Hockey season ends with trophy presentations

Oak Ridges and District Minor Hockey Association held a trophy presentation evening last Monday, and with it, the hockey season came to an end...for this year anyway.

Alf Stong, MLA for York-Centre, was on hand to present plaques from the Ontario Government to the players of the Midget team for winning the All-Ontario Championship.

The trophies awarded for individual efforts went to the following people.

On the Pre-Novice

team, the most improved player (MIP) was Darryl Bingham, who was awarded the Al Ryman trophy. The Jack Pincombe trophy for Novice (MIP) was awarded to Trevor Bingham and the Bob Tomlinson trophy also for Novice (MIP) was won by Ken Wilson.

Terry's Plumbing and Heating trophy for the most improved Atom House League player went to Ken Heintzman.

The G. Chapman Construction trophy also for the most improved Atom House League player went to Jim Clark.

From the Atom OMHA team, the most valuable player was Mark Mitchell, who was awarded the trophy sponsored by the Young Look Salon.

Darrin Clayton took home the trophy for the most improved player on the PeeWee House League team. The trophy was courtesy of Al Robinson.

From PeeWee OMHA Frank Rossi captured the most valuable player trophy, courtesy of Tom Koteff.

The ORDMHA award for the most improved player on the Bantam House League team was awarded to Doug Laursen.

Jeff Glover captured the trophy for most valuable player on the Bantam House League team. Ray Harris Plumbing donated that trophy.

Another trophy for Bantam House League (MIP) went to Randy Winter, and is courtesy of the Stop & Shop.

From the Midget-Juvenile House League, the most improved player is Rick Kalkanis, and he took home the Ross DeGeer trophy.

In Midget OMHA the most valuable player, Rick Greenslade, captured the A.E. LePage trophy.

Brian Davy took top honors in the Juvenile OMHA division as he captured The Farm Fresh Market trophy for the most valuable player.

MORE TROPHIES

The most improved goalie in the house league was John Bertelson, who was awarded the trophy donated by Joe's Auto Wreckers.

The most gentlemanly player in the house league was Ross McDonald, who took home the trophy courtesy of Harry Sanders.

The John Gibson Bingham Memorial Award for the player most exemplifying sportsmanship and ability went to Steve Nolan of Midget OMHA.

Chuck LaBelle captured the Don McQuarrie Coach of the Year Award.

The Ken Blyth Award for Good Fellowship was awarded to Mrs. Rickie Sanders.

The Rick Lusk

Memorial Award for the most goals scored by a Juvenile House League player went to John Vanderploeg.

Don Cook presented the president's plaque to Hugh Mitchell.

Shriners entertain at Hillcrest Mall with music, clowns and rickshaws

The Shriners came to Richmond Hill Friday evening to promote their circus, which will be held at Exhibition Park May 24, 25 and 26.

Hillcrest Mall was a beehive of activity Friday evening as clowns from the Rameses chapter of the Shriners were on hand to entertain the children with animals made of balloons and by just being clowns.

The Shriners from El Shamaly in Richmond Hill arrived with their rickshaws to give the children a ride around the Mall.

This was a big hit with the children and fun for all.

The Shriners pipe band entertained the audience with several renditions of all-time favorite tunes.

The color guard and drill team performed with some assistance from members of the Toronto Signal Corps drum line.

Used to much more area in which to perform, the drill team and color guard managed quite well to give a good example of what they do best.

It was a fun evening for the shoppers at Hillcrest and the Shriners seemed to enjoy the fun as much as everyone else.

HERITAGE RICHMOND HILL

The Richmond Hill Historical Society, Heritage Richmond Hill will be at Hillcrest Mall from May 24 to 26 with displays and demonstrations of interest to all mem-
