600 attend international night

Performing for parents

Each class at Bayview Fairways Public School performed a song or dance from another country for about 600 parents and friends at International Night last Thursday. The grade one class above tried an African song. Linda Vetere (top left) was in class studying pioneers and demonstrated hooking rugs, while Jackie Dover, 6, (bottom left) in grade one, played the tambourine. (Liberal photos by Bruce Hogg)
