Children's introduction to orchestra on Saturday

Children will have the opportunity this Saturday, March 31 to hear the music of Saint-Saens and to learn about the symphony, when York Symphony Orchestra salutes the International Year of the Child.

"A Parade of Melodies" is the theme of this children's concert to be staged at 3 p.m. in Ketchum Auditorium at St. Andrew's College in Aurora.

Under the direction of Clifford Poole, the orchestra will play, Concert Piece for French Horn, Carnival of Animals, Minor, Danse Macabre and Meet the Brass.

The concert has been organized with the assistance of the University Women's Club of York County who are also responsible for ticket sales.

Tickets are $1 each and may be obtained by calling 727-1565, 727-1236, 895-3445 or 895-8387.

Curtain time Thursday, Friday and Saturday night is 8:30 p.m. and there is a Saturday matinee at 2 p.m. Tickets are $3.50. Senior citizens and students can get in for $2 on Thursday night or for the Saturday matinee.

Spring and marigolds

Spring is now officially here, and so are the marigolds.

The latest Richmond Hill Curtain Club production, "The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds", the moving story of a widow and her two very different daughters is directed by Brian Moore who tackles the story with great sensitivity.

The large backstage crew for this production has much to do with the creation of a very mixed-up household on stage.

Call Madge Nicholson at 884-3703 for tickets and if you are in the market for an Easter bunny, let Brian Moore know because "Marigold" the rabbit star of the production is looking bigger every week.

York symphony plays over wine and cheese

The York Symphony Orchestra will present a wine and cheese "Pops" concert this Saturday, March 31 at 8 p.m. at Great Hall, St. Andrew's College in Aurora.

The musicians of "the running shoe orchestra" as they refer to themselves because they have no home base, look forward to the informal atmosphere of the evening and the opportunity to play both classical and show music.

Tickets at $6 are available from Cosmo Music in Richmond Hill, 884-5272, Music Shoppe in Thornhill, 889-2042 and Crafts of the Pioneer in Aurora, 727-4907.

Pancake fest in Maple

Get your sweet tooth polished up because the Maple Lions Club will hold its eighth annual Maple Sugar and Pancake Festival at the Maple Arena on April 7.

A whole day (9 a.m. - 4 p.m.) of eating and lickin' fresh cooked pancakes, farmer's sausage and maple syrup is planned, with proceeds going to assist community projects and the Town of Vaughan.

The Toy Town Theatre Group will entertain the kids with shows at 10 a.m., 11 a.m. and 12 noon. At 1 p.m., you can listen to the sounds of the York Lions Steel Band, a group that has played in a number of countries.

If you're still hungry, the Lions Club will try and break a Guinness Book of World Records by preparing a pancake larger than 5'7" in diameter.

Other attractions include: a bake sale, games, a fish pond, pony rides, an arts and crafts display and sale and a bus trip from the arena to the local Lions Sugar Bush — a guided tour explaining the process of maple syrup from the collection of saps right to the finished product.

Hockey fans aged 7 and up are welcome to come and test the speed of their shot at the Radar Timed Hockey Puck Shoot-out. The event is controlled and timed by York Regional Police and they will award trophies to the winners.
