June, 1857.

G. A. BARNARD,

MPORTER of British and American Dry Goods, Goceries, Wines, Liquers, Ons, Painte, de, de Richmond Hill, June. 18 7,

CHARLES DURRANT, (Late M. Terfy.) MPORTER of British and Foreign Dry Goods, Twornkill, Nov. 16, 1857. Wine and Spirit Merchant, &c. &c. Bickmond Hill, June, 1847. g. l-wy.

P. CROSBY, ARY GOUDS, G openes, Wine ..

- JOHN McDONALD, Chemist and Druggist, POTPER of English Brugs, Soups, Per-Dmes, Brusties, &c. No. 169. Youge Street (Opposite Shuter Street, near Green Bush Tavern, Tomosto.

Jane, 18.7. THOMAS SEDMAN, Carriage, Waggon & Sleigh

MAKER, Opposite the White Swan Inn. Richmond Hill, Jane 10th, 1857.

J. W. GIBSON, Bost and Shoe of Ron Maker, Opposite J. K. Falconbridge's. TONGE STREET, RICHMOND HILL.

> RARD & McCAUSLAND, House, Sign and Ornan ental

Grainers, Gilders, Glaziers, and aper hangers.

THE SHE THE all kinds of Mixed Paints,

Oils, Gliss, and Putty. GOOD WORKMEN SENT TO ANY PART OF THE COUNTRY.

July 23, 1857.

WILLIAM HARRISON, Saddle and Harness Maker, Next door to G. & B. Barnard's. Hichmond Hill.

JOHN COULTER, Tailor and Clothier, Youge St., Richmond Hill, June. 1857. g.1-wy.

GEORGE DODD, Veterinary Surgeon. Lot 26, 4th Con., Vnughan. " HORSE & FARRIER" INN.

HENRY SANDERSON, VETERINARY SURGEON,

UCTIONEER, Corner of Youge and Centre Streets. RICHMOND HILL, June, 1857. g 1. wy.

RICHMOND HILL HOTEL, Opposite the Post Office, Yonge Street,

A N Omnibus leaves the above Hotel every Morning. (Sundays excepted,) at 7 o'clock. or Toronto: returning the same evening-Horses and Buggies kept for hire. RICHARD NICHOLLS.

Richmond Hill, June, 1 57. get.wv.

VICTORY HOTEL, And Masonic Hall,

YONGE STREET EXTENSIVE Stabling, and obliging Hostlers always in attendance. Choice Wines and Liquors. Beer, Porter and various Summer Beverages. Regalia, Principe, Havana, Manilla and other brane of Cigars and Cheroots. Au Spraibus to and from Toronto, calls at this

ROBERT WISEMAN. Richmond Hill, June, 1857.

A. GALLANOUGH,

DEALER in Groceries, Wines and Liquors Thonhill, C. W. Choice brands of Teas. Sugars and Coffees on hand, genuine as Imported. An assurtment of Bread, Biscuit and Cakes, constantly on hand. Thornigh, Sept. 25, 1857.

Thorn Hill Hotel, COOD ACCOMMODATION FOR JOHN SHIELS, Proprietor

Thorn Hill, June 9th, 1857.

g.I-wv.

J. W. MILLAR, MPORTER and Dealer in Gold and Silver Watches, Pine Jeweilery, Electro-Plate, Faucy Lends, Ac. Ac. No. 80, Your Suect, Toronto. June, 1857.

I SKETCH YOUR WORLD EXACTLY AS IT GOES .- Bigron. WITH OR WITHOUT OFFENCE TO FRIENDS OR FOES, Vol. I.

HICHMOND HILL, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1857.

CALEB LUDFORD, saddle and Horness Maker, THORNILL

CHAS. POLLOCK, [80

I MPORTER of British. French German and American, Fancy and Staole Dry loods, No. 80, City Buildings, King Stee t East. pposite St James' Cathedral, Teronio, C. W.

