Legion midgets off to flying beginning

The new look Richmond Hill Legion Midgets got their 1978-79 York Simcoe Hockey League season off on a scoring start blasting Aurora 7-2 and Newmarket 11-4.

"I just hope they maintain that pace," commented coach Rainer Weidenfelder who has moved up from the minor midgets of last year to coach the squad. He has most of the same minor midget players with him this season.

The Aurora game saw two-goal efforts by Randy Depiero, Danny Henderson, and Shawn McDowell with Paul Harrietha getting the other one. Depiero also picked up two assists with Harrietha also getting two along with Ken Main's three and a single one by Joey Thurston.

BIG GOALS

In Newmarket it was McDowell and Delfabro firing in three goals apiece with Harrietha chipping in with two and singles to Main, Ross

Cramer and Doug Eldridge. Assists to Henderson, three; Mark Austin; Jeff Briggs, two; Depiero, two; Gary Boyle, two; Doug Jones, Dave Allen, Jim Roberts, and Thurston; and Delfabro.

The Legion crew has now won eight games in a row including exhibition contests. Their record is six wins, three losses and two ties.

The team's lineup this season comprise Doug Macklin and Jim Roberts in goal; defence, Shawn

Coach is Weidenfelder; assistant, Tom Weidenfelder and Joan Eldridge. David Goodmaker is goalie instructor.

Fire Fighters win 2

The Richmond Hill hockey Fire Fighters found their scoring touch last week and scorched their counterparts from York, 8-2.

Rod Chapman opened the scoring for Richmond Hill from Dave Buckley and Jim Cartwright after 15 minutes of play. Dave Olson scored the second goal when he took a pass from goalie Blair Robson and skated the length of the ice to fire a perfect shot into the top of the net.

The second period belonged to Chapman as he scored two goals and set up another by Pat Goode. Dave Olson and Dennis Buck picked up the assists on Chapman's goals.

York got two fast goals at the beginning of the third period before Jim Lawson and Gerry Caume scored with assists to Dave Septon and Barry Pollard. Dave Olson got the final goal after taking a perfect pass from Gary Vass.

Richmond Hill's next home game is today (Wednesday) at 10:30 a.m. in the Richmond Hill Arena.

The Hill's second game last week saw the team come away with an 8-3 victory over Oakville.

Rod Chapman opened the scoring from Pat Goode after only 20 seconds of the game. Oakville tied it but Terry Legge got that one back from Gerry Caume and Jim Lawson.

Terry Haviland then notched his first of the season from Lawson. Lawson then scored from Dave Buckley and Pavo Septon before the period ended.

Oakville opened the third period in the second scoring but Pat Goode got that one back near the end of the period from Lawson and Haviland.

Legge scored early in the third period from Lawson and then Rod Chapman scored from Gary Vass. Jim Lawson got Richmond Hill's final goal on a solo effort.

Budokai Judoka win at Nfld.

Three members of the Thornhill Budokai Club came up with impressive showings for Ontario in the Women's Nationals Judo championships in Newfoundland on the weekend.

Kim Mayne successfully defended her championship of last year finishing first in the 66 kilos.

Another first went to Cathy Sheffield in the 52 kilos; and a third to Karen Sheffield in the 66 kilos.

'Ridges' hockey

The Oak Ridges Atoms were off to a fine start in York Simcoe hockey league play tying Newmarket 4-4 and defeating the same team 4-2 in the second game.

That first game saw Kelly Rheeder scoring unassisted; S. Mieske from Mark Shephard; G. Brown from R. Labelle; and Shephard unassisted. Michael Smith and Sean Patrick shared the twines.

Rheeder was a two-goal man in the second game, unassisted on the first one and helped by Paul Torlone on the second.

Shephard scored one goal from Rheeder; and Mark Mitchell got the other one from Shawn Mieske.

Instructor Chris Toule was "very pleased with the girls' performances. The competition is tops," he said.

Toule was an assistant coach on the winning Ontario team which compiled 158 points to Quebec's 134, and British Columbia's 43.

YMCA basketball

"The Misfits" downed RHMD 47-36 last week to take over first place in the York Region Family Y's Men's Basketball League.

Other action saw "The Hoopers" tying "Doug's Dunkers" 40-40.

Greg Gates led the Misfits with 18 points while Roger Dawson and Peter Friedman came up with fine offensive efforts as well.

The RHMD's were led by Bill Munroe with 14 points while Sante Mauri and Keith Brown played well offensively and defensively.

Dave Mercer led The Hoopers with 10 points and Gerry Bransfield and Mike Chaison were solid on defence.

Doug's Dunkers were led by Rob Reinders with 10 points while Dan Moss and Gino Fogliato also stood out.

Bantam A's down Bay Ridges by 7-3

The Richmond Hill Roman Corporation Bantam A's came out flying to down Bay Ridges 5-3 last week in an exhibition game at Bay Ridges.

Jim Flett opened the scoring for Richmond Hill with Jim "Bruno" Kennedy getting the assist.

A hustling display from Barry Munro enabled Brian Dunnet to score from close in after the home team had tied the game.

The second period saw Jim Flett finding the net again on a nice pass from Steve Rumble.

It was still anyone's game at this point as both goalies came up with great saves.

Donny Fawcett made one spectacular glove save but lost out after a goalmouth scramble. Before the period ended Richmond Hill's Barry Munro tallied an unassisted goal to restore Richmond Hill's lead.

The final period saw Roman's move ahead to stay with Kenny Jensen scoring from Steve Rumble and Mark Joslin.

Richmond Hill's hard-checking game against a bigger team pleased coaches Brendan Wood and Tommy Sanlon. *
