

Mini-Skools, Limited, opened its newest child care centre in Richmond Hill Monday, offering child care to youngsters between the ages of six weeks and six years. Here, a Mini-Skool instructor teaches a pre-schooler reading skills, one of the most important processes of early childhood development. The new Richmond Hill Mini-Skool is located at 54 Avenue Road.

Mini-Skool opens

The newest in a group of Mini-Skools, Ltd., opened in Richmond Hill Monday.

A Canadian Child Care company, the centre is located at 54 Avenue Road, and is the 12th of its kind in Ontario.

The Richmond Hill Mini-Skool, under the direction of Najwha Khbeis, is designed to accommodate approximately 198 pre-schoolers between the ages of six weeks and six years.

While a number of positions have been filled, there are still openings.

Parents are invited to visit the $500,000 facility any Wednesday evening between 7 and 9 p.m. and any Sunday afternoon between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. throughout the month of April.

Mini-Skools provides complete professional child care for more than 3,000 Canadian children in their centres in Ontario and Manitoba.

Mini-Skools programs focus on the processes of early childhood development, including reading and mathematics-related skills, recognition of shapes and colors, group interaction and the development of the individual child's positive self-image.

Travel agency opens in plaza

Kuehne & Nagel Travel announced the opening of its new office in Richmond Hill located in the Richmond Heights Shopping Centre, 10520 Yonge Street North. Office manager Liz Carroll, a Certified Travel Consultant, has had eight years experience in booking both holiday and business trips. Since the company acts as agent for all major tour operators, it offers a wide variety of vacation destinations, from going to Europe to lying on a beach in Hawaii. For further information about the new agency, call 884-2122.

Spring is sprung at Markham Place

The outside is moving in at Markham Place Mall from Thursday, April 5, to Saturday, April 14.
