

This girl's no lady on the ice

You can always tell Dairy Queen House when seven-year-old Laura Crowe is on the ice with the Richmond Hill League Mites hockey team. There are boys toppling like 10-pins. "She's a terror," says Laura's father, Bob Crowe. "I sometimes have to turn my head," Laura made her debut against the boys this season and things haven't been quite the same since. "It's all right," she'll say when asked how she likes competing against the boys. Then she'll add: "The boys don't hit me too much. But I like to hit them."

Laura won't admit to it but it's not unlikely she applies psychological warfare against the other boys.

Legion Midgets out

The Richmond Hill Legion Midgets found their way into the Richmond Hill International Midget Tournament next week but it wasn't their idea.

They lost the third and deciding game of their best-of-five All Ontario playoff series with Owen Sound Monday night 5-0 in Owen Sound.

That put them into the tournament but Legion coach Rainer Weidenfelder was more concerned about that final game in Owen Sound.

"We were all over them in the early part of the first period," he said, "but we couldn't score. Then they walked into a penalty."

"That backfired when one of our defencemen fell down and an Owen Sound player went right in to score. We died after that."

Goalie Don Macklin was a standout for the Legion team.

It was do or die for the Richmond Hill Legion Midgets when they took their home ice Sunday against Owen Sound.

They doo it. The Legion boys outthrust the visitors and came up with a big 7-5 win.

Accepting a number of congratulations was Tom Weidenfelder who led the boys behind the bench in the forced absence of regular coach and brother Rainer Weidenfelder.

Typically, the Legion boys spotted Owen Sound the first goal early in the game. They actually allowed two but the other goal was called back.

Then it was Doug Jones tying the game late in the period from Dave Allen and Ross Cramer. Ken Main put the Legion ahead with a minute left in the period from Maurice Delfabro and Danny Henderson.

Twin Hills Midgets knock out Sounders

The Richmond Hill Twin Hills Midget B Rams became the only major Richmond Hill team to advance to the OMHA semi-finals when they eliminated Owen Sound 3-0 in their best of five series.

The Rams opened the scoring in the third game with three goals in the first period. Glen Dunford and Joe Thurston teamed up for two goals while Mike Barnett added the third on a setup from Paul Lawlor and Eric Rockarts.

Craig McAteer scored in the second period after taking a pass from captain Steve Shannon while playing short-handed to make the count 4-0 for the Twin Hills boys.

Ed McNally and Neil McGreggor combined for three more goals in the second while Owen Sound with two making it 7-2 in the Rams' favor.

The final period saw the Richmond Hill team doze off while Owen Sound slipped in three goals.

Things looked closer at 7-5 when Ed McNally got the insurance goal from McAteer and McGreggor making the final score 8-5.

