PLAYGROUNDS
Lake Wilcox and Oak Ridges Schools have both managed to raise the $750 necessary to build the creative playgrounds under the Kinsmen program. Work is expected to start at both schools this summer.

The Kinsmen Club of Richmond Hill will match the money raised by the individual schools, bringing the total cost of each playground to $1,500.

PUPPET SHOW
All regular programs such as films are cancelled for the summer months at the Charles Connor Library. There will be several special presentations at the library, and the first program will be July 12.

Two puppet plays will be performed at the library starting at 10:30 a.m. The plays are called 'The King's Dinner' and 'The Egg'.

There is no admission to the program, but all tickets must be reserved in advance at the library or by calling 773-5533.

LIBRARY HOURS
The Charles Connor Library has new hours effective July 1.

They will be closed Monday, open Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 1 to 9 p.m., Fridays from 1 to 6 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

COACH A TEAM
The Oak Ridges and District Minor Hockey Association is still looking for some coaches and managers for the coming season. If you are interested, please apply in writing to P.O. Box 505, Oak Ridges.

WHEELHOUSE CLUB
The members of the club enjoyed their picnic in Kitchener-Waterloo. Winners of the evening euchre held last week were Bett Davison, Mary Brown, Doug Carter, Cheryl Carter and Robbie Cook won the door prize.

The Wheelhouse club will be open for a social afternoon each Thursday from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Bring a friend and enjoy a relaxing afternoon.
