

IT'S HAPPENING IN THE HILL

Richmond Hill Central

Disabled drivers to take part in rodeo Saturday

The first annual car rodeo for disabled drivers will be held Saturday, June 16 at Don Head Secondary School.

The rodeo will begin at 9:30 a.m. Sponsored by the Ontario Crippled Children's Centre and in co-operation with the Ontario Trucker's Association and the local Lions clubs, drivers from across Metro Toronto and surrounding areas are expected to participate.

The public is invited to attend, and there will not be a charge for admission.

All aspects of driving skills will be challenged, and courses will be marked and completion times recorded.

MAGIC BOTTLE

The New Perspective Book Store in the Richmond Heights Centre will celebrate its first anniversary the weekend of June 22 and 23.

Friday, June 22 beginning at 7:30 p.m. at Richmond Hill Baptist Church, 50 Wright Street, the speaker will be Lee Bryant, a celebrated author and counsellor.

The music will be by the 'Triumphant Sound' and following this, there will be refreshments and Lee Bryant will autograph copies of her latest book 'The Magic Bottle'. Saturday, she will be present at the store from 1 to 4 p.m. to autograph additional copies of the book.

UNITED CHURCH

Richmond Hill United Church will hold a service for shut-ins and senior citizens tomorrow, June 14 at 11 a.m.

A luncheon will follow the service. For transportation or additional information, please call 884-1301 or 884-7495.

ANNUAL MEETING

York Central Hospital Association will hold its annual meeting tonight, June 13 at 8 p.m. in the lecture hall at the hospital.

At this time, the executive and auditors will be announced. Financial statements for the fiscal year will be available to the public, and some amendments to the York Central Hospital Administrative By-laws will be announced.

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE

The St. John Ambulance brigade will hold a training session at Don Head Secondary School tonight, June 13 from 8 to 10 p.m.

Anyone, who would like to join the brigade is welcome and the public is invited to watch the session.

For information, please call 884-4207.

LIBRARY

Richmond Hill Public Library, Wright St. will offer a Nature Craft Workshop for children five years and up on June 16 from 2 to 3 p.m.

Pre-registration is required and you may do so by calling the library at 884-9288 or in person at the library.

MUSIC RECITAL

The Richmond Hill Academy of Music held its third annual recital June 1 and the following students received awards.

Peter Reaume received the Primary School Award.

The Junior School award went to Martha Stong and the Intermediate School award went to Laurie Reich.

STRAWBERRY SOCIAL

St. Gabriel's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill will hold a Strawberry Social and craft show Saturday, June 23 from 1 to 5 p.m.

Admission is $1 per person and this will include refreshments. Included in the craft show will be a variety of interesting items.

Mina Guerra demonstrated the fine art of making lasagna Italian style, when she visited the Charles Connor Library in Oak Ridges Thursday. Everyone, who sampled the finished product agreed that it was indeed worth all the time and effort involved in making it. (Liberal Photo by Bruce Hogg).

Alpine Show Band entertains at Lions dance, Friday

The Oak Ridges Lions will hold a spring dance Friday, June 15, on the main floor of Bond Lake Arena.

Featured performers will be the Alpine Show Band.

Tickets are $5 per person and this will include a free beer mug.

You may purchase tickets from any member of the Lions club and at the door.

The dance begins at 8 p.m. and will continue until 1 a.m. Saturday, June 16 will be another busy day for the Lions, as they hold an open air flea market and auction sale.

Both activities begin at 9 a.m. and will conclude about 5 p.m. Beginning at 1 p.m. there will be a Lions milk garden (beer garden) and amusements for kids of all ages.

Additional information is available by calling 773-4285.

Also included in the day's fun will be a coloring contest for the young people, a dunking machine, where you can try your hand at dunking well-known personalities and much more.

MINOR BALL

The Oak Ridges Minor Ball Association has begun a new season after several years of no baseball in the community.

Players are needed for several teams from tee-ball for four to six year olds to Bantams, who are 14 to 17.

Girls, interested in playing ball are also needed to form teams. Coaches are needed as are umpires. If you want to be an umpire, there are professionals willing to teach you.

If you or your children are interested in belonging to the new Oak Ridges Minor Ball Association, please call 773-5916, 773-5253 or 773-4365.

Registration fees are $10 per player or $25 per family.

You may register or obtain any other information about softball at one of the above numbers.

HISTORY

The Oak Ridges Minor Ball Association is looking for pictures, newspaper clippings and other historical material of past ball teams.

The material is needed for an album, that is being started with the new association.

If you have any of the above and would be willing to spare a print of your favorite picture or a copy of a clipping, please call Jack Ward at 773-5916.

There are still some trophies from earlier days of baseball in Oak Ridges that have not been located.

If you have an old trophy or know where there is one, please call Jack Ward at the above number.

CAP'S CREW

Members of Cap's Crew, a ladies softball team, that was the best in the league, who would be interested in a reunion or in sharing some memories, are asked to get in touch with Jack Ward.

SCHOOLS

Any parents living in Oak Ridges or Lake

Wilcox, who have children who will be five years old by December 31 are asked to please register them for Kindergarten, if they have not already been registered.

Information about registering your child is available at either Oak Ridges Public School, 773-5572 or Lake Wilcox School, 773-5381.

If you are leaving the community during the summer to move to a new area, please call your child's school and let them know.

M.D. carnival and strawberry tea at the Villa Saturday

There will be a Muscular Dystrophy Carnival and Strawberry tea at the Villa Hospital, 9000 Bathurst Street on Saturday June 16 p.m. Included in the fun will be a white elephant sale and fun and games for all.

HILLCREST MALL Father's Day is the feature in the Mall all week and dad is the number one person.

A display of camping, fishing and a variety of outdoor activities will be featured and dad will be in his element.

There will be a draw and two lucky men will win a golf vacation in the Bahamas, and they will be allowed to take with them a 'caddy of their own choosing'.

Entries for the draw are available in all the stores and at the information counter in Centre Court.

Be sure to enter your dad in the contest and ladies, now is the time to brush up on how to be the perfect caddy, just in case your fellow should be one of the lucky winners.

Jazz is still a popular feature in the Market Court each Wednesday from 5:30 to 8 p.m. and this week's performers will be the Vintage Jazz Band.

BLOOD DONOR CLINIC

There will be a blood donor clinic at Hillcrest Mall in the auditorium on the second level on Monday, June 25.

Now is the time for you to give a pint of blood to help with the holiday need that increases with vacation time.

The clinic will be held from 2 to 8:30 p.m.
