EDINBURGH AS IT WAS AND IS.

on the recent attack on Modern Edinburgh, takes up the cudgles in defence of our city :-

"I quite grant [says the writer,] that it cannot now show such glori- named John Robins, a man who kept . Caution --- Andrew Clubine. ous names as it did in past years house of ill fame in the village, was taken, Buggies for Sale at Nicholl's Hotel. but is it solitary in this respect? tried and sentenced to a coat of tar and Might Edinburgh not retaliate and feathers, and to be ridden on a rail. The James Hall -- Boot and Shoe Maker. ask, where are the successors in Lon- sentence was executed by the women of Extensive Sale of Property --- J. Langstaff. don to Johnson and his fellows? But, the neighborhood, who had been long an permit me to say, Edinburgh has not noyed by the disgraceful nuisance. The fallen so low as you represent. When ladies had some time ago sent a committee to you say the only really flourishing Robins, with the request that he must leave institution in Edinburgh at present is the village, or discontinue keeping such a the Parliament House, you forget, to house. Their request not being complied mention one other, the Royal Acade- with, they proceeded to execute the sentence 3 my of Painting, which has come into they had adjudged in this case. Two of them existance since the beginning of the century.-And when you say that in the place of professors, it has a Univer- and then proceeded to strip him and cover sity Extension Association, you forget his body with tar and an outer coat of feaththat the number of students was never ers! greater, that the chairs are now filled by such men as Simpson, Syme, Gregory, Balfor. Blackie, and Aytoun-and a pamphlet entitled the "Eighth Annual that Hamilton, Wilson, Ballingall, and Announcement of the Female Medical Col-Forbes have only within a year or two lege of Pennsylvania," which is located in disappered from the scene. We are Philadelphia, From this we learn that the Messrs. Reesor, (Reeve) Button, Burr, also to remember that great Scotch- college is prosperous and thriving, and the Bowman and Pingle. men now in London and elsewhere number 'of students on the increase. Of would, fifty years ago, have been resident in Edinburgh, and, that instead duce, she would have boasted of such Hannah, and Mary, and so on; but we dare men as Murchison, Lyell, Carlyle and say they understand their business, and would others, who, owing to centralization make the scoffers laugh on the wrong side and other causes, have left her a wid- of their mouths if they had them in a dissecter field. One word more : I think an ing room. Among the faculty we notice an at once resolve itself into a Court of Revi-Institution like the Philosophical, with M. D., and a Professor of Physiology, whose courses of lectures by Ruskin, Moir, name is Ann: and a Professor of Anatomy Ballantyne, Kingsley and Thackeray, with the deliciously romantic name of Emcan scarcely be called a refuge for the meline -- Who wouldn't study physic to hear week and destitute, and that when lectures from a person with such a beautiful you the attempt to establish such ininstitutes would have failed in the days of Wilson and Lockhart, you may not be aware that Professor Wil-President of the Philosophical Institution from its establishment till his death, and that he inaugurated it with one of his finest orations.'

inch of the Tower wall is tied to a story-is an evidence in history. If during divine worship: It is a simple fact, its Roman connexion be fabulous, here, at all events, a Saxon stronghold, and here is a Norman castle. At sight of architecturally much-abused walls, what names and recolections nature of the subject, exceedingly offensive. This palace, prison, and for- At the opening of one of the anniversaries of tress, "the very germ of London. a religious association, in Boston, we happenas Charles Knight calls it, is, in truth, ed to enter the door during the first prayer. the early history of England, written | The aged minister standing upon the platform on stone, and interspersed, may we with his eyes closed, appeared to be absorbed say, with many " cuts on wood." in the occupation. But the others, both Gate-

