

Alice Perkins, mom, daughter of Hill reeves

Alice Perkins has lived in Victoria Square for 78 years. On the occasion of her 90th birthday, Mrs. Perkins hopes to see as many of her friends and relatives as possible at an open house being held at the Victoria Square Community Hall, August 1.

Mrs. Perkins came to Victoria Square from Sandford, near Uxbridge, in 1900, and likes to reminisce that at that time there were two general stores, a blacksmith shop and a carriage shop in the village.

In the old school house on Don Mills Road, now an antique shop, Mrs. Perkins received her education and is proud to say her husband's father taught at the school and she and her husband, her four children, Floyd, Doris, Eloise and Coral and her grandchildren, all went to the same school.

Mrs. Perkins was daughter and mother of two former reeves of Richmond Hill.

Her father Jacob Lunau was reeve from 1926 to 1932 and her son Floyd followed his grandfather's footsteps and was reeve from 1959 to 1963.

Floyd Perkins went on to become deputy reeve from 1965 to 1969 and Warden of York County in 1967.

Mrs. Perkins says she is in "perfect health" and
