Viva Mexico feature of Rotary travelogue

The Rotary Club of Richmond Hill has compiled a package of six travelogues, that they feel will be of interest to most people.

The first in this series will be held Thursday, January 18, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Bayview High School.

This week's travelogue is entitled 'Viva Mexico' and professional photographers and speakers have combined their talents to come up with an enjoyable presentation and narration.

Season ticket holders already have their admission paid, but anyone wishing to see any of the four remaining shows, may pay at the

The admission to any one show will be $2 for adults and $1 for students and senior citizens. SNOWMOBILE

COURSES

The York Region Snowmobile Association will conduct a threenight session in snowmobile driver training to be held January 22, 23 and 24 at Walter Scott School in Richmond Hill.

The sessions will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. each evening, and will involve snowmobile safety rules and safe practices when driving a snowmobile as well as driving instruction.

These courses are open to anyone over the age of 12, who is interested in learning how to properly handle a machine with safety and consideration for the rules of the road. For further information or to register, please call 884-3865 or 773-4110.

LIBRARY

Richmond Hill Public Library will be the scene of balancing and tumbling routines this Saturday, January 20, as the Winstonettes Gymnastics Association gives a demonstration of gymnastics. The performance begins at 2 p.m., and everyone is welcome.

NATURALISTS The guest speaker at the meeting of the Richmond Hill Naturalists this month will be Gerry McKeating, who will speak about the endangered species of birds and animals.

The meeting will be held Friday, January 19, beginning promptly at 8 p.m. in the Blue Flame Room at the Consumers' Gas Building.

Mr. McKeating is an endangered species biologist of the Wildlife Branch of the Ministry of Natural Resources.

If 'you would like to attend and need a ride, please call 884-9559. HORTICULTURAL

SOCIETY The Richmond Hill Horticultural

Society was formed so that garden enthusiasts would be able to get together to share ideas and exchange information with other garden lovers.

There is still room in this organization for others to join, and more members are always welcome.

This group meets the first Tuesday of every month at 8 p.m. at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church.

The membership is a nominal $2 per year and coffee and refreshments are provided at the meetings. If you are interested in more information, please call 884-0843.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Heritage Richmond Hill, the area historical society, meets at Burr House in Richvale to share ideas about pioneer crafts and activities.

The Scone Teas have resumed each Tuesday from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., and for $1 you can enjoy tea or coffee and home-made scones served with a variety of james and jellies.

At the same time, you will be able to see displays at Burr House showing some of the pioneer skills being revived by the potters, spinners and weavers. Pioneer craft classes will take on a new slant this year.

A different course will be taught each month, starting with January's classes in needlework, samplers and knitting.

Burr House is located at 528 Carrville Road.

> SQUARE DANCING

The Canadian Olde Tyme Square Dance Callers Association will hold a public square dance at the But-tonville Women's Institute Hall (one-half mile north of Highway 7 on Woodbine) on Saturday, January 20, at 8:30 p.m.

The admission price of $2 per person will give you an evening of fun and enjoyment with live music and refreshments and all the square dancing you could desire.

For further information about this association, please call 249-0147, 822-6459 or 488-4201.

> SNOWMOBILE DANCE

The trails committee of Club 99, the Oak Ridges based snowmobile association, is sponsoring a dance to raise funds for a groomer for their trails.

The dance will be at the Richvale Community Centre on Saturday, January 27. Tickets are $10 per couple and are available by calling Brian Raven at 773-5321.

SENIORS

The members of the Wheel house Club were treated to dinner and an evening of entertainment by the Oak Ridges Lions at their annual Senior Citizens Night.

After dinner, the seniors were entertained with music by Lions Eric Findeisen on the accordion and Ed Poirier on guitar. They were who meets the above joined by senior George Margerum on harmonica, and everyone enjoyed an old-fashioned sing along and square > dancing. The impromptu orchestra played some of the old-time favorites for dancing and everyone had a great time.

> The challenge was issued for the annual dart tournament between the seniors and Lions and the date is tentatively set for February 14.

The Lions say that this year they are determined to win, but the seniors have news for them.