JOHN HARRINGTON, JR., INVO Miles North of Richmond Hill. deale in Dry Gonds, Groceries, Wines, Liquors, Handware, Glass, Earthenware, &c. Also, Large and Anguager. September, 23, 1857.

J. N. REID, Carner of Younge and Course Streets. Topratitit

Angust 24 1857. J. VERNEY,

Boot and Shoe Maker. OPPOSITE A. LAW'., Younge street, Rich-Ladies' and Gentlemens' Boots and Shoes, g9-6.m. W.C. ADAMS DOCTOR DENT.IL

66, King Street, East. Toronto, C. W.

Particular attention given to the regulation o Children's Teeth Consultations Free, and all Work Warranted. Tozonto, June, 1-67.

J. K. FALCONBIRDGE, Richmond Hill,

IMPORTER and Dealer in Dry Goods, Groceries, Wines, Ligares, Hardware, Glass, arthenware, de, de, de. June, 1857.

DAVID ATKINSON, AGENT FOR Darling & Aifchison's

MACHINES, RICHAROND EILI. June, 1857.

MESSRS. J. & W. BOYD, Barristers, &c., NO. 7. WELLINGTON BUILDINGS,

KING ST., TORONTO, June 20, 18.7. CLYDE HOTEL, KING STRE T EAST, TO CNTO. MOOD Stabling and Attentive Hostlers JOHN MILLS,

June, 1857.

Bottled Ale Depot, 65, YORK STREET, TORONTO, C. W. M. MORRISON, Agent, Toronto, June 12th, 1857.

JOHN MURPHY, House Decorator, Painter,

PAPER HANGER, GLAZIER Sec., Sec.

No 49, King Street, 4 Doors West of Bay Street. Dealer in Paper Hangings, Decorations, &c-Toronto, June 18th, 1857. g.2-wy.

GO TO MORPHY BROTHERS

T Electro Ware, Silver Spoons, and Speciacles to suit every sight. Clocks from 20s upwards. Toronre, June. 1857.

ROBERT J. GRIFFITH, LAG, Banner and Ornamental Painter, teraid l'aining, executed with de-patch, and at casonat-le charges.

June, 1857,

BY J. CLEMENT.

My guid auld frien', my Pocket-Book, I' time o' need, "by hook and crook," Thou'st pointed to some cozie nook Frae Trouble's glower. Nor ance, till now, has me forsook,

Or missed the scene. When I was but a ram-scam chiel, An' constant trod on leasure's heel. The verdent bries o' routh to speel,

The help was near, An' pu my senses i' a cree Vir shining gear.

Through many a season thou hast been In hitterest home m sweete thien'. An' afi di-pelled frae life's deep glea, The g thering gloom, Making the flowers o' joy again M.i. garly bloom. When weary wi' a load o' care. Or when misfortune pressed are sent.

As l'overt began to stare Wi' eldrich look. Then i' my boun thy siller fair

Was freely shook. Ilk turn o' Fortune's whezzing wheel Has brought me roun' sic glo ions wed! Long hast thou been her favorite chiel. Plning, sleek and braw;

But, wae's me! Luck keeks up her heel,

Now thou art thin as ony sprite, That gallops on the back o' night; Thy ghaistly form my een d th tright Thou art sae lean :

An' rin's awa'?

Thou lookest like a starving wight Wha has nas 'frien'. Suspension, cruel as the rack' Has set his greedy, thievis a pack, Without remoise upo' the back,

Nor gien thre rest. Till toon artrobb'p of ilka pluck By thee possess'd. Sull I'se na let my tentless Music

Wi' c ambo-jing'e harsh abuse ye; Tho' ablus I use mair may use ye, Yes, for the past, Some shelter I frae harm will choose ye.

While life shall last. An' sud au'd Time continue "hard," An' press yet mair the hapless Bard, Waesucks! his fate mann be ill-starr'd; Starvation's pet, He soon within the au'd kirky ud A hame will get.

