After a brief reference to the social state

We hear much of the difficulty of procuring hands at out-door labor, and those whose of things in Ireland ten years ago will not sing of Fifty-seven? On the 1st of January, relief. On the same date of the present year Ireland's pauper population was only about 65.000 or say one pauper to every greater miracle in modern days, that Ireland is fast becoming one of the least pauperized countries in Europe. The vast influence turns of Irish banks in 1849 and 1857. We give the figures of note circulation at all the

The effect of these improvements can bardly be estimated at one half, but they made land so much more usually performed in a whole month.

While farming operations were thus ushed on, the process of vegetation seemed ie rise in proportion to the emergency, and period of last year and when the finish had been three weeks earlier. Oats never appeared better, and wheat lands exhibit omers in the bargain. The only plan to save | continued luxuriousness. Absence of those the young plants and if the present splenly forty-eight hours, during which about James, John, William and Walter, daughter men of such unsound judgme t have their did weather continues the early crop of pominds influenced by argument to take a pro- tatoes will be ready for market much earlier er view of the subject. During the four months ending the 30th of April there were im o ted into the United Kingdom 9.157 horned cattle, 4.368 calves 11,-798 sheep, and 287 hogs. This would tell of what the Duke of Richmond called "ruinous competition." At present, however, the "ruined" agriculturists, are obtaining for all descriptions of farm stock nearly 100 per cent, above the quotations of 1842. So much for the state of the country, free trade and foreign competition. Who would not sing of Fifty-seven?.

RESCUE OF MISS GARDNER.

The St. Paul Times of the 24th, has the following account of the rescue and return

The young girl, Miss Gardner who was three other women has been for three months subjected to all the outrages and cruelties of and brought to this city. Three peacefu Yanketon Indians, Ma-za-cu-a-na-ni, Unpata-to-che-ca and Casta-ma-za, brought her

The Indians brought the girl to the Govenor yesterday morning to whose room they James, and daughter Margaret, an another, in all spot, who soon arranged the Sons in marching convened at 10 o'clock, and formally de-John Herbert : John Hunter and Margaret his order, headed by the Buttonville Brass Band, livered Miss Gardner into his care, he receiving her in behalf of the whites. The joyful transfer was accompanied with appro-Gration, Janet his wife, daughter Agnes and the lively air of "The Teetotalers are com- priate speeches on either side-that of the nother, in all four; Wm.