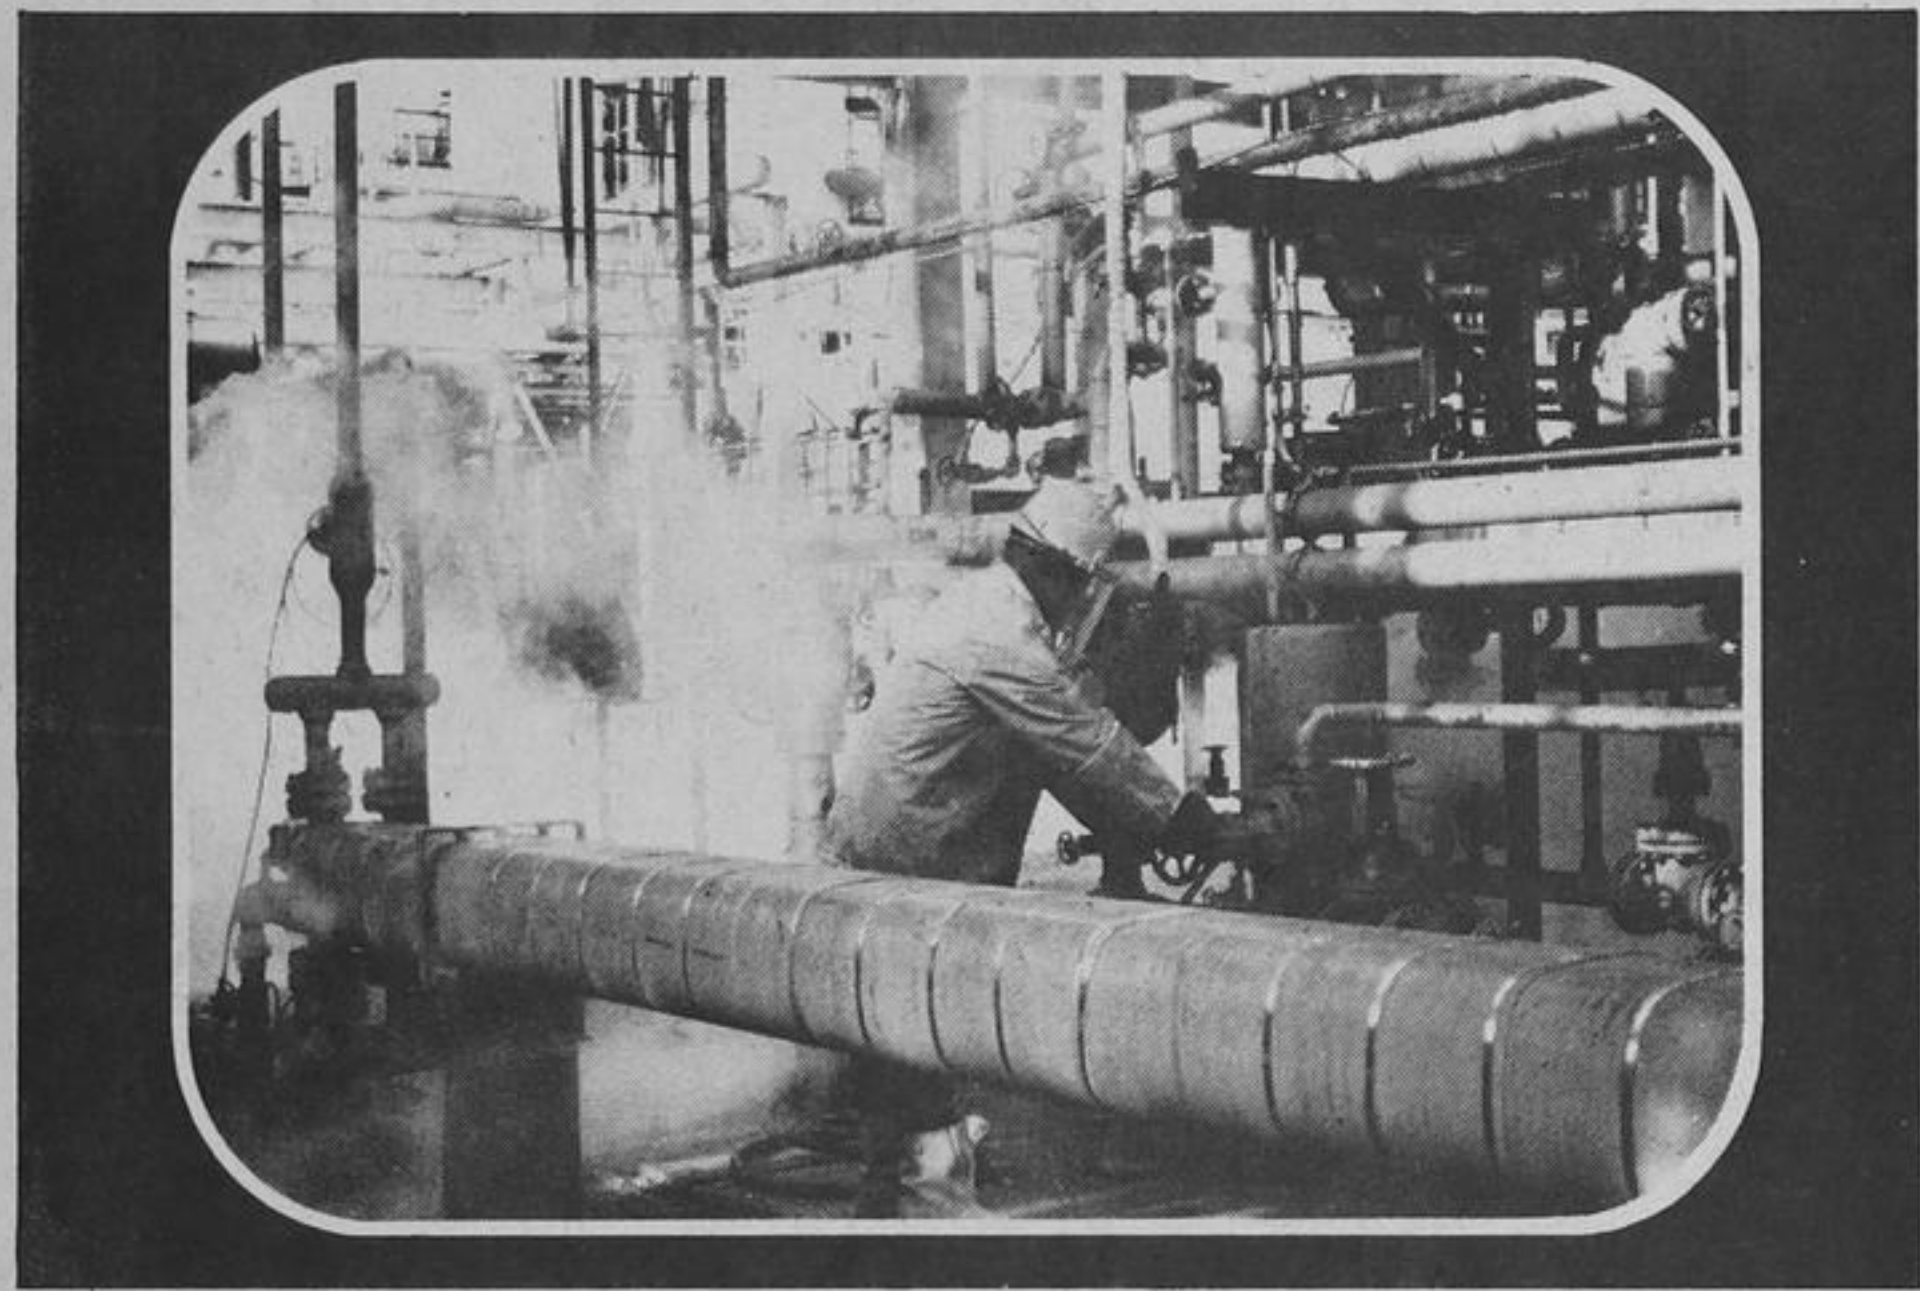

Shifting to the Midget B Rams Brandon fund raising dance, manager

Mike Cassar and Coach Wyman Cove would like to thank the parents for their enthusiastic support in making it a fun night for all who attended.

However it is unfortunate that the team did not get the support it expected from the executives and, as a result, the financial target of the dance was not reached.

The Rams' next home game will be the second in their semi-final series with Bay Ridges and will be held in the new Richmond Hill Area Saturday at 8:50 p.m.

Help push them to the finals.
