Pundits are saying that fewer of us will be taking our dollars out of the country for vacations this year. That, of course, means more will be making discovery tours of Canada.

Sensing our needs, VIA Rail has devised train and coach tours across the country that take the hassle out of highway driving and the search for motel accommodation.

Travellers can go east or west, be escorted by a guide, or move independently with everything pre-arranged.

A typical escorted tour goes to Moncton, Charlottetown, Halifax, Saint John and Fredericton. Called the Atlantic Explorer, the 13 day trip with long stopovers costs $800 from Toronto.

An independent western tour, crossing from Toronto to Vancouver, with days in Saskatoon, Edmonton, the Rockies, Vancouver, Calgary and Regina, offers 15 days for $675.

Information and brochures on all trips can be obtained from your travel agent or VIA Rail sales office.

Ski buffs can enjoy a Banff Ski Spree for $394. The price includes return economy air fare from Toronto to Calgary via CP Air, bus transportation between Calgary and your Banff motel, seven nights in a medium class motel (double occupancy) and five days of skiing with bus transportation between the motel and ski areas as well as unlimited use of lifts and tows at Sunshine, Norquay and Lake Louise.

Prices are based on high season rates and are subject to change.

If you plan to attend the 1980 Summer Olympic Games in Moscow, Simpsons Travel Service holds the only remaining space on tours including tickets for Canadians.

To qualify you must be either Canadian born or hold a Canadian passport.

For further information contact the travel agency.

Sunlight Holidays is offering a variety of one, two, three and four-week packages to Israel this summer in conjunction with weekly Quebecair flights from Toronto.

A series of two-centre holidays is available with a week in Jerusalem and a week on the beach in either Tel Aviv or Herzliya.

Four motel packages are available with prices from $879 for a week in the Holy Land and a week at the Forum Palace, and from $1,019 for a week at the King David in Jerusalem and a week at the Dan Hotel, in Tel Aviv.

Holidays are also available at 31 youth hostels from $699 for one week and from $809 for four weeks. The first Sunlight departure is April 22.

For further details and brochures contact Sunlight Holidays.

The Edinburgh Tattoo is being held from Aug. 15 to Sept. 8. For information on performance times and for booking seats, write to The Tattoo Office, 1 Cockburn Street, Edinburgh, Scotland, EH1 1QB.
