

Rumble Transport wins 33-18 in softball

Rumble Transport won its second game of the young Richmond Hill Minor Ball season last week defeating Keith Hood Real Estate 33-18 despite Robert Viverette's two homers for the losers.

The OHEV T-Ball players won their match against Town Auto Body 27-25.

Another T-Ball game saw Water Refining defeating Baymar Sports

33-30. Both teams gave it a good effort. Jason Hill hammered three homers along with Tom Lannon while Kris Ash hit one for Baymar.

The winning team got some fine hitting also as Jeff Merker exploded for four homers while Scott hit three.

Senior girls' play saw D.Q. Banana Splits losing 18-11 to Richvale's Beck Electric.

Wednesday night saw the Intermediate girls' team, T-Shirt Shoppe, demolish Oak Ridges 32-18.

Ann Marie Lannon led the onslaught with a grand slammer. Lisa Comben, Deena Dunnett and Linda Reisenweber hit four for four. Deann Aubie homered in the second inning.

The Richmond Hill Slo-Pitch sponsored ored Intermediate Girls' team continue to lead the league so far with two consecutive wins.

They defeated The Record Shop 33-28 with Michelle Turner contributing a home run.

Junior Tyke action saw D.Q. Onion Rings defeating Rice's Flowers 16-13.

Powell Fencing narrowly defeated Powell Plumbing 16-15 with Glen Murphy homering for the winners to break the tie in the fifth inning.

Another close battle saw Block Parents squeaking out a win over Kinnear Pontiac. Coach Heide Deluca states her Block Parent team is strong defensively around the infield and can count on good hitting from Alison Kent who went four-for-four in the last game.

Thursday night saw the six Pee wee teams in action.

An exhibition game between the Record Shop and Oak Ridges saw The Record Shop trouncing the latter team 24-2.

The outclassed Oak Ridges team saw some excellent pitching from Shawn Porter who also hit a homer in the first inning.

Summit Transmission didn't fare so well losing 24-11 to Richvale despite Mike Collier's home run and Paul Sarazin's pitching.

Supreme Towing downed Rumble Transport 9-4.

R. F. Mote pounds Carcone's 12-2

The Richmond Hill Minor Ball Association kicked off its regular season play last week and the first game of the year was a crunching defeat for Carcone's Esso.

They took a 12-2 pounding from RF Mote.

The Dairy Queen Parfaits were no "softies" in their game as they beat Loughlin Home Supply 14-8.

Guaranty Trust faced the squirt team from Oak Ridges and went down in a narrow defeat, 16-15. Oak Ridges was triumphant again when they beat Ramsay Rec. 15-7 in the Bantam boys division.

Tuesday was T-Ball night and Rumble Transport gave Baymar Sports a ride, winning the game 32-30. Robbie Wilson led the offense with four home runs. Cathy Tromanhauser pitched a very good game for the losers.

Keith Hood Real Estate lost to Water Refining 29-27 in another close contest.

The Dairy Queen Banana Splits were edged out by the Richvale Senior Girls, 14-12. Coach Peter Blain said Tammy Ferrando and Sarah Williamson produced a good hitting game to keep the score close.

Kathy Vandersoy whacked out a homer, knocking in two runs and Joanne Reynolds batted in another two plus a homer, giving Supreme Towing the lift they needed to defeat Hanson's Flowers 26-22. The game was important for both teams, since it counted for two games.

Rice's Flowers and Powell Fencing tied their game on Wednesday 10-

10. The division is known as 'Junior Tykes' and is a combination of two groups — Junior Girls and Tykes — as a result of too few players.

The Junior Girls roster had only two teams this year. A chance to play a more competitive game and the elimination of two girls' teams playing against each other, were factors considered in making the division a co-ed one.

The other Junior Tyke match saw Block Parents fry the Dairy Queen Onion Rings 19-9.

The Record Shop soundly walloped the Dairy Queen Burgers 24-10 in another well-played game.

Richmond Hill Slo-Pitch sponsored an intermediate girls team this year and the girls came up with a win in their first game. They drubbed T-Shirt Shoppe 19-6 and Mary Lynn Scullino led the way with two home runs.

Aquatic Club takes medals

The Richmond Hill Aquatic Club placed fifth in its sixth annual Invitational Swim Meet at Centennial Pool.

