Color guards and bands to launch Legion Week

The week of June 24 to 30 is Legion Week and the Richmond Hill Branch 375 is planning to start the festivities off with a parade Saturday, June 23. A color party competition will be highlight of the day's activities with guest parties attending from Scarborough, London, Toronto, Mount Dennis, Brockville and St. Mary's. The Lakeshore Imperial Knights from Northeast Pennsylvania will be on hand to entertain, as well. All this will take place at 2 p.m. at the Richmond Heights Plaza, where all the bands and marching units will form up. The parade will march north on Yonge Street to Elgin Mills and east on Elgin Mills to Ohio Road and to the Legion. The judging of the color parties will take place in front of Richmond Hill Dodge on Yonge Street. Three trophies and cash awards will be presented to the winning color parties. The Richmond Hill Legion hopes to make this an annual event. In the evening there will be a dance for all guests at the Legion on Ohio Road.

SUMMER PLAYGROUNDS

The Richmond Hill Parks and Recreation Department will be sponsoring summer school playground programs at several community schools during the summer months.

The programs are divided into junior (ages 4 to 7) and senior (ages 8 to 12). The following schools will have morning programs for the juniors from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and afternoon programs for the seniors from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.: Charles Howitt Public School, St. Joseph's Separate School, Walter Scott Public School, MacKillop Public School, Beverley Acres Public School, and Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox Public Schools. Ross Doan Public School will have full day programs for juniors from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. and also from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

The full day programs for the seniors will be at Roselawn Public School. The fees for the programs are $5 for half days, $10 for full days and $15 for a family. Registration and payment of fees may be taken care of on the first day of the program or in advance at the Parks and Recreation Department, 10266 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill.

FAMILY SERVICES

Richmond Hill and Thornhill area Family Services will hold a board meeting Thursday, June 21 at the Family Services offices beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The offices are located at 10225A Yonge Street.

MACKILLOP SCHOOL

MacKillop School Association is now underway after more than a year of work by parents and teachers to get it going.

The Association held its first official meeting recently and Tom Waterhouse has been chosen to act as public relations liaison for the association.

The work of the MacKillop Association will be to keep parents, teachers and students up to date on what is happening and what is coming up for everyone in the school.

STRAWBERRY SOCIAL

St. Gabriel's Anglican Church will hold a strawberry social and craft show Saturday, June 23 from 1 to 5 p.m. at the church. Admission is $1 per person and this will include refreshments. The demonstrations of crafts will be varied and interesting and there will be something for every member of the family.

Richmond Hill South

Rotary Club garage sale Saturday

The Richmond Hill Rotary Club will hold a garage sale on the south side of Carrville Road just east of Yonge Street, Saturday, June 23.

The sale will be from 10 a.m. and there will be a variety of items for sale... something for everyone. All proceeds will be used for the Rotary Club's service projects in the community.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Carrville United Church is holding a Cemetery Memorial Service Sunday, June 24 at 9:45 a.m.

The church is on Carrville Road just west of Bathurst Street. Everyone is welcome to attend this service.

SUMMER READING
The Richvale Library is sponsoring a summer reading

Your Liberal contact

While the three areas of Richmond Hill each have their own column on this page — North, Central, and South — it's nice to know they're finally all being compiled by the same person. So it's easy to get your news into its proper area. Millie Stewart, a veteran correspondent with

The Liberal, started out handling Richmond Hill North; completely initiated the Richmond Hill Central column; and has now taken on the handling of Richmond Hill South.

She's available Fridays and Mondays at The Liberal, 884-8177 or 881-3373.

Viking Club tournament June 30

The Viking Club annual golf tournament has been set for Saturday, June 30. Tee-off time is 7 a.m. at John Evelyn's Golf Course near Stouffville. Tickets are available at the Viking Club or at Rudy's Fish and Chip Store in the Oak Ridges Plaza. The tickets are $25 for a couple and $15 per person. The price includes a dinner and dance at 8 p.m. at the Viking Club.

Anyone wishing just to attend the dinner and dance may do so at $10 per couple. Trophies will be presented during the dance.

WHEELHOUSE CLUB

The ladies of the Wheelhouse Club have decided to keep the clubrooms open for the summer months.

The first and third Wednesdays of each month will be reserved for afternoon euchre games, and the other Wednesdays will be for social afternoons, where members and their friends may gather to work on crafts or just visit.

Friday afternoons will be craft sessions with everyone working on individual crafts.

NEW EXECUTIVE

A new executive for the Wheelhouse Club has been elected. They are: president — Dorothy Barnsdale; first vice-president — Violet Lupson; second vice-president — Audrey Mayes; secretary — Gladys Gardiner; assistant secretary — Anne Piirto; treasurer — Lil Baisley; public relations — Lil Baisley and Doug Carter; kitchen convener — Mary Brown and trip convener — Audrey Mayes.

Mrs. Baisley wishes to thank all members for promptly submitting membership fees.

SUMMER PLAYGROUNDS

The Richmond Hill Parks and Recreation Department will sponsor summer playground programs at several community schools for the summer months.

Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox Public Schools will both have such programs.

The morning program is for children aged four to seven and runs from 9:30 to 11:30 weekdays from July 3 to August 10.

The afternoon program is for those aged eight to 12 and is from 1:30 to 3:30 for the same dates.

Children may register the first day of the program at the schools or in advance at the Parks and Recreation offices, 10266 Yonge Street, Richmond Hill.

Additional information is available by calling 884-8101 and asking for the Parks and Recreation Department.

The registration fees are $5 for the half-day program or $15 for a family rate.
