

York Regional Police News Briefs

Terry Millman of Willowdale is finding himself confined to dry land these days, because someone took his boat, which was at 10 Mill Street, Vaughan. The value of the missing property is $3,700.

MOTOR, TOO

In another incident, James Fehr of Markham had his boat docked at Albert's Marina in River Drive Park and someone took his outboard motor valued at $3,000.

WEIGH IN

Two Thornhill men and two juveniles have been charged with Break, Enter and Theft after 16 weight scales were taken from Thornhill Secondary School.

Police found one scale in a vehicle, when it was stopped, and the occupants of the vehicle took them to a field where the other 15 scales had been stored.

WATER SHORTAGE

The D'Amore Construction Limited of Windsor has a construction site at Highway 7 and the 7th Concession.

Nine 500 gallon water storage tanks were taken from the site and they are valued at $1,575.

SKATING PARTY
The Ontario Skateboard Park on Highway 7 in Markham is missing skateboard equipment after seven youths were seen entering the premises on June 1.

The Markham Skateboard Park on Wellington Street also had two skateboards and some soft drinks taken in a theft the day before.

A Toronto man has been charged with the latter theft.

STRIKERS STRIKE
Angry strikers at Stran Steel in Richmond Hill took out their frustrations on a Bell Telephone vehicle last week.

The truck was damaged with rocks thrown by the strikers and also suffered a knife slash to one side.

The damage to the vehicle is estimated at $400.

FLEW THE COOP

The Garden Mart, Highway 7, Markham, was the victim of two separate thefts last week.

In one theft, a Briggs and Stratton 8-horsepower gasoline engine valued at $500 was taken.

In the second incident, four exotic birds and one bird cage disappeared. The value of the birds is not known, at this time.

JUVENILE CHARGED

A juvenile has been arrested and charged in two separate housebreakings and theft.

The home of George Gies, Normark Drive, Thornhill and the residence of Elizabeth McWilliams, Hillside Avenue, Richmond Hill were broken into and a quantity of jewellery and camera equipment were taken.
