

IT'S HAPPENING IN THE HILL

Richmond Hill Central

Historical Society will show and tell Monday

All members of the Richmond Hill Historical Society, Heritage Richmond Hill, are invited to 'Show and Tell' Monday, March 19, at the society's regular meeting to be held at the Richmond Hill Library on Wright Street at 8 p.m.

If you have an interesting item you would like to share with the other members, you are asked to bring it along with you.

There will also be a mini-auction to raise funds for the society.

Items are needed for the auction, and you are to bring your contribution with a price already marked on it.

Twenty-five per cent of the sale price will be used for the society.

Members are reminded of the working meeting at the Guild Hall on March 24.

Wear your work clothes as renovations to the hall will begin with enthusiasm.

They require more drivers, who are willing to give about one hour a day beginning at 11 a.m.

If you can help, please call 884-8562.

KINSMEN CONFERENCE

Richmond Hill Kinsmen played host to fellow Kinsmen from eight areas at a zone conference this past weekend.

Mayor David Schiller was on hand to welcome the visiting Kinsmen to Richmond Hill Saturday morning.

Most of the weekend's activities were held at the Richvale Community Centre including a public speaking contest with Kinsman Bob Hough of West Hill taking top spot.

Elections were held for a new deputy Governor and again a West Hill Kinsman, Gerry Connolly, took the honors.

The highlight of the weekend was a dinner dance held Saturday night at the community centre and attended by all Kinsmen and Kinettes.

CANCER SOCIETY

The Canadian Cancer Society is getting ready for the annual canvassing of Richmond Hill, which will begin April 7.

People willing to canvass their neighborhoods are urgently needed and if you would like to become involved in this worthwhile cause, please call 884-3556.

LIBRARY PROGRAMS

Winter Break at the Richmond Hill Library is packed with activities, and there is something for everyone.

Tuesday, March 20, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. the Word Weavers will be on hand to weave their tales for children aged 6 to 10.

Wednesday, March 21 from 2 to 3 p.m. The Lampon Puppet Theatre will feature 'Animals and Make-Believe'.

Admission is free, but tickets should be reserved in advance at the library.

All ages will find this program fun and interesting.

Friday, March 23 from 2 to 3 p.m. children aged 4 to 9 will enjoy a fingerpainting session.

This program is limited to the first 30 children to register in advance.

Saturday, March 24 from 2 to 3:30 p.m. will be a film day for children of all ages.

Featured that day will be 'The Ugly Little Boy', 'Visit From Space', 'Cow on the Moon', 'Hardware Wars' and 'What on Earth'.

There is no admission charge for the film program.

AWARD WINNERS

The Richmond Hill Academy of Music is proud to announce the following successful students in the Royal Conservatory of Music examinations held in Toronto.

Kinsmen from nine communities gathered in Richmond Hill last weekend for the Zone E Conference. Maurice Smith, Richmond Hill Kinsmen, left, is the Deputy Governor and he is presenting a service shield to Brian Dalton, president of the North York Kinsmen for their award winning Adventure Playground for crippled children. The North York Kinsmen donated $32,000 and the City of North York matched that amount.

Richmond Hill South

Burr House features scone teas, variety of crafts

The York Potters Guild and the Burr House Spinners and Weavers welcome everyone to visit Burr House on Carrville Road, Richvale, Tuesday afternoons at 1:30 p.m. to enjoy the Scone Teas.

A sampling of homemade scones will be served with a variety of jams and jellies.

Tea and coffee will also be served, and all this will cost $1 per person.

After enjoying the delicious tea and goodies, visitors are invited to watch the weaving, spinning and potting demonstrations.

WINTER BREAK

The Richvale Library has a variety of programs planned for winter break week.

Wednesday, March 21 at 10 a.m. all adults and children visiting the library will be able to enjoy a performance by the Lampon Puppet Theatre.

There is no charge to see this performance, and everyone is welcome, but it is advisable to reserve tickets in advance at the library.

The performance that day will be called 'Clowning Around' and it is well worth seeing.

Friday, March 23, from 10:30 a.m. to noon, children aged 6 to 10 years are invited to the library to hear 'The Word Weavers' as they spin yarns, tell stories and put some of their narrations into song.

Tickets are free for all youngsters. For further information, please call 889-2847.

HOCKEY DANCE

The Richmond Hill Legion Branch 375 will hold a legion midget hockey dance to celebrate St. Patrick's Day on Saturday, March 17 at 8 p.m. at the Richvale Community Centre.

Tickets are $10 per couple and are available by calling 884-2017 or 884-7624.

PUBLIC SPEAKING

In last week's Liberal we ran a picture on this page of two young people from Roselawn Public School, who had been finalists in the Area 111 contest.

Another youngster from Richvale was also a finalist.

Emma Lancaster, 10, from Charles Howitt Public School was also chosen to enter the finals.

Congratulations to all finalists in area fairs.

Richmond Hill North

Plenty to do winter break week at Charles Connor Library

The Charles Connor Library has a week full of programs for all ages to help fill in some of the spare hours of winter break.

Tuesday, March 20, at 7 p.m. an Elvis Presley feature 'Roust-a-bout' will be the attraction for teens.

There is no admission to this program and all are welcome.

Following the theme 'International Year of the Child', the feature on Wednesday, March 21, at 2 p.m. will be for pre-schoolers.

It will be called 'Children Around the World' and there will be a story and a film program.

All pre-schoolers are welcome to attend.

'The Little Blue Hedgehog' will make his appearance at the library on Thursday, March 22, at 2 p.m.

This is a puppet performance by the Lampon Puppet Theatre and all children in the community are welcome.

Friday's program will be at 2 p.m. and will feature 'The Word Weavers, who are two young people

Debbie Bojman and Nicholas Power, who can take words and make them come to life in story, song and rhyme.