When Sidney, Russell, Raliegh, Cranmer, Moore "the house; a few reverently bowed down; a Beauchamp Tower, with its singularly lowing, with the eye, the comers, who during interesting records of some who were prayer-time were pressing into vacant seats. left side of the open space beside the from a few occasional and accidental glimpkeep, or what used to be called " the ses, we know there are many congregations Green beside the Chapel within the in our country who thus betray generally. Tower," and is now the officers' mess- what in almost all other parts of the world To view this, permission must be obtained, but this will not be found difficult. Many of the incsrciptions are full of interest, none more so to us than the simple word " Jane " which ! if not written by the unfortunate Lade Jane Grev herself, probably was by her husband, Guilford. The present Rev. Mr. Younghusband, the vicar, has been White's assessment reduced, from £600 to mess-master is apt and obliging in des- discovered the skeleton of a powerfully made cribing the most important of these man, six feet high, laid only six inches be-"trivial foud records;" but he is in neath the surface. Upon an examination error in pointing out the date to t e of the remains by Mr. Ward, it appeared right to state, that it was shown that several inscription signed " William Tyrrell." that the man had been murdered, for there of the aggrieved parties had not apprised as "1241, the earlier inscription here." | was a hole in the right hand side of the skull, It is 1541.—Builder. of the size of hall-a-crown, one arm broken

ALIVE IN HIS COFFIN. - At intervals with one arm under the body and the other we learn from our exchanges that in- at the side; and it is supposed to have been decent, if not unfeeling, haste has laid there for 30 years or more. The vibeen manifested in the burial of the carage was formely a farmhouse, and was A remarkable case in point has converted into the parsonage-house about lately occured in Hamilton Co, Ohio, twenty years ago by its present prowhere one Wat Eckman, a wealthy prietor, who has been the occupier of it ever morning of the 15 ult., and died, an- who-lived with the Rev. gentlemen have parently, on the afternoon of the day, often told him that the house was haunted The very next morning the body was coffined and jolted in a market wagon remarks. About 30 years ago a man from to a church where a funeral sermon Egmanton was missed in a mysterious manaer but, no intelligence was gleaned on the was preached. The choir was about singing the last hymn, when they were subject, although three men were taken into custody on suspicion of having murdered interrupted by loud sounds and kicss going on inside the coffin. Great con- The missing man left home for Tuxford sternation prevailed among the con- and was never seen again, and the skeleton half of Lot No. 9, in the 6th Concession, after she left the port of Quebec, and then, gregation, and a stampede was made found appears to be that of a man of his for the door. The elergyman can elimensions, The bones were interred in the down from his pulpit ordered the coffin | churchvard at Egmanton .- Manchester to be opened which was speedly done. Examiner. when it was found that the supposed deceased was not only alive and kick- THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT. ing, but was struggling manfully to free himself from his-to him-mysterious confinement. The blood was town vesterday, that the seat of Govbut in a very few minutes he was able other parties would have it, that Que- tion. to speak .- Pilot. bec was the fortunate place. We have

This should never be done, as cannot, in the very nature of things, the skin contains the aroma of the be decided for many months to come. plant, and is not at all fibrous, but cooks Mr. Labouchere has just now his as readily, and becomes pulpy. We hands full in Parliament, and with the French cook of note, experience and but if he even had ample time to in- to assist him. skill. The same cook tells us that as- vestigate the pretensions of all the paragus should be cut into pieces about rival cities, it would take him several three quarters of an inch long before months before he could wade through in the same manner as peas.

TARRED AND FEATHERED. That "some the decision of the Government, might things can be done as well as others." and be at once intelligent and statesman- brought to a close. A correspondent writing to the by ladies, too, may be seen by glancing at like. These reports, at present, are Athenæum, from Bury St. Edmunds, the following from the Detroit Tribune: | mere idle inventions .- Colonist, 21st. We learn from the Marshall papers that on Tuesday night last, that village was the scene of adminstration of summary justice, without went to his house and knocked at the ooor,

and when he appeared they threw a backet

of tar over his head, completely blinding him name? To be serious, we are glad this in-prosperous; there is plenty of room for usefulcess for women skilled in medicine. We that in no country on earth is there so little torious for it. We lately witnessed an instance which to us seemed, considering the tions. A few respectfully standing; some and refinement, if not an actual irreverence

DISCOVERY OF A HUMAN SKELETON IN Various rumours were affoat in in the house of God.

