United Way

Thirty months later, huge convention is ready to go

Next weekend will culminate two and one-half years of work and planning for Flo Wark. Mrs. Wark, who is a Richmond Hill resident and owns and operates "Natural Foods" in the Richmond Heights Plaza, is Chairman for the 28th Annual International Convention of "The Carnegians Inc." The Carnegians, said Mrs. Wark, devote their time to leadership training public speaking and the improvement of human relations. The group is holding its convention at The Sheraton Centre, July 13 to 15. Saturday, July 15, "Whipper" Billy Watson will be the guest of honor at a banquet. "Whipper" will address the audience on his favourite subject — Assistance for the crippled children of Ontario — and following his talk he will be presented with an engraved plaque from The Carnegians Inc., expressing their appreciation for his work. Workshops, lectures and training sessions will be going on each day but are only open to graduates of the leadership training courses, but everyone is invited to attend the three evening entertainment sessions, Thursday, Friday or Saturday evenings.

Welcome Wagon hostess awaits

By MARY WATTS
889-5787

If you are a newcomer, or have moved from one part of town to another, a good idea is to call your Welcome Wagon hostess, who has that world famous basket full of civic information for you.

She will arrange to visit you at your convenience within three months of your change in address.

Local businesses wishing to be represented on these house calls will be given the greatest consideration and personal recommendation from the following hostesses: Faye Keates for Richmond Hill, 884-6361; Erna Neufeldt (889-0701) and Mary Watts (889-5787) for Thornhill.

TRANSFERRED
Rev. Stanley Snowdon, his wife Ann and children Carol and Peter have recently moved to the Oshawa area.

They are missed by parishioners in Maple and Richvale who Rev. Snowdon served during the last seven years in both Carrville and Maple United Churches.

Farewell suppers and presentations were given by each community.

MAJORETTES
To wind up a successful season, the Richvale Lions Majorettes took part in two parades Saturday.

After marching in the July 1 parade in Aurora in the morning, they joined the Scarborough Canada Day parade that evening. Registrations for the fall season will take place August 24, 25, and 26 at Hillcrest Mall.

ACTIVITIES
Those interested in the Y M C A summer programs, should call 884-4811 for further information.

CLEAN-UP
By the end of July, the town says all roads throughout Richvale will have been resurfaced and oiled.

Already the sewer contractors are attempting to landscape the ditches, so hopefully green grass will again appear in Richvale to replace the long dried up mud.

LIBRARY
New fiction at the Richvale Library this month includes: Blood Lines, by Sidney Sheldon; Pulling your Own Strings by Dr. Wayne Dyer; and Dreams Die First, by Mary Higgins Clark.

Consumer and Corporate Affairs Canada

Consommation et Corporations Canada

You can be sure of quality when you buy eggs because inspectors work behind the scenes to see that standards are maintained.

This is just one example of the many ways we help consumers and we'd like to tell you about some of the others...show you slides and give you pamphlets...at our information booth.

Visit the Consumer and Corporate Affairs information booth at

Hillcrest Mall

from July 4, 1978

until July 8, 1978

If you can't get to see us, fill out the coupon and check the pamphlets you'd like to have. We'll send them free of charge.