The following is decidedly not so bal:-"Old Sexion": -

Nigh to a grave that was newly made Leaned a sexton old on his earth-worn spade, His work was done, and he paused to wait The funeral train through the open gate; A relie of by-gone days was he, And these words came from his lips so thin,

"I gather them in! I gather them in!" Whereupon the graceless fellow took his pencil and thus wrote on a scrap of paper ly

Nigh to a church that was newly made, Stood a lady fair, and thus she said-Too bad, too bad-I here must wait While they measure the breadth of this open

Ah! 'tis only NINE by six I see! Too na row too narrow, alas! for me; And she sighed from her quivering lips so thin--"I cannot get in ! I cannot get in !"

TWO WAYS TO SAVE MONEY

A LIFE SKETCI'.

BY SYLVANUS COBB, JR.

The following sketch of real life so plainly exhibits a lesson which might be profitably followed by many of our people, that we give it to the the agent, reader simply as it occurred, only concealing the real names of the parties concerned. And as the story lears its own moral, we will not tire you with any "reflections."

John Poland and Anson Lyman me I'd better stop here. He said you lending him the money. bought farms adjoining each other. were taking no agricultural paper." The land had formerly been owned . And did he subscribe I'. 1000 Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Melodeons, by one man who had carried on the whole, employing a heavy force in "I tell ve, Dolly, Poland's thousand needed readily. Watch Clubs in Operation. Warranted the work. When the two friends dollars 'if come out minus -now you bought the land it was as equally di- mark my words." vided as possible; and after the line Dily Lyman said nothing, for she away or whole side of his neighbor's I had five more head of cattle than should sell his wheat on credit, and no more in at worked much on the the land de- thought that her husband was exer- ment capaple of accommodating forty- can, within six hours, take seven hun- ment of a year's subscription is of the same cared that they would not give the cising a spirit of penuriousness which five head of cattle. However, Po- dred dollars cash; but no such money importance to a publisher as the payment of Elizabeth Street Toronto,—Over W. GritScreet Storet.

Care I that they would be give to ked mean; but she did not say so. land worked on, and tried in vain to can purchase them of me. Ah, Lyscreet Storet.

Care I that they would be give to ked mean; but she did not say so. land worked on, and tried in vain to can purchase them of me. Ah, Lytween the two farms. The old build"Hallo! what we doing?" cried get his neighbor to listen to some of man, you have teen saving money, his advice.

The harder the times, the more entire in To Coals of Arms, and every description of ings were useless, so new ones were Lyman, as he saw Poland commen his advice.

last pennies for the farms, and being Poland. obliged to run some in debt to get stock and tools.

In all respects the two men commenced evenly. They were both married, and while Poland had one than twenty acres to till." son and two daughters, Lyman had one daughter and two sons. "Look ve," said Lyman, as the two sat together after their farming operations were commenced, "I have set my mark to aim at. I'm determined forty to s from twenty acres." If I have my health, to lay up a thousand dollars, clear of everything, in ed Lyman, as he turned away.

su h other articles of produce as might live years. such a purpose," returned Poland. "Not a bit," cried the other eathu- engaged all their manure for four siastically. "I'm not going to wear years; and that he was to pay for it my back-bone away for nothing. I'm in wood, and butter, and cheese, and going to lay up money." "So I hope to do," said Poland, be wanted, "but mone, isn't the list consider-land has been and done now !" Lyman. "If you have money you the wife, looking up. can have everything. Money is the give me a thousand dollars, and I'll be years, and he's got to haul wood, and when our school is open? content."

"So I must have a thosand dol- it." lars," remarked Poland; and then the conversation took another tu n.

had some splendid young cattle, the latter. | ters, and well educated, than with "Poland, you must help me. I They were of a pure English breed. But I get manure enough for two thousands of dollars cath, minus the want to learn to be a farmer. or rather a cross between two of the acres of corn every year, and that's education. best breeds ever imported, and came enough," said Lyman. very high. Poland saw him passing "For you it may be, but I wish to to lay up a thousand dollars; to have easily than I did, for you have money." and hailed him. Our friend was mature more. Our land was well run it in books, and papers, and new tie-ups, And Lyman commenced. The anxious to grow a fine stock, and he out when we took it, and in order to and such like." knew that he must commence in the get it up to its fullest capacity we 'You shall see when the time is up.' pended in the world, but his dollars right way. willing to sell, but he must have he pitying expression-" go ahead; but Mr. Lyman had not fully realized many might follow with profit. male and female, two years old, which know " he would sell for two hundred dollars. Poland was not disappointed in his But An on Lyman couldn't see the the third year.