"That gate misnamed, through which before few disrespecially standing-gazing about whole course .- New York Herald.

A Card - Ward & McCausland. the intervention of the courts, such as has $50 Reward - Money lost. seldom been known in Michigan. A fellow | 320 Reward -- Commissions lost.

Markham Township Council.

On Tuesday last a meeting of the Muni-Women Decrors .- We have received cipal Council of the Township of Markham, was held, pursuant to adjournment, at Size's

Hotel, in the Village of Unionville. Present,

On taking the chair, the Reeve suggested these latter we find a list covering two pages that as the time for the Revision of the Asof the report, and footing up two hundred sessment Rolls had expired; and as there names or thereabouts. It sounds odd to of being charged with ceasing to pro- read of Doctors Anne, and Lydia, and were several persons present who had intimated their intention to appeal from the de- charge, and the verdict. cision of Mr. Gibson, Assessor for the East half of the Township, the Council should stitution, like others of the same kind, is hope that young women who don't want to marry will think well of the subject. The seat at the board, and the Reeve read the going on board of the steamer which he comfees at the College are only $175 for the names of the various parties who desired to mended, they did not meet with that security appeal, viz: Messrs. George Miller, John which all passengers expect, and are certainand Joseph Pipher, William Spafford, Rich- ly entitled to. There were neither boats, IRREVERENCE IN WORSHIP .- The Zion's THE TOWER OF LONDON. - Every Herald has the following severe but perhaps and Sylvester, Thomas Bruel, Christopher nor life preservers, nor the other necessary too just remarks upon the popular irreverence Leighman, and Ira White.

Councilman Pingle, and carried.

reverence during public worship as in some rise to much altercation between the parties to a steamer. The "Montreal" was in portions of America. We are becoming nowhich the aggrieved parties alleged, had been Visitors should not forget Traitors' clergymen and the people, were in all posi- the Assessor; William Spafford's personal on board exercising control. The pilot, inlowed to remain according to the Assessor's guilty. would be considered a want of cultivation returns; John Pipher assessed for 85 instead The Jury then (at half past three o'clock) personal property was assessed for £250, dered the following which he considered too high, but his objecbrick floor of a kitchen in the vicarage of tion was not concurred in by the Court, and

> In justice to Mr. Gibson, we think it lum of the liabilities on their respective The skeleton was found laid on the back, properties; and that it was evident, throughout, that he had acted to the best of his knowledge in every instance.

> > adjournment, the Council resumed, when the John Macbeth, Jessie Spence, Simon Hall, a virtue," and exercised it to the utmost of Township of Markham, at its next sitting, on the 21st inst., make the following disposi- sengers on board of the steamer called the tion of School Section No. 9, of this Town- " Montreal," then plying between the ports observation. The heading is the most ship,-that the rear half of Lot No. 11 in of Quebec and Montreal, on the 26th day of amusing-Richmond Hill--the Gazette--the 6th Concession, be added to School June last, as a passenger vessel were, to save Section No. 14, and the rear half of Lot themselves from death by fire, in consequence question had caused a great deal of uncooking. It should be boiled with a all their reports, to say nothing of necessary expense upon the Township, in the before-mentioned steamer "Montreal," seem to speak of general elections. Now, done in all descriptions of wheat was igragation, 350, increase 42. Net increase nice piece of salt pork and served up all he would have look into on his own consequence of the Council meeting so often, on the day on which she was destroyed by Sir, what has Ajax(ass) to do with such slow and inferior; red declined at 2s of members (exclusive of the United States

The Clerk of the Council, was finally directed to write to the Local Superintendent. for the report of 1855, and lay the same before the board at their next meeting.

