

Bayview Glen grade 7 and 8 to be discussed

Bayview Glen Parent Liaison Group is having its next general meeting Wednesday, January 4, at 8 p.m. in the gym at Bayview Glen. Speaker for the evening is Ken McDonald, area four supervisor who will discuss the feasibility of expanding Bayview Glen School to include Grades 7 and 8. Everyone concerned is invited to attend. The Parent Liaison Group has a new executive. Margaret McDonald is Chairman. Janice Levine is responsible for the newsletter. Laura Brown is in charge of publicity. Gord Van Toon is head of fund raising. Paula Silver organizes the class mothers and volunteer parents at the school. Sherry Shaw is chairman of a group organizing a parent effectiveness training program. Barb French is chairman of adult French classes and principal of Bayview Glen. Jerry Fisher is also on the executive. Another member of the executive Sue Cotton is a parent volunteer in the school and is very active in craft work. She has been assigned by the Junior League to Bayview Glen Public School and presently teaches crafts to Grades 5 and 6. She is also organizing a green thumb committee integrating with the science classes at the school and hopes to head up a craft program for adults. The Grade 6 class at Bayview Glen raised over $104 for United Way by putting on a Gong Show for the students in which all the grades participated. The school also raised $194 through UNICEF boxes. MASS The Good Shepherd Parish is having a Christmas Mass at Holy Redeemer Church on Aspenwood in Willowdale. There will be a children's mass at 8 p.m. and masses at 10 p.m. and midnight at which the choir will be singing and there will be a soloist. On Christmas day there will be masses at 9 a.m., 10:30 a.m. and 12 noon. Saturday and Sunday Masses will be held at St. Michael's Separate School on Simonston beginning on Saturday, January 7.

Saturday masses will take place at 4:30 and 7 p.m. and Sunday masses at 9 a.m., 10:30 a.m. and 12 noon. CALENDARS Scout calendars for 1978 are now being sold by the Fifth Thornhill Boy Scouts. They sell for $1 each and are available from the scouts and cubs or by calling Roz Chappnick at 889-2004. Several members recounted stories of memorable Christmases of the past, both amusing and heart-warming.

Quilt winner selected

Emily Bunker, Mill Street, Richmond Hill, was the winner of the Dresden Plate quilt in the Richmond Hill Historical Society's annual Christmas draw. The lucky ticket was drawn by Robert Carter of Parkston Court at the society's Christmas party which had been postponed from December 5 to December 12 because of inclement weather. The weather also caused a change in place for the party — from the
