'Puppet people' entertain children at libraries

By MILLIE STEWART
773-4424

The 'Puppet People' have become very much a part of the lives of the children in Richmond Hill and surrounding communities.

Last Wednesday, three members of the Richmond Hill library children's room staff, left the books behind to spend the day entertaining children with two performances of a puppet show.

Emily Ongai, Jackie Drury and Anna Marcione delighted 110 children in the morning at the Charles Connor Library and 111 in the afternoon at the main library with puppet performances of Snow White and a special Easter rabbit show.

Puppets are always a favorite with children, but by far the favorite, was Winnie The Pooh. The puppet shows, like all others at our libraries, were free. The library staffs believe that children learn from experiences they enjoy, and their theory is proving correct.

ELIMINATION DRAW
Oak Ridges and District Minor Hockey will be holding their annual elimination draw and dance in July.

It is a little early to make dance plans, but tickets are now on sale. The tickets go very quickly because the grand prizes are a car and a trip for two to the Bahamas. The tickets are $25 each and this entitles a couple admission to the dance and a chance in the draw.

SKATING CLUB
Tomorrow, March 30, is the last day of skating lessons for this season.

To give all skaters a chance to entertain their parents and friends, and to show what they have learned, the skating club will hold a fun night starting at 7 p.m.

All skaters are asked to be at the arena and into their skates no later than 6:30 p.m.

There will be performances by guest skaters, including Herb Deary and Carla Holdsworth. Club seniors will be performing solos, as well.

Admission to see the program is $1 per adult and 50 cents per child.

GREEN THUMBS WANTED
The Block Parents from Oak Ridges, Richvale and

Richmond Hill will be holding their annual meeting April 18 at 8 p.m. in the Blue Flame Room at 500 Elgin Mills Road East.

There are still some offices open for nomination. If you are interested in any position, please contact your area chairperson.

There will be a plant sale that evening after the meeting. This is a good time to start your cuttings so the plants will be ready for the sale.

Any member with a plant or plants to donate to the sale, is asked to bring them, along that evening.

CLEANING HOUSE?
Spring is just about here, and many people give their houses a good clean out. If you are one of these, and you have accumulated a lot of things that you just don't want to keep, don't throw them out.

Call the Block Parents. They are holding a garage sale in May and would appreciate all donations, except clothing.

To arrange for pick up, please call 884-7360 or 773-5754.

SWINGIN TIME
The three community United Churches, St. Paul's, Richmond Hill United and St. Matthew's will be sponsoring a square dance in the gym at Richmond Hill United, April 1 at 8 p.m.

Admission is $4 per couple, and bring your own boxed lunch.

BRETHREN IN CHRIST
There will be Evangelistic services at the church in Oak Ridges from April 2 to April 9.

The visiting Evangelist will be Rev. Avery Sollenberger from Hanover, Pennsylvania. Worship will be held each evening at 7:45.

Thornhill this week

Crawford guest speaker

By DOREEN LIVINGSTONE
889-9922

Police Chief Bruce Crawford will be guest speaker at the annual meeting of the German Mills Homeowners Association, next Wednesday, April 5, 8 p.m. at German Mills Public School.

At this meeting, members of the association are asked to elect a board of directors for 1978-79.

Up-to-date babysitters' lists will be available for all paid up members of the association.

Chief Bruce Crawford of the York Regional Police is guest speaker, following which there will be a question and answer period. Refreshments will be served.

SCIENCE FAIR
The York County Science Fair is being held at Bayview Secondary School in Richmond Hill on April 6, 7 and 8.

PORTABLE STAGE
A portable stage, built with funds raised by the Bayview Fairways Parent Liaison Group, has now been completed at Bayview Fairways Public School. The group has also raised money towards the landscaping of the school which should begin shortly.

CANCER CAMPAIGN
Canvassers are still needed in the German Mills area for the annual Cancer Society Campaign. You are asked to call area captains Morty or Judi Wagman, 889-9053, after six p.m. In this regard, a film is being shown this evening, March 29, 8 p.m. at German Mills Public School. The film is titled "How to Canvas for Cancer."

SENECA CONCERT
The Travellers, A Concert for Children, sponsored by "Council 64" of the National Council of Jewish Women, Toronto Section, is being held this Sunday, April 2 at Seneca College Minkler Auditorium, 1750 Finch Avenue East, Willowdale. There will be two performances, 1 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. Admission is $2. For tickets in the Thornhill area call 889-1732.

COMMITTEE MEETS
A meeting of the Education Committee of the German Mills Homeowners Association takes place tomorrow evening, March 30, 8 p.m. at German Mills Public School staff room. This will be the final meeting under the Chairmanship of Andrew Silbiger who has regrettably resigned from the Board of Directors of the German Mills Homeowners Association.

Fifties dance

The Markham and Unionville Hebrew Congregation is holding a fifties dance on Saturday, April 8, 8:30 p.m. at Crosby Memorial Arena in Unionville.

There will be a buffet and prizes. Admission is $10 per couple.