On motion of Councilman Button, seconded by Councilman Pingle, an appropriation of £25 was voted to be expended on the side line, between Lots Nos. 5 & 6, in the 9th Concession; said sum to be disbursed under the supervision of Messrs. James library of said school, which was granted.

The Council then adjourned, and the next meeting was appointed to take place on the third Saturday in August next.

THE BURNING OF THE "MON-TREAL."

The jury empanelled to investigate the circumstances attending the destruction of the steamer Montreal by fire on 26th, of June last, concluded their labors on the 17th inst. The evidence adduced fully proved the correctness of the report already publish ed by us. We here subjoin the Coroner's

THE CORONER'S CHARGE.

Mr. Coroner Panet then addressed the sion, after which the usual business could be Jury to the following effect. Gentlemen :--As you have paid very great attention to the Councilman Bowman then moved that the evidence, it is quite unnecessary for me to ordinary business of the Council be post- recapitulate it, or make a long charge. One poned, and the Court of Revision be formed fact must have have struck you, and that is, forthwith. The motion was seconded by that the Captain did not do his duty, under the trying circumstances in which he was Mr. J. Gibson, Assessor, then took his placed, towards his passengers; and that, in means required by law on board, for the The consideration of these cases gave safety of passengers, in the event of accident named, and the Assessor, which the Reeve charge of a captain who continued to keep had much difficulty in restraining. After her on her course after she was dangerously considerable discussion on the various items, on fire, passing places proper for safely landing bis passengers: and when these pasover-assessed, the Court finally agreed to sengers became excited, he gave himself no the following adjustment:-Mr. Miller's as- trouble whatever in attempting to quell the sessment, reduced from £2000 to £500; excitement. He appeared to be nowhere at Mr. Joseph l'ipher's to remain as valued by all; and, indeed, there seemed to be no one property exempt from Assessment, and his stead of remaining at his post abandoned it. real estate to remain at the Assessor's val- The boat apparently went aground by its or the little church of St. Peter ad few sitting with faces respectfully covered, uation; Thos. Bruel's personal property tax own impetus, and without guidance ; -- and Vincula, where lies Anne Boleyn, with the majority sitting with every appearance of reduced from £100 to £50, his real estate there is, in my opinion, Gentlemen, -but it many other noble sufferers ; or the unconcern, and not a few greeting and fol- to remain as assessed; Christopher Leigh- is for you to decide-evidence enough to man's real estate to be reduced, from £200 enable you to bring in a verdict of man imprisoned there, cut in the stone Now there was no appearance of reverence in to £100; Richard Sylvester's taxable in- slaughter against the owner, and the captain; walls. This latter will be seen on the such a congregation as a whole. And yet. come reduced from £1000 to £200, and his and that without imputing to them a wilful personal property to £100; Joseph Pipher's intention to do wrong or to have committed assessment was, after some wrangling, al- that crime of which they undoubtedly are > of 95 acres-Mr. Joseph Pipher who ap- retired, and, having consulted together, at peared on behalf of his son, stated that the half past 6 o'clock, came into Court and ren-

VERDICT.

Egmanton, near Tuxford, occupied by the the Assessor's valuation was sustained; Mr. liam Benning, Benjamin Cole, Thomas An-We, Duncan Macpherson, Foreman, Wildrews, Michael White, Oliver Rubnallee, John Jones, junior, William Hull, Henry Wilson, Francis Doyle, Charles Alam, Gustavus Temple, and Charles Rogers, Jurors, empanelled to investigate and ascertain the causes of the death of James McLaren Christina Alexandrina Robb, an unknown correspondence of the human species, and The Court then rose, and after a short of Sorel, Margaret Macpherson, wife of I have acted upon the motto of "patience is consideration of the following resolution, Edward Christian and one hundred and forty my bearing upon your reply, to that of the 1st. That these persons having been pas-with the crime of manslaughter.

