An alleged armed robbery and an attempted armed robbery were carried out by a total of five men wearing masks at a Maple residence and a Thornhill store last week.

In the first incident, police said that three such men broke into the home of Hazel Muirhead, R.R. 2, Maple, and forced her to sit down at gun point, while they ransacked the premises.

Nothing was taken, but the men cut the phone line before leaving.

The victim, who was alone in the house and ill at the time, was unable to contact police until several days later.

At the Village Shop 'N' Milk, Yonge Street, Thornhill, police said that two masked men made off with $750 cash and a quantity of lottery tickets.

The men were believed to have been armed, although no weapon was seen, police said.

EXPENSIVE MEAL
Dinner proved to be costly for Gary S. McIntyre, Bayview Avenue, Oak Ridges, last week.

McIntyre told police that after he left Little Village Dining Lounge, Aurora, about 11 p.m., December 20, he found that his car had been broken into.

Taken from the vehicle were a CB radio and antenna, 30 eight-track tapes and a leather coat, for a total loss of $565.

HUMBUG!
The spirit of Christmas was sadly lacking at the offices of Temco Construction, Doughton Road, Concord, where the company reported the theft of $448 worth of Christmas gifts from the premises.

COME ON IN
In Markham, thieves

made off with a deposit bag containing $1,000 cash, plus $1,000 in money orders and cheques, after entering the building through an unlocked door the afternoon of December 22.

Police said the office was empty at the time.

In Thornhill, thieves took $5,400 in games, linen and clothing from two trucks parked at the rear of Bi-Way Department Stores, 90 Doncaster Road.

PANEL DISCUSSION
A Woodbridge man was arrested after someone kicked out a panel in the front door of the Woodbridge Hotel, when he was unable to get an answer to his early-morning knock.

Charged in the incident was Paul Adam Weaver, 21, of Wigwoss Drive.

& enjoy your holiday feast.

FATALITY
Rebecca Prole, 3, of Fernhill Boulevard, Oshawa, was killed when a car driven by her father, was in collision with another vehicle at Bloomington Sideroad and Concession 6 in Whitchurch-Stouffville, Christmas Day. Police said that six other people were injured in the accident.

CHILD HURT
Mark Ludbrook, 10, of Concession 9, Whitchurch-Stouffville, suffered serious injuries when he was drawn into a snowblower, which was being operated in his yard by a neighbor.

The youth, who was taken to the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto, was in "fair condition" Monday.

OFF TRACK
A possible train derailment was avoided in Aurora last week when two conductors noticed that two switches had been half opened at the Aurora station.

Police said that the padlocks holding the switches, had been pried off.

Blaze causes extensive house damage

Extensive damage was done to the home of Michael Jordanious, Sunset Beach Road, Oak Ridges, as a result of a fire there, December 20, about 4 p.m.

Cause of the blaze, which was extinguished by Richmond Hill Fire Department, was unknown.
