickets in advance at the library or by calling 773-5533.

The library will close all day December 24, 25, 26, and 27. It will reopen December 28.

For New Year's, it will close at 5 p.m. December 31 and reopen at 9 a.m. January 3, 1978.

ST. PAUL'S

A candlelight church service is always impressive, and especially so at Christmas time.

St. Paul's United Church, with Rev. Keith Knill as minister, will celebrate Christmas Eve with a candlelight service at 7:30 p.m.

Simcoe to see the Panorama of Lights.

Last year, this display was seriously damaged by vandals, but to look at it now, one would never know it.

ST. JOHN'S

The church has been decorated for the Christmas season by the members of the congregation.

shiny from 1 to 3 at a cost of 60 cents.

Wednesday from 1 to 3 will still be adults' pleasure skating for free.

Thursday morning, the tiny tots skating at 25 cents, will still be held, and in the afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m., there will be pleasure skating for 60 cents per person.

Shiny will still be on Friday from 4 to 5:45 and the admission will be 25 cents.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS-TIDE SERVICES

SATURDAY, DEC. 24
7 p.m. - Family Service and Holy Communion
11:30 p.m. - Midnight Choral Eucharist

SUNDAY, DEC. 25 - CHRISTMAS DAY
8 a.m. - Holy Communion
10 a.m. - Choral Eucharist of Christmas

Everyone is welcome to attend, even if they don't belong to the church.

On December 25 and again on January 1 there will be a combined worship service at 10 a.m. This will be a combination of the contemporary family service usually held at 9:30 and the regular service normally held at 10:30.

The club Christmas dinner and party held last week was a special evening and a great party due to several people.

Jean Rennick and her daughters created a gourmet's delight in the dinner they catered for the seniors.

Eric Findeison entertained the members with accordion music.

Everyone waltzed and danced polkas to their delight and much merriment.

The real hero of the evening was Santa Claus who was invited to distribute gifts.

He managed the time to stay and sing carols with the members.

Wheelhouse members joined some members of the Maple and Richmond Hill clubs on a bus tour to Christmas Eve, at St. John's, is a special night where the candlelight Holy Communion at 11 p.m. is a highlight of the church year.

There will be a family service at 10:30 a.m. Christmas Day.

There will be a Watch Night service on New Year's Eve at 11:30 p.m. Preceding that, there will be an open house for all who care to attend, at the home of Gray and Betty Carson, 11611 Leslie St. just north of the 19th line. Festivities will start at 8 p.m.

January 1 the members of St. John's will gather for a family service at 10:30 a.m.

BOND LAKE ARENA

There will be no public skating Christmas Eve, December 24 or New Year's Eve, December 31.

Public skating will be as usual on Monday, December 26 from 4 to 5:45 and the admission will still be 25 cents.

Tuesday afternoon of the 27th there will be

GYMNASTICS

The After Four gymnastics program sponsored by the Family 'Y' has become a popular pastime.

The following youngsters attended the recent program held at Oak Ridges Public School: Teresa Hill, Danielle Burzillo, Christine Farrell, Glen Farrell, Rosanna Farrell, Maureen Stewart, Debbie Neil, Kevin Neil, Margaret Ziffo and Debbie-Lynn Ward. They entertained their parents and guests last week with a display of gymnastic skills.

At the close of the evening, badges were presented to the entire class for their improvement during the ten week course.
