

A Marvellous Remedy FOR A MARVELLOUS AGE!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, THE GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY.

By the aid of a microscope, we see millions of little organisms on the surface of our bodies. Through these openings, when rubbed on the skin, is carried an oxygen or inward part of the blood of the kidneys, disorders of the liver, affections of the heart, inflammation of the lungs, asthma, coughs and colds, are by this means effectually cured.

ERYSIPELAS, SALT RHUM AND SCORBUTIC HUMORS.

No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of diseases of the skin, whatever form they may assume, as this Ointment. No case of Salt Rheum, Scanty Hair, Scalding of the Neck, or any other eruptions of the skin, will not be cured by its use.

SORE LEGS, SORE BREASTS, WOUNDS AND ULCERS.

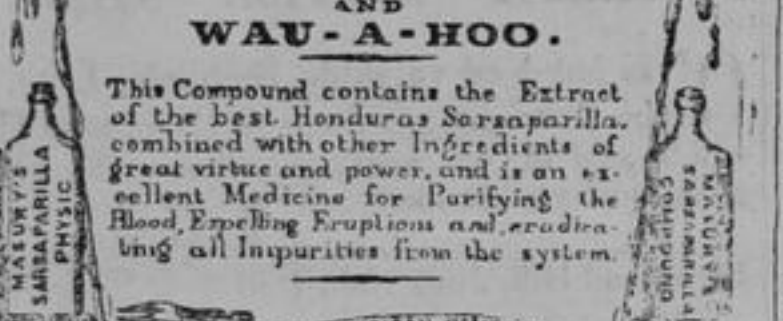

Some of the most scientific surgeons now rely solely on the use of this wonderful Ointment, when having to cope with the worst cases of sores, wounds, ulcers, glandular swellings and tumors.

THE Proprietors of this Establishment beg to inform the Public of Canada, that they have manufactured and are now printing a large quantity of Small Caps, Long Primer, Bourgeois and Brevier, of Scotch face, which will purchase cannot be surpassed by any Foundry upon this continent for durability and appearance. They have also on hand a choice assortment of various kinds of Ornamental Type.

THE VIRTUE OF A NOTE OF HAND.

A very important modification of the law respecting bills of exchange has taken place this session. The new law gives power to the holder of a note of hand or bill of exchange to go before a judge and obtain a summary judgment against the acceptor, unless it appears to the judge that the defence requires a more formal trial.

L. SCOTT & COMPANY'S REPRINT OF THE BRITISH PERIODICALS!! AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE! Great Reduction in the price of the Latter Publication.

L. SCOTT & Co., New York, continues to publish the following leading British Periodicals

- The London Quarterly (Conservative.) 2
- The Edinburgh Review (Whig.) 3
- The North British Review (Free Church.) 4
- The Westminster Review (Liberal.) 5
- Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.) 6

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical—but politics form only one feature of their character. As organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand unrivalled in the world of letters, being edited by an able and judicious man, while the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, than any other source.

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1857.

The Election is past, and its result proves that the work done by the Republican party is no yet complete. In all the East and Northern portions of the country—in New England, New York, Ohio, and the North-West—the Republican banner has been planted; while in Southern Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois—in short, wherever free newspapers are taken, and where common schools are too new and too feeble to have educated the present generation of voters—the black flag of slavery obstructs the sunshine.

the bodies and souls of men—to the shameful assumption that the bent, tired and feeble, whether in soul or body, are to be regarded or treated as the convenience or the prey of their wiser or stronger brethren—to the domination of despots or oligarchs, whether of empires or plutocrats—to the enslavement of cities and kingdoms in Europe, and of the free States of the North in America, and the cotton-field in Virginia or Alabama.

The doctrine that no human being was ever created for the benefit or advantage of another—that all are created free and equal in rights, and that all should be free and equal in duties—is a doctrine that the laborer should not toil and sweat to support another's idleness or minister to the luxury, but for the sustenance and comfort of those near and dear to him—is destined to certain triumph. It must prevail for God's sake, and Earth was not created to be a theatre of injustice, oppression, and misery, but a scene of glory and truth for all true, noble, and virtuous spirits.

It is not for the sake of the man of letters, but of the man of the plow and the hammer, that we are publishing this work. It is not for the sake of the man of letters, but of the man of the plow and the hammer, that we are publishing this work. It is not for the sake of the man of letters, but of the man of the plow and the hammer, that we are publishing this work.

But, even if we Republicans were disposed to fold our arms and slumber, the necessities would not permit it. They are busy to-day in lengthening their cords and strengthening their stakes with a vigilance and activity which reveals a consciousness on their part that their dominion must be maintained by force, or they will be forever departed. To-day, myriads of the Slave Power threaten and harass Northern Mexico, and encamped in the heart of Central America, and waging a war of extermination on the distracted millions of the free republics, which is turning millions and millions of slaves into the most ruthless hands are precipitated on devoted Kansas, under the protection and smiles of the Federal Administration. Even as we write the telegraph informs us that the Free State men, guilty of attempting to defend their rights, are being persecuted and violence of Burford's and Tins's blood-thirsty bands, have been convicted, by Lecomp's Court, of manslaughter! and sentenced to five years' imprisonment at hard labor, as felons.

The blood-guiltiness of that horrible spectacle for "justice" in Kansas—a justice which takes the criminal into pay and aids him in hunting down, plundering and "wiping out," the innocent whom it condemns to the State Prison if they are ever again caught in the snare of the Slave Power. Such crimes and wrongs as unhappy Kansas has for twelve months endured, even Hungary or Poland has never known, and the power at whose instigation these villainies were perpetrated is still entrenched at the White House and has just achieved another four years' ascendancy in the Federal Government. Who, in view of those facts, can say that Republicans may now pile their arms, even for an hour.

THE TRIBUNE will be, as it has been, a Political Tribune—avowedly, though not exclusively so. It recognizes the truth that Freedom of conscience and opinion is the right of all men, and that in the result of them must lose all control over the Federal Government. But while it gives prominence and emphasis to the discussion and elucidation of the great issues of the day, it sinks not its eye in the details of the Business and Family Newspaper. The proceedings of Congress, like those of Kansas, will be watched and reported by an able corps of Correspondents, while from London, Paris, Constantinople, Havana, San Francisco, Albany, and other centers of interest, our special advisers will be ready to keep us posted on every point.

It is our business to be fresh and reliable. A member of our editorial corps—Bayard Taylor—in now in Northern Europe, and will spend the winter in Sweden, Lapland, Russia, thence making his way to the Arctic regions, and finally to the North Pole, and thence homeward by the Pacific and California, unless some change of route shall promise greater interest and profit to our readers, for whom alone he will write regularly throughout his peregrinations, which is likely to require two years for its completion. Our reports of the most interesting Lectures, Public Meetings, &c., will be full and reliable; and our Foreign and Domestic News made up with a careful regard to the confessions into our ample columns of the greatest amount of intelligence that is consistent with the use of type of generous size. In short, if we fail to make THE TRIBUNE worth its cost, it shall not be for want of expenditure or effort.

If it be deemed desirable by Republicans that THE TRIBUNE should be circulated in their localities, we urge them to those that Clubs be made up and forwarded in due season. The Postmasters are semi-officially admonished not to urge circulation, but to urge instead that of Journals deemed "sound" and "national" by the common sense of the people. We therefore wish to ask live Republicans everywhere to take care that these efforts be not effectual to quench the light of Freedom in the murky mists of Slavery.
