This unidentified Roselawn Public School player looks like he might be saying a silent prayer. He isn't. It's a volleyball match at Maple which saw the

The 'Grand Old Bull' is mighty fine horse

"Grand Old Bull" is one registered quarter horse who doesn't round up cattle like in the old days of the west.

But he does round up something else.

Ribbons and prizes. "Grand Old Bull" is a two-year-old gelding who is owned by David and Linda Tomlinson.

To the uninitiated (the writer) a quarter horse is "an alert stocky muscular horse capable of high speed for short distances and of great endurance under the saddle." The dictionary knows the way.

"Bull," as he's affectionately known to his owners, garnered a total of 114 show-points in 1977 on his round of provincial fair competitions.

Good enough to finish second in the province among geldings the same age and fourth over-all among geldings of any age.

Tomlinson runs a boarding ranch for horses called "Twin Pine Farms" located at 10922 Yonge Street (north of Elgin Mills) and "Bull" is his pride and joy.

COST $600 "We bought him for just $600 when he was about eight months old," he said. "A friend of ours sold him to us. We were offered $3,500 for him last October."

It was a "no" answer from Tomlinson.

"We're not necessarily interested in selling him at the moment," continued Tomlinson. "Our enjoyment is in showing people just what you can do with a horse if you feed him properly and blacksmith him regularly. He really looks sleek."

Tomlinson has been "showing" a lot of people during the year displaying "Bull" at numerous fairs throughout the province. These outings are essentially "beauty" contests, if you will, states Tomlinson. "People get to observe just what can be done with a horse with the proper care."

Tomlinson maintains that "any horse can become a showcase if it gets the proper maintenance which is our reason for being in this business."

"We've started boarding out horses and we're interested in proving to people who own horses just what can be accomplished."

Tomlinson and wife Brenda are willing to show their end-results-Bull to anyone interested. Just call him at 883-4723 or drop around with your horse.

As for Bull?

ROBBED

He was temporarily robbed of receiving his "big prize" ribbon for his accomplishments in 1977. Temporarily, anyway. "We were supposed to be presented with the ribbon at the Ontario Quarter Horse Banquet December 10," said Tomlinson.

The only problem was that the banquet was in London which was hit by a major snowstorm.

The banquet will be held January 27. Hang in there, Bull.

History repeats self as Trinity ties Hill

History repeated itself last Wednesday when Trinity wrestled a deserved point from the Richmond Hill Badminton Club in an exciting 8-8 tie at Trinity.

Trinity was the only club last season to take a point from the Hill in a repeat 8-8 draw.

This game, as last year, went to the last match of the evening when the Trinity team first mixed doubles took two straight to pull off the tie from the Richmond Hill's pair of Jill Dalton and Jim Ho 18-17 in a real cliff-hanger.

Individual results: Ladies Doubles-Donnie Westcott and Joan Freeman splitting 11-15 and 15-11; Jill Dalton and Tanya Savoye winning 18-15 and 15-10.

Men's Doubles, Fred Fletcher and Jim Ho splitting 15-7 and 7-15; Derek Smith and Jim Dilworth losing 11-15 and 6-15.

Mixed Doubles — Jill Dalton and Jim Ho losing 12-15 and 18-17; Donnie Westcott and Fred Fletcher winning 18-15 and 15-12; Joan Freeman and Jim Dilworth splitting 15-11 and 14-18; Tanya Savoye and Derek Smith splitting 18-17 and 7-15.

Hill Atom A's lose 5-1 to Aurora boys

The Richmond Hill Major Atom A's were defeated 5-1 by Aurora Saturday avenging an earlier defeat the previous week-end.

Aurora was fully deserving of its win putting in three goals before Richmond Hill managed to score its first. Richmond Hill's goal was scored by Tod Dungey from David McKee.

The Richmond Hill defense was reduced to only three bodies through illness. On defense it was L. Lazer playing another strong game.

Sunday's game against Barrie was cancelled because of the inclement weather conditions and it will be rescheduled at a future date.