ourchase. bor had paid for the new stock. then go off and buy such a quantity of the three acre piece where the grain earth have you been thinking of, Po- events. land. Why, I wouldn't have given During the following winter, while Been poling some hay on here, seventy five dollars for 'em no how. Lyman was cutting and hauling wood said Laman, as he saw the huge bunchand cheese. I tell you plainly you'll halt per cord, "poor" Poland was stand.

manure which he had not got yet! launch out in that way." "But, my dear sir, I am determin- It was on the first day of April that A gentleman conversing with a lady friend, ed to have the best stock I can get,' Poland came to see his neighbor. He then estimated their average weight, a short time since, claimed that he could returned Poland, carnestly; "for wanted to borrow one hundred dol- an I upon reckoning up he found that parodize on the hoop question any verse that those farmers who have made the lars for six months or for a year if he the Lind had yielded not far from four in the parlour of the St. Lawrence Hotel, she might choose to repeat. She according- most money have made it from stock. | could. g.3.wr. | ly rehearsed the following verse from the | lassure you it is one of the greatest | "What ye going to do with it?" | the two acres which he had first dress- ter, President of the Anthracite Bank of faitings our farmers have that they asked Lyman. are content with small, poor cattle, when, by a little trouble and expense, ments in my barn and cellar, and also kin with it Poland had got ten bushels they could have better." And his looks were as white as the foamy sea- any rate," resumed Lyman. "I can't my main barn." a pair of two-vear-olds, and one of said Lyman, pityingly. "Here I've upon his place. them a heifer at that, when for fifty laid up over two hundred dollars clear The live years came around, and dollars I can buy one of the best cows cash, and you are worse off than Anson L man went on that day and in the country." opinions.'

"Ave-and I'll have my thousand -as large as mine is with double your he had at home. dollars too," laughed Lyman, as he land to empty into it. If I lend you a Well. Poland, I've got the prize turned away.

the canvasser for an agricultural it go where I know it is safe. I Spring, just five years ago from the newspaper stopped at Lyman's house; shouldn't want to sue you, and I div on which they bou hi. but the host couldn't afford to take it. might not get it without. Your farm I ve got the thous and dollars ; now "Hadn't you better?' ventured his is as good as mine, and you have no what have you got?

" No. We take the Village Pick- -or. you shouldn't have." ings, published right in our own town, John Poland didn't say anything Aha-I thought so! and that's enough. You know what about the two animals he had bought But, Arson Lyman, said Poland. I told you Dolly-I must have that a year and a half before, and the calf al nost sternly, are your eyes not thousand dollars !"

"Then you won't take it?" said had been offered within the week four . Opened! What d've mean?"

there's my neighbor Poland-he'll stock owned by Lyman. He turned lars more than your's will. Look at the gossips, that the Czar paid extraordintake anything that anybody offers the subject of conversation as quickly my hay-mow. There are nearly ary attentions to a Princess Dolgoroki, a

"Yes-and paid me the money."

of separation had been run, those who was troubled at that moment by the barn preparatory to adding an apart- you had. For these five creatures I than a single bushel to any person; the pay-erected, and at the same time both | cing to rura fence across his field. | "Don't talk to me, 'cried Lyman, without returning anything for it." our dependence on the payment of these glwy. men commenced farming in earnest. "I'm going to three out just half at the end of the second year. "I've j Never mind-I've got my thou- small yearly subscriptions,

They were poor, having paid their of this field into pasturing," returned got four hundred dollars at interest, ted; and one bullock, four years old, now much have you got ?"

