Unionville celebrates

Susan Timbers of Drakefield Road, Markham, has a ladybug crawling across her face courtesy of the tattoo for a booth at the Unionville Festival.

John Dybo is properly rewarded for riding the winning bed in the bed-race at the Unionville Festival last Saturday. This year's event was expanded to two days, as always, the sun was shining. The Festival started ten years ago as a response to the threat at that time to widen Kennedy Road right through the heart of the village.

Janice Lewis, 16, met a gentleman admirer at the Festival. This llama at Ken's Petting Zoo took a shine to Janice the moment he saw her.

Your community needs you
... be a 'Y' DAY CAMP ASSISTANT. This summer, beginning July 2, the York Region Family 'Y' will be running a day camp for children from 5 to 12 years of age. The full day program of games, crafts, sports, hiking, nature lore, outdoor cooking etc., will take place at Whitchurch Conservation area. Whitchurch is a beautiful site with a pond and wooded hills for hiking and exploring. This is an excellent summer volunteer opportunity for the person who is 14 years of age or older, who enjoys children and the outdoors. If you are interested in getting involved with this program, contact the Richmond Hill Volunteer Bureau at 883-2235. ... be a CONVENER. Do you enjoy watching children's baseball games? Are you interested in making some new friends and meeting new people? Then the Richmond Hill Minor Ball - House League has a place for you! Even though you may not know a lot about softball, you can get involved. People are needed to co-ordinate three or four ball teams in one district. This means that you would talk with the coaches, make sure things are running smoothly and attend one ball game a week. It's a great way to get involved and enjoy your community. Phone the Richmond Hill Volunteer Bureau at 883-2235 if you are interested. ... be a BLUE HILLS ACADEMY DAY CAMP ASSISTANT. Blue Hills Academy provides treatment services for emotionally disturbed children and adolescents. This summer Blue Hills will be running a day camp program for emotionally disturbed children and your assistance is required. If you are 18 years of age and have either had previous experience in a playground setting, experience with emotionally disturbed children, or have a skill in a particular area (music, crafts, sports etc., then this may be the opportunity for you!