crime of manslaughter.

officers whose duty it was, satisfied that his simply beause he took hold of the reins refusal to do so has in a great measure, con- the village when he observed certain of pected daily. A most judicious step had been tributed to the disaster, which has resulted in its inhabitants encouraging bull-dog wars. the loss of no fewer than two bundred and Thus Mr. Pax would seem to be slammed lifty-three lives.

conclude upon their oaths, and now say . it would accept of a government situation. Dorval and Louis Roberge, before mention ed, in manner and by the means aforesaid. feloniously, wilfully and unlawfully did kill discovered the name of the writer of Ajax, and slay, against the peace of our Lady the which I shall make known to you at our next Queen, her Crown and dignity, the persons tete-u-tete. here-in-before mentioned.

Duncan Macpherson, Foreman, William Benning, Benjamin Cole, Thomas Andrews, Michael White, Oliver Rubnallee, John Jones Jr., William Hull, H. W. Wilson. Francis Doyle, Charles Alain, Gustavus Temple, C. Roger.

On the rendition of the verdict, the Coroner immediately issued his warrant for the apprehension of the parties spresented by the Jury, with the exception of Captain Rugolph, who was already in custody. The mate, Louis Roberge was arrested shortly afterwards, and committed to gaol.

The July than adjourned, to meet again this morning, to sign the record of Inquisition. We understand that a Bill of indictment against the parties implicated in the late the Insurrection in Italy. catastrophe will be laid before the Grand Jury of the Court of Queen's Bench now in

COMMUNICATION

We wish to be distinctly understood that we will not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents. Also, all Communications addressed to this office for Publication, must be accompanied by the real name of the writer, although it need not in every case be inserted.

To the Editor of the Gazette.

Sir,--Having observed that the Newmarket New Era has degenerated from the female child about 4 years of age, an un- widely thrown its columns open for the pub- Telegraph Cable progresses. known woman aged about 40, Louis Dubuis, lication of the opinions of the brute creation, "That the Municipal Council of the which led to such death, beg to represent :- July. I am, indeed, proud to think that you to submit to. have looked upon that communication with disdain, or that it has entirely escaped your

Now, whether this Ajux(ass) is the ori-No. 9, in the 6th Concession, and the front of the conflagration of the steamer shortly ginal, or one of the descendants of the celebrated Grecian warrior, or of the renownbe added to School Section No. 8, and the in a part of the River St. Lawrence about ed Elephant "we read about" of the punished by the Punjabers. remainder of said School Section No. 9, be a mile above the River Caprouge, either in same name which so nobly fought the battles added to School Section No. 10 of this panic or in necessity, forced to leap into the of Alexander the Great, I am not positive- experienced further ease, and the bank river, after the vessel had got aground upon ly able to decide; but this I will assure you Mr. William Eckardt then said that a ledge of rock and were thereby drowned. that since the Ajax of which history speaks School Section No. 9 was opposed to 2d. That the steamboat " Montreal," be- of being involved into utter darkness (the the union, unless Section No. 10 would first fore mentioned, was not equipped in the man- same as its correspondent appears now to flowing freely from his month and nose, ernment was fixed at Kingston; and discharge the debt incurred upon said Sec- ner required by the law 16 Vic. Cap. 167. be) the name has sunk into oblivion, and mand. The Paris Bourse continued dia, had been pronounced unseaworthy. Sec. 1, and had not on board, as a boat at- never once been applied, but to animals of greatly depressed. The Bank of The Reeve, stated that it would be the tached to, and belonging to her for passen- the brute creation. It seems to presume How To Cook Rhubars.—It is a to repeat what we said before on the object of the Council to administer justice gers, a life boat made of metal, fire proof, and that the future of the Gazette is entirely in common error in cooking Rhubarh to subject, -namely, that the question to both Sections, and thought it better to in all respects a good, substantial, safe sea- its hands. With this idea it would fain mount have it disposed of at once, as delays would boat, capable of sustaining inside and outside the celebrated charger Vindicator, and feed probably involve them in more difficulty, and fifty persons, with life lines attached to the him upon the prospectus, long before your he was perfectly satisfied that the other mem- gunwale at suitable distances, well furnished paper comes from the press. I am afraid have derived this information from a Hudson's Bay Territories Committee; bers of the Council would have no objection with oars, nor any life-preservers of suitable that it and its imaginary horse are now favourable. The quantity of wheat Councilman Button, said that the present ing life, for each and every passenger on land complain bitterly of the withdrawal of land and growing hungry, as it would seem to weep and flour being more than was anticipated for preserving land flour bei board, in any convenient or accessible place your prospectus from publication. It would trade. To-day's markets were mod- Sabbath teachers, 25,403, increase 1006; account, in order that his decision, or expressly for this reason, during the last fire; and, that therefore the owner, of the things seeing he is void of language? With per bushel on the prices of Friday. of America), 2124.

