

School spirit isn't dead at Bayview, students say

By DAVID SLONOSKY and DAVID NICKLE
We refuse to say it. No, no, there's just no way. We refuse to say "Merry Christmas" in this column, as it is passe, hackneyed and everyone says it. We're sorry, however, we do wish you a "Festive Yuletide Season".
Bayview this week has been a beehive of activity.

School spirit is not extinct, the band is warming up its instruments, Bayview wrestlers visited Hamilton, and candles are running rampant. Looking at the candles, they're beautiful. For only $4 you can have a genuine, machine-crafted lump of wax, but a well-made lump of wax. They have beautiful designs on them.

Bayview's band is preparing for the "Sounds of Christmas", its annual concert. It will be held at St. Mary Immaculate Church, tonight (Wednesday) at 8 p.m. Finally, Bayview's wrestlers participated in a tournament at Bishop Ryan in Hamilton last Saturday.

Bayview placed fourth overall and many individual wrestlers did well. Steve Pengige was first in his weight class; Peterkin and Mehernosh classes, while David Dick Charge, Brad Pestonji all placed second in their respective weight classes, while David Peck, a Grade 9 student, was fifth.

Exams are over, RHHS is back to normal

By LAURIE POWELL and CATHY PAINTER Richmond Hill High School has resumed its regular pace after a long and tedious week of exams. CHUM deejay Bob McGee presented the "History of Rock" on film last week and all the students appeared to enjoy it. Richmond Hill High School's annual fund raising program has come and gone once again. This year, the students sold hand painted Christmas candles. This year, all the relatives of the students will get candles instead of the routine chocolate covered almonds. This week, the year-5 students will be working hard to finish preparations for their annual Christmas assembly, which is always a success. In sports, our midget girls basketball team once again won the York County championships. Congratulations to all. At this time, we would like to take the opportunity to wish everyone a safe holiday.
