Hill minor midgets make finals but lose

The Richmond Hill Minor Midget Bs participated in the Norwood Midget A Tournament last week and got all the way to the championship finals before losing 10-3 to Little Britain.

Richmond Hill was impressive in its first two games downing Warkworth 8-2 before disposing of Norwood 5-0 to get into the championship finals. That final saw both teams tied at 1-1 in the first period with Little Britain scoring first and then Richmond Hill's Andy Shaw tying it from MacLean.

Little Britain went ahead in the second but Richmond Hill came right back to tie it with Rick Scragg scoring from Darrell Bynoe. Two more goals by Little Britain was matched by only one for the Hill from the stick of Doug Walton from Jim Barton and Doug MacLean. Little Britain took over in the third period and put home six goals to win going away.

Despite the loss it was a good effort by the Richmond Hill boys against a team which has been All Ontario champs for the last four years.

Richmond Hill opened against Warkworth and came out flying in the first period scoring three goals. It was Andy Shaw from Lockerbie and Walton; Bynoe unassisted; and Barton unassisted.

Warkworth fought back with a goal in the second and one in the third but that was it with The Hill winning 3-2.

The semi-final game with Norwood saw Hill come out playing Delplagnano scoring very strongly as a team. Walton opened the scoring in the first period. In the second it was for Richmond Hill.

Spires from Scragg and Pipher; and Walton from Scragg and Lockerbie. Richmond Hill scored two more goals in the third period with LeRoux clicking from Pipher; and Delplagnano scoring very strongly as a team. Berenthin came up with a very strong game in the nets for Richmond Hill.