and employed on board of the vessel, and and without knowledge, speech has but little with a few sales of mixed and vellow John Charles Rudolph, the master of the be- weight, and there is but one exception to the fore mentioned steamer " Montreal," at the rule that Jackasses are dumb. When the time of her destruction by fire, on the even- Lord opened the mouth of the Ass on which 6d a 33s 6d; western, 30s 6o a 31 6d ing of the 26th of June last, are chargeable Balaam rode, and by this wonderous instru- per 196 pounds. Beef quiet steady-3d. That a dangerous fire having broken man from impending destruction, -- as the tinues neglected, and small quantities out on the 26th day of June, 1857 on board | dumb Ass speaking with man's voice forbade of the steamer " Montreal," she being then the madness of the prophet. This, however, rather lower, 67s a 6d being the nomfilled with immigrants and other passengers, was a miracle, an extraordinary interposition in al value. Tallow steady. Cotton to the number of nearly four hundred souls, of the power of God, who made man's mouth, -The advices per Canada have rath-Trann, Samuel Reesor, and William John- before the said steamer "Montreal" had and who, for the accomplishment of his own er strengthened the market, and topassed several places where she might safely glorious purposes imparted for a season the day there is a pleasant business; sales Councilman Bowman presented a petition and prudently run ashore, as regards the pre- capacity to a brute which otherwise exclusivefrom John Lane, one of the trustees of servation of the lives of the passengers and ly belonged to man. Does Ajax(ass) expect School Section No. 1, praying the Council that no exertion was made, worthy of the to have a bray in the next general election to appropriate the sum of £7 10s to aid the name, nor any extraordinary anxiety mani- of representatives and non-representatives Cincinnati, last week, for $370, but the fested for the safety of the passengers by which he speaks of seeing arraigned round purchaser thinking the amount too large, John Charles Rudolph the master, Jean the bar of public opinion. But, Mr. Editor, were taken to an adjoining hayscale, and Baptiste Dorval, the first pilot, and Louis I would not perhaps have observed the pre- weighed 2350 pounds, making their value Roberge, the mate, of the before mentioned sumptive ideas of this extraordinary elephant, $376. steamer " Montreal," after- the destruction if he had been content with the vulgar show of the vessel was inevitable, and the passen- of the banners and canvas for which a mengers had been seized with panic, they, each agerie is so widely noted. But to throw under a boding fear of approaching poverty, and all of them, are chargeable with the slanderous language upon British colors and was last week discovered hanging to a bed presume to belong to the navy is going post quite dead. His family were not in the 4th. The Jury strongly recommend that beyond all bounds of its denomination. It is it may bereafter be made imperative on the a noted fact that elephants are extremely fond owners of all steamboats to have the encase- of eggs, duck eggs especially, and knowing a countryman he saw standing near, by slyly ments of boilers constructed of iron, instead that ducks are in the habit of depositing them discharging a pistol to his ears. So he crept of wood, as at present; and that the law re- occasionally in the horse pond. I am confi- up to him; fired his pistol; and a portion of garding the inspection of boilers, machinery, dent that the extent of its naval adventures furnace-rooms and hulls he rigidly enforced, has been the flat bottomed scow, and its and the enactments of the law, relative to ponderous trunk raking the puddle in search Hinsdale, N. H. is now on exhibition in boats and life preservers, on board of every of the ducks' hiden treasure. It pretends Springfield, which is said to be the largest passenger and ferry-steamer, be strictly car- having deigned to stoop to observe the framed ox in the world, and weighs, though Gazette's correspondents in which he would far from fat, 4 200 pounds, measuring 6 feet 7 5th .- The Jury censure in the strongest seem to remember his old tricks in the days feet, and is 13 feet in length, from stem to terms the conduct of John Wilson, senior, of Alexander, and with his unmanufactured stern. the controlling agent of the " Montreal," for looking trunk takes hold of Mr. Pax by the refusing to allow his boats to be inspected by hair of the head and slaps him right and left, Western Canada. Nearly 200 young wo-> around if every barrus had his way. And the Jury, now summing up the whole, Speaking about general elections perhaps

