Hill soccer parents still without grant

Parents of the Richmond Hill players who participated in the Miami Orange Bowl tournament during the Christmas holidays and who have not yet received a partial rebate of expenses should not give up hope yet.

RHSC president Jane Stel, past-president Ed Kenny, and local MPP Alf Stong, will be meeting with the Ontario Deputy Minister of Culture and Recreation to discuss the matter.

Officials of the Richmond Hill Soccer Club make no secret of their feeling that one of their teams fell victim to a sudden change in policy and are fighting hard to right what they consider to be something of an injustice.

Whitmarsh girls win

Bob Whitmarsh's Intermediate girls' team bounced back from last week's loss to defeat Linda Berse's girls 18-15 in Richmond Hill Minor Softball exhibition play. Karen Anderson's girls impressed Bill McVeich's team via a 20-13 win.

Dave Oakley's Peewee boys gave Sarah Williamson's team a 29-12 shipping.

Good spirits prevail at tennis opening...

By ERIC HANDBURY

Saturday afternoon was one of those days that the Richmond Hill Tennis Club has come to expect for the occasion of opening day.

The weather was perfect and well over 100 members crowded the clubhouse and lawns.

Bill Armstrong organized a great round-robin event which included almost everyone that attended. Involved were Mayor David Schiller and his erstwhile opponent Fred Simpson from The Liberal who was assisted in returning the ball by Bob McKee strategically positioned on the backline.

The event was won by Miguel Petrucci partnered by Lina Fleming which gives more credit to their self control than their playing ability.

The food, organized by Donna Stevenson, was excellent and the cooled wine flowed freely. It was a wonderful day that, as long as I live, I shall never remember.

The Majors are doing extremely well this year tying with last year's winners, Credit Valley and defeating Don Mills 5-1.

The team has one of the strongest line-ups that it has had for many years and stands every chance of winning the I.C.T.A. division this year.

The lists for the house league have been taken down and the captains are now busy arranging the teams for the first matches which should begin next week.

The names entered was an all-time record supports the fact that six teams participating in the event will be well received by all members.

The barbecue round-robin tournament will be held this coming Saturday. This second organized event of the season is always well-attended and popular.

It starts at 1 p.m. and to make sure that your name is entered members should make every attempt to be there on time.

Places are still open for tennis lessons and anyone wanting to get their name in for mid-June beginning should put their names in during the social night on Wednesday.

It was a great start for coach Gerry Van Essen's girls who had earlier won two of their three pre-season exhibition games.

half which saw Suzy Kelly opening the scoring. Ross, as mentioned above, scored three goals with singles to Elizabeth Dandy, Virginia Douse and Helen Thomlinson.

The Thornhill girls did not deserve to lose by such a lopsided score. They were beginning to find their stride in the second half and managed to rob the Kobbler's of a shutout.

Monica Stohr was a constant threat. It looks as if coach Van Essen has a potential champion team.

Richmond Hill showed an eagerness in the first

Other results: Minor Atoms: A. Beattie 2, Thornhill 0. The minor atom boys had also shown promise in pre-season play defeating Pickering 8-0. Goalie Geoffrey Harrison registered another shutout in the first game of the season against Thornhill. Jason MacDonald and Pino Decina were the scorers in a game which coach Scotty MacDonald characterized as hard-fought and won only because of the fine effort of all his players.

Experienced coaches know that players eagerly scan the local press each week to read reports of games and check league standings.

A minimal report gives the final score and the names of the scorers. The final result of any game, however, is often determined by a player or players who will never score.

They will co-operate with conveners in seeing to it that reports are passed on to the club's director of publicity in time for publication.

The wise coach will make sure that such players get credit even in a brief newspaper report.

Conveners should deliver game reports to Pat Kelly no later than noon of the Sunday prior to publication.

Written reports will cut down on telephone traffic and may be dropped in the mailbox at 248 Tampico Road, Richmond Hill. Telephone is 884-3038.
