

KEN LOSELL

Project HOSTEL Folk night

York Region performer, Ken Losell, offers the opportunity to hear selections from his new album, "Any Old Time" before it hits the market. Ken and his band Roots, will be joining Danny Baxter and his bluegrass band Hot Springs to do a benefit folk night in Aurora next Friday February 23.

Tickets are available in Richmond Hill at the Mental Health Clinic at York Central Hospital.

The benefit night will raise funds for Project HOSTEL (Housing Opportunities for Short Term and Emergency Lodging) an organization being promoted throughout the region to provide emergency housing service for women and children who are temporarily homeless.

June Callwood, hostess of CBC-TV's program "In Touch" will be the guest speaker at the folk night, speaking about her experiences with women's problems.

The event will be held at Factory Theatre on Henderson Drive.

Hill man displays painting

A Richmond Hill man, Ed Proir, 3 Kitisilano Crescent, has been selected by the Ontario College of Art to exhibit his painting "Rebound" in the Royal Bank's Artventure exhibition in Toronto.

Artventure is a series of professionally organized exhibitions developed by the Royal Bank of Canada to recognize and encourage Ontario's most promising student artists.

The exhibition opened in January in the upper banking hall of the Royal Bank Plaza in Toronto, and Mr. Proir's painting will be displayed along with many others during weekdays from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Come on in and get a taste of our newest Swiss Chalet.

And what you'll be tasting is the most delicious charcoal broiled chicken ever. That's because chicken is the only thing we make at Swiss Chalet, and there's only one way we make it. Broiled over real charcoal so the crispy skin seals in the real chicken flavour. And we'll serve it to you with golden brown french fries that are made from fresh potatoes.

Our sauce is unique. It's zesty. You've never tasted anything like it before. We serve it on the side instead of on the chicken. Our rolls are warm and crusty, and yes, it's perfectly alright to