Bowlers ready for '78

By MIKE KYTE

Around this time of year with Christmas approaching most of the leagues are planning their turkey roll and have very little on the go. While everyone is out getting their Christmas shopping done, the Ontario Bowlers Congress is getting ready for the busy start to the New Year.

To go over a few things, we have the average date for the Thomas Adams President Secretary and Treasurers set for December 31.

The house rounds for the Carling O'Keefe Classic ends on January 8, so if you haven't had your house round, check with your proprietor. The league play for the Sunbeam Shoes High Low Doubles ends on January 21.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

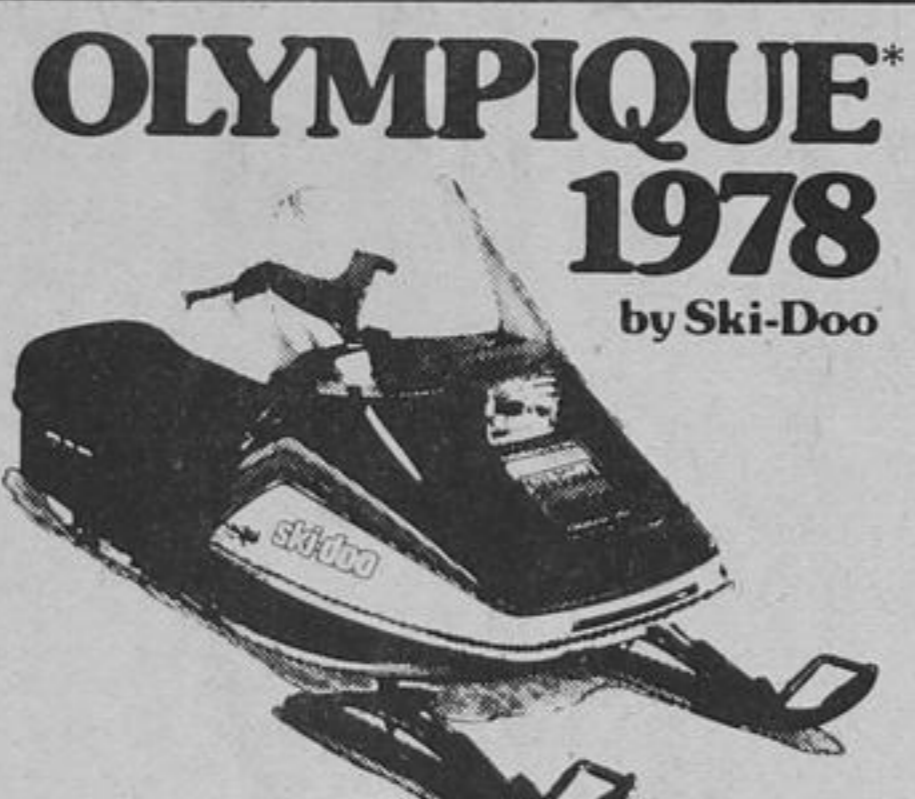

On behalf of the York Simcoe Bowlers Association we wish you a very Merry Christmas and a joyous New Year.

The Wednesday Nite Mixed league will have their turkey roll tonight. As the second series comes to a close we have the Jokers on top with 196 points, followed by the Pussy Cats with 186 and the Bad News Bears with 184.

High average hasn't seen any change with Dave Alexander still leading with 250 then Craig Rayson 236 and Ed Weber 233. For the ladies it is Betty Wolfreys 222 followed by Rose Antl with 219 and Karen Kirby and Gloria Byer with 203.

Another 400 was rolled last week as Craig Rayson rolled 401 with a 801 triple Ed Weber had 782 (307), Vic Reid 779 (286), Dave Weagle 770 (280), Dave Alexander 749 (287), Ernie Wolfreys 727 (268), Don Tyndall 703 (270), Gary Byer 698 (251) and Ken Somerville 692. For the ladies we have Karen Kirby with a 660 (252), Betty Wolfreys 632, Allison Weagle 609 (258), and Lynda Curry 604.
