FIFTH OF NOV. AT LEMONVILLE

To the Editor of the York Ridings' Gazette. Sta,-The Stoutfville Loyal Orange Lodge, at their last a ceting, not having received any invitation to visit a sister lodge, resolved to celebrate the day at Lemonville. The morning being fine, the brethen turned out with the light of pleasure in their coun tenances, all intent on wooling the blissiu goddess, and they were not disappointed.

The Lodge was attended by their usual accompanyment, the Buttonville Brass Band low for Cash, or on approved Credit. The spirited young bethren from Stouffwhe-with a four horse rig in good style. When near Lemonville a melo dra natic incident occurred, which caused the greatest merriment, and afforded the lovers of the Saddle and Harness Maker, ludicrous food for the day. A regular Don Quixote suddenly made his appearance, with green ribbons flying, his lance couched, and a rusty toud stubber at his side. He ordered the Orange flag to be pulled down, but VALUABLE PROPERTY ! learning the watchword, " No Surrender!" he turned his illigant Rosinante and led the way, brandishing his lance like a true Knight of St. Patrick, while the band struck up the | B | | " Processant Boys," and the cheers and boisterous laughter sent Sir Knight in quest of new adventures.

Marshall J. Phillips formed a procession, streets, while our fair sympathizers waved