The weather was kind and gave the Meet a garden party atmosphere.

Richmond Hill trailed the much larger clubs from Markham, North Bay, TOMAC and Scarborough.

The club provided a canteen and a craft bar to which the parents all contributed.

The Club also held a raffle and the crocheted afghan was won by Mrs. H. Price of Richmond Hill, and the handpainted pottery jug was won by Mr. W. Thompson of Scarborough.

Thirty-six of Richmond Hill's businesses made donations to help with the costs of the ribbons, medals, and trophies.

In the 11-12 year old girls, Janet Davidson won gold medals in the 100 m. back, 200 I.M., bronze medals in the 200 free, 100 fly, 100 free, 4th place in the 200 breast, and 5th in the 100 breast.

Frank Bruhn, in the 11-

12 year old boys won gold medals in the 200 free, 100 fly, 100 back, a silver medal in the 100 free, and bronze medals in the 200 breast, 100 breast. He swam as an exhibition swimmer in the 200 I.M.

In the 13-14 year old girls, Leslie Foord won a certificate in the 100 back, and a gold medal in the 200 back.

Jackie Crockford, swimming the 15-17 year old girls won gold medals in the 200 free, 100 free, a silver in the 100 back, and a bronze in the 200 back, and 5th place in the 100 breast. Annie Parnis won a 6th in the 200 breast. Stephen Davey, in the boys division, won a silver in the 100 breast, and a fourth place in the 200 breast.

Relay races were swum on Sunday, and the team of Croy Bott, Jeff Macey, Jason Clarke, and Mark Klein, all first year swimmers, won silver medals in the 10- and under 100 medley. The girls 20-and-under placed fifth, girls 11 and 12 were fourth, and the girls 15-17 with the team of Jackie Crockford, Christine Bogie, Janet Evans, and Leslie Foord won a bronze medal.

The medals were presented to the winners by Peter Evans, Vice-President of the Club and by Chuck Ealey, a former Argonaut quarterback.

High point trophy winners from RHAC were Frank Bruhn, 11-12 year old boys, Janet Davidson, 11-12 year old girls, and Jackie Crockford, 15-17 year old girls.

Hill Ladies unbeaten

The Richmond Hill Intermediate ladies are still undefeated as they beat Pickering and Cedar Hill this week. This makes the team's record — eight wins, no losses.

Wednesday night saw Richmond Hill beat Pickering 11-20. The winning pitcher was Kelly MacInnis.

Giselle Marchand was outstanding at bat and on third base. She hit four for four, which included a home run and over-powered Pickering with her sizzling throws to first.

Kathy Motley caught a good game. Bernie Thompson and Janet Buxton hit well for the Hill.

Thursday night The Hill travelled to Scarboro to play Cedar Hill and defeated them 8-3.

Sue O'Connell was the starting pitcher. She was relieved late in the first inning by Darlene Nelson when she ran into some trouble. At the end of the first inning the scene was gloomy. Cedar Hill led 3-

The top of the second saw Kathy Motley starting things off with a good solid single. Bonnie Bryant had a single and Bernie Thompson hit a dazzling triple. At the end of the second inning the score was 3-3.

The fourth inning was the tie-breaker when Janet Buxton, Katie McNamara and Sue O'Connell all scored.

Darlene Nelson was very good on the mound striking out eight and giving up three hits. Bonnie Bryant batted well, hitting three for four. Laurie Willis also batted well.

The team was strong both on the field and on the bench.

Wednesday, June 20 at 8:30 in the Town Park, the Intermediate Ladies play host to Malton.

Carcone squirts whip Stereo 29-12

Carcone Esso Squirts walloped Stereo Factory 29-12 in Oak Ridges minor softball league play last week.

Michael Carcone and Billy Lyons led the winners with homers with two men on base. Mike Smith homered for Stereo in the bottom of the third inning.

Senior girls' games saw Richmond Hill Auto Body defeating The Record Shop of Oak Ridges 15-5 behind the grand slammer of Beth Kendy in the top of the fifth inning. She also hit three other homers. Barbara Tarrington went five for five. Tiffany Runge pitched a good game in her first time ever on the mound.

Elgin Mills Dodge Pee wees dumped Ryman shoes 15-1 behind the inspired pitching of Willy McKinley who struck out seven of the 14 batters he faced. Gary Brown struck out five of the seven batters he faced.