> > But whist I'll tell you o' a plot, Tho' dinna you be speaking o't, I'll nail the self-conceited sot As dead's a herrin, Naist time we meet I'll wad a grot He gets his farin.

Yours, &c.,

ARRIVAL OF THE "VANDER-BILT" AND "ATLANTIC."

NEW YORK, July 20.

The steamship Vanderbilt from Havre and Southampton on the 8th rection in Italy against the King of state of unusual prosperity." Naples and the pope, has not been, At the meeting of the Synod of the Westrians from Italy.

The Republican candidates Cavaignac, Oliver, and Darmon, were elected in Paris on the 5th and 6th inst.

The work of shipping the Atlantic Advices from Tcheran report, that demanded that a regiment of the In- skin, and took a stand were those animals were dian army should accompany him on known to pass quite often. While thus intent his entry into Teheran, which de nand upon securing some game, another hunter man, was taken violently ill on the since. It is rather singular that the servants passed at a previous meeting, was taken up. others, or thereabout, and the Russian Government had refused came near making game of him: for happening letter from an army officer, dated La- in "frightening him out of his skin." pore, May 14, in which is stated that were cut to pieces.

The London discount market had of England was growing stronger by France was gaining specie; consols, The-thirty eighth conference of the Primitive reports of the growing crops are very three years, and hoped it would be speedily vessel, John Wilson Junior, or the younger, out speech, knowledge is of but little value, Indian corn-a little more enquiry, at 36s a 36s 6d; with rather easier, 39s 6d offered. Flour-Philadelphia and Baltimore, 31s a 32s; extra Ohio, 32s mentality saved the infatuated and guilty Pork scarcely enquired for; bacon con. offered at auction to-day were without a bid. Lard has been quiet; prices of to-day, 5,000 a 8,000 bales, with slightly higher rates

A pair of horses were offered for sale in offered sixteen cents a pound. The horses

A man in Essa, name! Robert Pearson who had lost his sight for some time past, and become very troublesome in his family louse at the time. An intoxicated man named Burgess, in Rochester, on the fourth, thought to frighten its contents hit the man in the eye and de-

An ox, belonging to Otis Doolittle, of inches in height, at the shoulders, girts 10

There are now at Grosse Isle upwards of 1,000 newly-arrived Britsh Settlers for of men from Conmell and Waterford are extaken by the Chief Emigration Agent at Quebec, recommending " newly-arrived Emigrants to proceed to the Country Districis rather than the large towns."

