Hill tennis lessons

New Richmond Hill Tennis Club will launch a series of tennis lessons this Monday designed to improve the quality of play for junior competitors from junior right up to adult.

"The idea," he said, "is to make this the start of a 10-year program of trying to develop local juniors to the stage of top-flight tennis players as well as improve the abilities of adults simply playing for the fun of it."

The July and August session will involve the following:
Six one hour sessions on July 10 to 28 and the same from July 31 to August 18.

For further information call Hans Muench at 222-1644 or leave a message, or see him, at the courts.

Steel reinforced. One piece.

Thornhill girls lose as errors costly...

Errors cost the Thornhill Midget girls two games last week as they gave up five unearned runs in a 6-3 loss to second place Don Valley and three unearned runs in a 3-1 loss to first place Grand Ravine.

Against Donly Valley it was Laura Fairney giving up six runs on six hits. She walked four and struck out four. There were four errors behind her.

Thornhill scored its runs when Sue Mudie walked in the first inning and came home on a single by Sandra Trumbull.

They scored again in the sixth inning on a double by Trumbull and a single by Michelle Anderson. Lorraine Dysart singled in the seventh, stole second and scored on a single by Penny Antonnio.

Thornhill was stronger defensively in its game with first place Grand Ravine but its hitting failed them for the first time this year as only Mudie and Lorraine Dysart were able to get a hit.

Their only run was scored when Michaelle Anderson walked and came home when Ann Rozycki dropped a bunt and the Grand Ravine third baseman threw wild to first allowing Anderson to come all the way around to score.

They rallied again in the sixth inning when Michelle Fairney got on base via an error and Ann Rozycki again sacrificed and the third baseman couldn't find the handle on the ball.

Laura Fairney got on base on another error to load the bases with two out. The next batter popped out to end the threat.

Laura Fairney pitched another fine game allowing only one flyball to the outfield. That was caught by Sue Mudie in left centre field. She allowed three unearned runs on two hits. Her control was perfect. She didn't walk a batter.

Thornhill's record is now four wins and five losses. The team is playing competitive ball with any team in its league and will win its share of ball games this year.
