

Big winners

Hill Minor Atoms ousted from York

Barrie downed the Richmond Hill Minor Atom A's 7-2 and eliminated them from further York-Simcoe playoff action winning the best-of-three series in two straight games.

The final game saw the Hill Bond Steel team refusing to give up despite playing two men short as they rallied from a 3-0 deficit on a goal by captain Todd Savoye from Mike Leonard and Paul Ruytenbeek.

They later scored their second goal to trail 5-2 with Dino Buffon scoring unassisted.

They later scored their second goal to trail 5-2 with Dino Buffon scoring unassisted.

David Repath and Ruytenbeek played hard-hitting games for Richmond Hill and Derek Di Battista was at his usual best. Dave Nicol took a stint on defence and made some Salming-like saves.

STREETSVILLE TOURNAMENT

Bond Steel Minor Atom A's continued their winning ways at the Streetsville tournament winning game number three against Cooksville by a 4-1 score.

The Steelers were missing two players from their roster.

Di Battista opened the scoring assisted by Buffon. Cooksville tied it in the second but then it was Savoye scoring unassisted to put Richmond Hill ahead once again.

Then it was Danny Jensen getting his seventh of the tournament on a pass from Pat Dickenson.

Newmarket 6, Richmond Hill 1. Newmarket proved to be just too much for Richmond Hill in the next game as they knocked the Steelers out of the tournament in game four.

Richmond Hill's Pat Dickenson opened the scoring in the first period for Bond Steel assisted by Ruytenbeek only to have Newmarket tie it and then go on to dominate the remainder of the game.

Brian McKenna, Ruytenbeek and Savoye played well for Bond Steel.

With their elimination from the Streetsville tournament and the cancellation of the Clancy tournament, the Bond Steelers' season closes.

Though at times stormy, the season was a great success and the team thanks the sponsor, Bond Steel, coaches Savoye and Floyd and their competent assistants, manager Rod Leonard, the players and their most ardent fans, the parents, for the hard work, support and dedication throughout the season.

Thornhill Bantam I's win 3, tie 4 and lose 1

The Thornhill Bantam I's played eight games over the holiday period winning three, tying four and losing one.

In the North York tournament it was Thornhill eliminating a weak Richmond Yeomen team 5-0 in the first round.

The second round was a two-game affair against Downsview.

The early 7 a.m. start saw Downsview catching Thornhill still in bed as four of the first five shots bulged the nets while Thornhill stood around trying to grasp the situation.

However, Thornhill managed to pull themselves together and finally come out of the game with a 4-4 tie.

The return contest saw Thornhill never getting untracked as poor defensive hockey cost them four goals and an ultimate 5-3 loss which eliminated them from further competition.

3-3 TIE

In between these games they had met Aurora in the York-Simcoe playoffs coming out with a 3-3 tie in overtime to advance to the finals.

As a last-minute substitute they took part in the Georgetown Bantam Tournament and came up big when they knocked out the Don Mills Flyers in the first round, two-game series.

The best of two games second round saw the birds surrender a 3-1 lead against Royal Oak to finish in a 3-3 tie.

Unfortunately Thornhill had to forfeit any further participation when a sudden York-Simcoe final game against Richmond Hill was organized.

Showing signs of tiredness they quickly fell behind 2-0 but fought back to eventually win the contest 6-5 in overtime.

The final game of the week was the above mentioned second game with Downsview.

GOLD

The North York tournament saw Steven Tschipper and Pat Murdoch winning gold medals as best players in a game. Tim Wilson and Bruce Birchard were recipients of silver while Tschipper also won a bronze.

Minor ball in Richvale

The Richvale Minor Ball Association has named its new executive for the 1978 season.

President is Fred Ivney; Vice-president, Rick Ellery; Secretary, Cathy Ivney; Treasurer, Gloria Ivney; Registrar, Carol Ellery; Publicity, Sophie Logush; Equipment manager, Karl Lashley; Conveners, diamonds and umpires, Bill Logush; Boys, Al Woolley; Girls, Sharon Brooks; Tykes, Norm Reeve; T-Ball, Gord Wienholdt.

These people are working to make softball a success for children this summer but they alone cannot make this season work without the help of the parents.

Help the association in every way you can. Registration dates will be announced soon.

Basketball at Bayview

Bayview Secondary School of Richmond Hill will be hosting the first York County North vs South All-Star basketball game this Saturday.

Each secondary school in York County will be represented by their best basketball talent in each of the three divisions.

The midget game goes at 6 p.m.; the junior at 7:30 p.m.; and the senior at 9 p.m.

All proceeds will go to the York County Athletic Association to further excellence in sports within York County.

Tournament Co-ordinator is Cliff Nuttall of Bayview Secondary School.
