King City Jrs. blank Minesing 3-0

King City Juniors and pitcher Ken Griffith blanked Minesing 3-0 in the third and final game of their OASA playoff series and bounced them right out of the playoffs.

King City had won the previous game 4-2 in King City.

That final game saw Griffith spinning a one-hitter, walking none, and striking out five.

He is a member of Richmond Hill Aquatic Club and the club's head coach for the past three years.

Doug Clark was third boy home with Christine Bogie, also of the Hill Club, the second girl to finish the gruelling two-mile race.

Jaqueline Crockford was fifth in the ladies with Janet Davidson in sixth place.

John Ciniglio, Jr. last season reached the Ontario Age Group Championships in the breast stroke events and won many ribbons for various other events at different meets.