> It able to believe what he had heard, other. "Torow off half of your field! Why 'Eh! What do you mean?

out on this place is on interest.' "I know it that's all I want. I am 'Oho-ah, ah, ha, ha, -and now provement, and now yielded him back determined not to waste my time and how much interest have you realized? a heavy interest upon all that he had exenergies in swinging a scythe over 'So far I've let it run at compound pended. During one fall he took forty acres of land after five-and- interest-put the interest right in with over a thousand dollars for stock and twenty toos of hay when I can get the principle, and there it lies."

"Crazy as a march hare!" mutter- believe you can raise fifty dollars now man could not have found a punchaser Teast.

another surprise. He was at the hotel and rus it without selling something ling into a chair," I've been a fool! I "That is rather a short time for in the village, one day, and there which I do not wish at prescut to part say. learned that his neighbor Poland had ! itk.' 'I thought so. But take your own mean!

> Ere long Anson Lyman was astonshed to find that his neighbor had Anson." abscribed for a third paper besides "Dolly, what do you suppose Po- aying a lot of books for his children. seen ?

"What's the reason it isn't," asked "I don't know," I'm sure, returned in his neighbor's front room, and saw was making a comfortable home for large pile of books on the shelf. 'I himself and family, and increasing "Well, I'll tell you. He's been want my children to learn to work- the value of his farm tenfold," key that unlocks all doors the card and engaged all the manure made at last to be spending their time over "And why didn't you tell me so?" that admits you to all places. Of the tavern stables for the next four works. They get schooling enough "I did tell gou so, husband, and let his butter and cheese go to pay for . . . I mean that my children shall "I remember. Weii, never mind. learn to work, returned Poland; but Tis'nt too late now.' On the same day he saw Poland that shall not prevent them becoming | On the next morning Mr. Lyman One day a man came along who mean to bring my farm up," returned them with good health, good charac- frankly said :

'O.10! That's the way you meant Anson; and you can begin far more price. He had a fine young pair, if you ever see your money, let me how much corn Poland had received from the had he had manured so "I'll give you a good account, nev- heavily and so carefully; and on the Poland offered his note on six months. er fear," replied Poland, laughing. second year he only noticed that his together with a bill of sale of the eat- "I must feed my land if I would have neighbor had 'extraordinary good the as security. The owner was sat- it feed me. We have not got land here lack with his wheat, getting about isfied, and the bargain was made. like those rich alluvial bottoms in the much bushels from three acres. But The animals were brought home, and West. My land needs nursing now." he had occasion to open his eyes on use of wasting money in that way. One evening just at sundown, he prairies and his own city before he will sub-"Phow," broke from L man's lips. He thought the man who would first went over into Poland's field, where mit. The forts along the line are reported as he heard the price which his neigh- cut his till ige land down one-half, and the men were just finishing raking up to be in had repair. "Two hundred dollars for a two-year manure, must be little better than had been the year before-the first old bull and heifer! Why, what on foolish. He wasn't such a fool, at all piece the present owner had ploughed guarantee the following news:-It is posiup and dressed.

three acres,' returned Poland. Lyman counted the bandles, and future." lous to the acre! He had just got in Philadelphia, on the 5th inst. Richard Cared upon the new farm, and he had ob-"I want to make some improve tained short of two tons per acre! He enlarge the building by putting on a more of wheat per acre than he had "My stock answers my purpose, at tie-up, thus throwing the cattle out of done, and also more corn. He began Smith, on the other hand, alleges that he to think; but yet he would not let his married the girl, and that he subsequently afford to pay two hundred dollars for "I declare, Poland, it's too bad, money go for any such "experiments" nothing-in debt. By the jingo, John sold fourteen bashels of corn, in order the Baltimore Sun who has been afflicted "You have a right to your own I don't want to see you fooling away to g t fourteen dollars to put with nine severely in his family by that appalling dimoney so. Your barn is large enough hundred and eighty-six dollars which sease, bronchitis, has found relief from the hundred dollars what assurance have I said Lyman, entering the former It was only a week after this that I shall ever see it? I'd rather let barn in the afternoon. It was earl more need to be borrowing than I have | Well- I have not far from fou hundred dollars in money.'

