And still the Ontario biologists seem to be painting a rosy picture. The biologists, we suspect, are allowing themselves to be used by the Ontario politicians.

That's why Lee Wulff, a great sportsman-conservationist, is laying the blame for deteriorating sport fishing squarely on the biologists: "They just don't have the guts to speak out. They are afraid of losing their jobs. Our only hope lies with some of the younger biologists." All great successful movements start from the bottom, not from the POP (Preserve Ontario's Pickerel) is a movement from the bottom and it will be successful, God willing.

POP is hereby making an impassioned appeal to all the sportsmen, concerned citizens and especially the retired men and women who refused to be put on the shelf, to get behind this movement.

It was the retired men and women of Oregon who in 1974 put over the top a similar petition and Parties, New Years Eve, had the public rather than the legislature cast the final vote on fish laws in that state.

660 Cards of Thanks

The family of the late Harry S. Burt would like to thank friends and neighbors for flowers and sympathy cards, also special thanks to Dr. Granton and Third Floor Nurses. Laura Burt and Family,

IT is not nice to be sick and have to be hospitalized for so long but the kindness and thoughtfulness shown by my family and friends, by my doctors and nurses, makes it nice to know others care and let you know about it. My sincere appreciation to all visitors; for flowers and cards. Thank you all. - (Mrs. Archie) M Lillian Cameron
