Results and winners at the 130th Spring Fair

The Richmond Hill Spring Fair was better off this year because the weather was in its favor.

Mugs were printed with the Spring Fair logo in the hopes of recouping some of the losses from last year's rained out fair.

The mugs did not sell well and there is still a good supply. If you would like a Spring Fair mug, please see one of the Fair Board members.

The Richmond Hill Agricultural Society held many contests and competitions during the fair. Following is a list of winners.

PIZZA EATING CONTEST: first — Bob Pritchard (ate the most); second — Jody Gray (the sloppiest); and third — Susan Boedefeld (the neatest).

SPAGHETTI EATING CONTEST: first — Will Cox (ate the most); second — Bob Hoffman (the neatest); and third — Anne-Marie Macky (the sloppiest).

FIDDLE CONTEST: under 18 — first — Michelle Lubinicky; second — Suzanne Tellier; third — Randy Morrison.
