

Hill Magnas tie, lose

The Richmond Hill Magna Midlets outplayed league-leading Newmarket last week in two games but they had trouble making it count on the scoreboard.

Magna could only manage one point out of the two encounters.

They lost 4-2 Sunday and tied 6-6 the previous Friday.

The Sunday game in Newmarket saw Magna holding a bid edge in the early play as they led 2-0 and maintained it until the final two minutes of the second period.

They then ran into a rash of penalties during the remaining portion of the game and ended up losing 4-2.

Newmarket's last goal was scored on an open net.

Marksman for Magna were Shawn McKenzie from Rod Graham and Tom Stubbs; and Marty Green from Gary Bubeloff.

Friday saw Newmarket visiting Richmond Hill and the two teams battled to a 6-6 tie in a fine game.

Neither team had more than a one goal lead at any time.

Newmarket scored the tying goal with 14 seconds remaining.

Leading Magna offensively were Paul Mills with three goals and Tom Stubbs with two.

The team's leading scorer Jeff Brookes picked up three assists.

Magna's other goal was scored by Mike Smith and other assists went to Mike Smith, Gerry Lawlor and Rod Graham.

It appears like the Magna team is now starting to jell and will come on strong for the last half of the schedule.

Tailorform Peewees tie 4-4

A depleted Thornhill Tailorform Peewee I team, minus three regulars, moved into Aurora Saturday night and had to settle for a 4-4 tie.

Darren Burford opened the scoring from Paul Rame only to see Aurora pump in three unanswered goals. Burford got one back before the first period ended after taking passes from Rob Young and Brian McKnight.

The second period was all Tailorform as David James knotted the count with assists to Brian McKnight and Burford.

Rob Young shot Tailorform into a 4-3 lead converting a pass from Jimmy Oliver.

The third period saw Tailorform with only five forwards as Rob Young had to leave the game and the leg-weary crew couldn't hold Aurora off as they cashed in a power play marker.

Switching to something milder is a resolution you can keep.

Players experience in a milder cigarette.

Memo to Helen: Starting Jan 1, whenever you're buying me cigarettes please make it Player's Light. J.B.

Dear Dad, The family are sending you copies of their New Year's resolutions. So here's mine. As of Jan 1 I switch to a milder cigarette. Happy New Year! Graham.

Be it resolved that by (almost) unanimous decision, our club adopts Matinée Special Filter as its official mild cigarette for 1978. (George, we'll be checking up on you.)

An even milder Matinée.

Something milder from du Maurier.

In 1978, I will go on a diet. I will learn to say "I love you Bill" out loud. I will smoke a milder cigarette.

The traditionally mild cigarette.

There's absolutely nothing milder.
