

Legion midgets make finals

Richmond Hill Midgets eliminated the Orillia Kinsmen in three straight, and await the outcome of the Thornhill-Barrie semi-final in the O.M.H.A. playoffs.

Coach Rainer Weidenfelder was pleased with the play of the hockey team over the series, especially the third game in which the Legion boys took the initiative from the first face-off and never gave the Kinsmen a chance to get going.

This was in contrast to the opening game, which saw Richmond Hill start slow, but save the game with a terrific third period comeback.

Richmond Hill 2, Orillia 0. Richmond Hill were the victors for the second game which was close checking and hard-hitting. The teams went scoreless for the first two periods but Richmond Hill's forechecking paid off in the first minute of the third as Doug Eldridge picked off a Kinsmen miscue and got the puck to Gary Boyle for a 1-0 lead.

Two minutes later, on the same type of play, Ross Cramer picked up a loose puck behind the Orillia net and put it away unblemished. The Legion boys controlled the play for the rest of the game, and skated away with a 2-0 win, and a well-deserved shutout for Doug Macklin.

Richmond Hill was short two players for this one, with Randy Depero laid up for the one game and Mark Austin out indefinitely with ankle trouble.

Richmond Hill 7, Orillia 2. Much to their coach's joy, the Legion boys came out flying for this one. The highlights of the first period were the penalty-killing of the Hill crew as they ran into three minors in a row without giving a goal, and a big breakthrough save by Jim Roberts to hold the game scoreless at the end of one.

The first period ended with Richmond Hill leading 3-1. There was no more scoring until Dungey tallied in the third period to put the game out of reach.

This game was a hard-fought contest with Thornhill fighting back to within one goal in the third before D'Angelis scored on an empty net in the last minute.
