Pro-Am bridge game in need of rookies

Any bridge players who would like to try duplicate bridge for the first time are being encouraged to participate in a "Pro-Am" game coming up January 12 in Richmond Hill.

Duplicate bridge is a card game played with players at all tables playing the same cards. Bev Jones, the organizer of the event said the club would like to introduce amateur bridge players, who have not played duplicate bridge before, to the sport. "So they'll get hooked on it like I am," she said. The Pro-Am game will be held Friday, January 12, at 8 p.m. in St. John's Anglican Church Hall, Yonge Street south of Gormley-Stouffville Sideroad.

Recent bridge winners include: Monday, December 18 — North-South: John Hunter and Fred Dieken; Victor Cronshaw and Peter Osborne; Marie and Stewart Cole; Ann Payment and Bev Jones.

East-West: Marg Melnichuk and Heather Burling; Edythe Turp and Aleda McBride; Clea Dieken and Sandy Jenkinson; Ruth and Gerry Browning.

Wednesday, December 20 — North-South: Phyl Mountjoy and Mabel Howe; Nan McLean and Doug Laid; Heather Burling and Marg Davis; Grace Saunders.

East-West: Marie Ryan and Mavis Ball; Barb Lariviere and Marion Fahner; Jean Goodwin and Marg Melnichuk; Ruth Browning and Bev Jones.

Friday, December 22 — North-South: Edna and Bob Dunn; Ruth and Gerry Browning; Billye and Jack Maver; Katherine and John Coats.

BUSINESS PULSE

Farm Fresh Market has brand new look

The Farm Fresh Market on Yonge Street in Oak Ridges has a new look that should attract many more customers.

The new 6,000 square foot brick building has everything a fruit and vegetable market should have and then some. The interior is bright, with wide aisles and a great selection of fresh produce and every kind of fruit imaginable.

As well as the normal fruit market fare, the store will offer other goodies. A delicatessen section will feature a variety of cold meats and an abundance of cheeses, both domestic and imported.

Italian customers and those who like to cook the Italian way will find shelves stocked with every kind of pasta and accessory.

The fruit market was bought in the summer of 1975 by two brothers, Ernesto and Renato Fuda and their brother-in-law, Orlando Ali; and with the help of their wives, Rita, Caty and Gertrude, they have made the business grow to what it is today.