they had yielded him, for which he opened yet?

hundred dollars. He owned that "Well, I mean that my farm, to- health precluded such visit, orginated in "No, sir. Can't afford it. But amount of stock over and above the day, will sell for one thousand dol- nothing less that jealousy. It appears, say as possible, for he wanted to hear no twenty tons of hay ; you have not ten. lady of great beauty, and this coming to "I.ve called on him, sir, and he told more reasons from his friend for not And, mind you, I have head of cattle more than you have. Next That afternoon he wert over to see season I shall out more hav from her appearance and not to lose sight of her the man of whom he had bought this twelve acres, which I have now re- husband until they returned to St. Petersnew stock, who leat him the money he generated, than you will cut upon burg. our whole forty acres; and you "What a fe d!" said Lyman, as he know my hay is worth far more a saw the corpenters at work tearing bound than your bay is. I told you the publisher of a newspaper to a farmer who sand dollars, and I've got my Tarm, as good as it was the day I bought it." " Not quite, Lyman."

" How so?" "You've taken off two hundred cords of good wood.' " M'cll - so rou took off some." "Ave-but what I took from my wood lot I put it back upon my field.

I did not take it from the farm." Mr. Lyman went away with new thoughts.

Time passed on, and at the end of another five years the eyes of Auson Lyman were wholly opened. Poland had now raised quite a stock of mobile cattle from his first purchase, and commenced to sell to the Leef market. Two hundred dollars was the least any one of them brought when fatbrought line three hundred and ten "What !" exclaimed Lyman, hard- 'A thousand or so,' returned the deliars. His atwenty-nore field was like a garden, yielding, such as was mowed, an average of three tous to -that won't leave you with more 'Why, all the money I have laid the acre. In short, his whole farm, was under the best training and inproduce; an I he was offered five thou-'Yes and there it will lie. I don't sand dollars for his place, while Tryat fifteen hundred!

Ere long Lyman was met by You are right, Lyman-I could "Dolly," said Anson Lyman, sink-

"Why-Anson-what do you " Mean? Look at Poland's farm."

"I have looked at it from the first, "You have! And what have you

What's the use I he said, as he sat Why, I saw that John Poland and asked him what he meant. "I well educated. I would rather leave went over to his neighbour's, and thousand dollars was nearly all exmust be prodigal of rich dressing." We shall, returned Lyman, as he came back to him with interest twice-The owner of the stock said he was Well, said Lyman, with a sort of turned towards home. Told. He had learned a lesson which

"I will help you with pleasure,

Miscellaneous Items.

A Captain Van Veht agent for the U. S. Government at Palmetto, Kansas, reports that the Mormons retused to allow the troops to enter Salt Lake City, and that Brigham Young declares he will burn the

A French journal says : "We can tive that the King of Delhi, Noura lja Shah, has proposed terms to the British military My cows will give as much butter to the village for two dollars and a cs of ha, nearly as thick as they could authorities through his subordinate agents. The circumstance proves that he is placed in never see that thousand dollars if you hauling his to the tavern to pay for No-this was all cut from these a hopeless position, and that he considers that the revolutionary party offers him no

A horrible murder was committed Tamaqua, was killed by Thos. Washington Smith, of Maryland. Carter had accused Smith of the seduction of a ward of his, and scertained that she had been Carter's mis-

A SIMPLE REMEDY .- A Writer in iollowing remedy. "Take boney in the comb, squeeze it out and dilute with a little water, and wet the lips and mouth occasionally with it." It has never been known to ail, in cases where children had throats so swolien as to be unable to swallow. It is certainly a simple remedy, and may be a ery efficacions one.

It is said that the cause of the Empress of Russia's sudden resolution to appear it Stuttgardt, after it being understood by he French court that her Majesty's ill the Czatina's ears, she determined to make

A New York journal compares