Jackie Treadwell wins gymnastics

Thirteen-year-old Jackie Treadwell of Richmond Hill was in fine form last week as she won the senior championship trophy as York Region held its first gymnastics meet at Richmond Hill Langstaff Secondary School.

A total of 51 gymnasts competed from Richmond Hill and Aurora "Y" programs.

They competed in four events: Vault, Beam, Uneven bars and floor exercises and displayed good form and enthusiasm for the events.

The competitors were divided into three divisions: Junior Novice, Intermediate Novice and Senior Novice.

Treadwell accumulated the most points in the senior novice, Lysie Carbonell in the junior, and Michelle Faudemer in the Intermediate Novice.

The results were as follows:

VAULT
Junior Novice (in order of finish): Susan White, Rosemary Perusko, Lisa Roman, Olwen Parmasohari.

Intermediate Novice: Michelle Faudemer, Lydia Byleveld, Tanya Kruger, Annette Bellavance.

Senior Novice: Krista Goodman, Lee Ann Falk, Debbie Cook, Jackie Treadwell.

FLOOR