How is it !- Flaming advertisements appeared not long since, in certian newspapers That John Charles Rudolph, Jean Baptiste Say the word and as Van Amburgh and Co. that the Zimmerman Bank was prepared to in this section of the Province, announcing, are on their way I shall exert my influence. pay par for its notes, at the counter of the Dear Sir, --- Since writing the above I have Bank ; then, how is it that we see by " Dye's Wall Street Broker" that Zimmerman Bank Bills are at a discount of 50 per cent, in New York! Can the Times answer ?-Woodstock Sentinel.

By the latest intelligence from Kansas we learn that a serious insurrectio had broken out at Lawrence, in Kansas Territory. The cause of insurrection is not stated, but it is supposed to have originated in an attempt to collect the taxes imposed by the Territorial laws, which the free State troops had resolved not to pay. Governor Walker, in a despatch to President Buchanan says that he had called out the United states troops to Emigration from Ireland to Canada and the United States continues on a large scale. At the latest dates, thousand were preparing to leave the old country. One of the papers says: "The accounts represent the emigration as still increasing, especially from the southern countries of Kerry, Cork, Limerick, and and the sittantic from Liverpool, the Tipperary .- Small farmers and laborers, tor same date, arrived at this port yester- America an Australia, form the bulk of the day. We have a detailed account of emigrants' and this is the more remarkable, as wages are now much higher than in former The account of the attempted Insur- years, and all branches of agriculture are in a

(it is said) with a view to effect a new tern Diocese, held last week at London, form of government, but to get aid of C. W., for the election of a Bishop, Dr. the Itailian Bourbons and expel the Aus- Cronyn obtained a majority both of the Clerical and Lay votes over his opponent, There had also been rumors of Insur- Dr Bethune, the number of votes for Dr. rection in various parts of Spain, but at Cronyn being, Clerical 22, Lay 23, and for last advices the country was quiet in Dr. Bethune, Clerical 20, Lay 10, thus givdespite of all the efforts of the Gov- ing a gross majority of fifteen in favor of Dr. Cronyn, whose election cannot fail, from his well-known reputation for picty, ability and discretion, to giving great satisfaction to the members of the Church of England throughout Canada.

FRIGHTENED OUT OF HIS SKIN .- A young man went out hunting for deer in the woods near Lanark C. W., recently, and as Mr. Murray the British Minister had an experiment, he clothed himself in a deer to see what he supposed to be a fine deer There are no later advices from through the thicket, the new-comer took deliberate aim at it and fired. Fortunately he The London Times publishes a missed the counterfeit deer but it succeeded

Advices have been received from the Cape the 25 native infantry at Folozepore, of Good Hope, dated at Cape Town on 6th having refused to lay down their arms, May. The frontier papers which come down to the 30th of April, convey no news of mo-The 300 Sepoye who cut away ment from British Kaffraria. The war cry from here yesterday, have been well had subsided, and beyond the ordinary cattle stealing by the Kaffirs, there was little to record. The want of laborers was severely felt at Port Elizabeth. The total value of exports for the quarters from Algoa Bay was £164.800. This is an increase on the corthe influx of gold. Some bills had responding period for 1855, of £25.870 been done outside the bank at 5$ per Sir George Grey, the Governor, was indiscent per annum; but on the Stock posed in Cape Town. The British mail Exchange there was considerable de- steamer "Clarendon," from England for In-

PRIMITIVE METHODIST CONFERENCE .-Methodists Connexion was held last week at Richardson, Spence & Co.'s circu- Cambridge. The following are the connexlar :- The weather since Friday has ional statistics this year :- Number of stabeen stormy, but to-day has assumed a tions, 336; members, 110,683; travelling more settled appearance. So far the preachers, 598, decrease 2; local preachers, 10,205, increase 109; class leaders, 6919, increase 34; connexional chaples, 2010, increase 55, rented rooms, &c., 3171, increase erately attended. The most business deaths for the year, 1475, decrease 110; em-